Thread: [>>>>DEFACE PAGE<<<< \[Source Code\]](#)

I myself do not use this.

I don't deface because it is pointless.

I was just messing around a bit after completing the game and I coded this simple ASCII deface page.

It's nothing special.

You can edit the ASCII text to your own text using a text to ASCII generator.

Example: <http://jackinthebox52.com/Dedsec.html>

You can use different fonts and variate it a bit.

i can feel the heat of a million dedsec-wannabe script kiddies mashing their keyboard with the force of a thousand suns but other than the incoming blast of skid, it looks amazing. kudos

The skull is made from HTML and text so no images were used in this.

Wow! I actually thought that was an image. I'm really impressed with the use of ASCII! That's pretty damn impressive.

Thank you man!

Feel free everyone to use this

Why does it have to make sense when it all comes together to make a deface page?

Because of people like me who mock other people's bad code.
