Thread: I Had A Scary Dream Last Night\(Share Your Dreams From Last Night Here\)

ImTheBreach - July 1, 2014, 6:37 am

Last night I had a scary dream last night that felt so real.

The dream was about me being sick and something about my lungs were collapsing so I had to get surgery which would cause me to die once they operated on me and then they would have to bring me back to life. I would constantly cough up blood days before the surgery. I don't really know how to explain my dream but it was so weird and scary. I woke up in the middle of the night and was so happy to find myself in the bed and realize that it was only a dream. Good thing I woke up before the operation started.

Did anyone have any scary dreams last night?

M?tt - July 1, 2014, 6:37 am

That's frightening but I didn't have any dreams last night to share. Sorry OP.

It's cool man and yes that dream was terrifying. My "dream self" was in constant fear of dying.

I didn't dream about anything at all last night.

I had one where I was operating on a dying patient, who was coughing up blood and everything. I then woke up and realised I'm not really a doctor and that it was a dream.

I saw a leopard walking in front of my house in my dreams.

Nieeli - July 1, 2014, 7:05 am

Cheated on GF with 5 different girls. I was relieved that it was a dream when I woke up lol.

That sounds freaky. Don't you ever get those dreams in which you're going to die?

I had a few in which somebody would point a gun at me and say "This is it.", it's so unreal. In my dream I mentally prepare myself to die and tell myself "I had a great life. Shame I have to leave now, but I don't regret anything" and then BAM I wake up. I usually have to sit down for a few minutes and process what just happened and that I'm not actually dead. So fucking creepy.

Last night though I only had a weird dream that I was in an apartment with my friend and his parents come in while we were cooking.

I'm sorry guys for not replying back. I'm having a situation where my mom's OS needs to be fixed. I'm fixing that atm and will be back on this thread when I'm finished.

I didn't have a scary dream last night but I had one earlier this week, where someone was trying to hurt me by killing my friends & family members. I was devastated throughout the dream & felt so helpless.

but I took a sigh of relief when I woke.

I had an amazing dream last night, I was in an elite first class group and there where beautiful women all around me about 10 of them in the room and the room was long and narrow with 3 King size beds with red and white attire. The women were all of different ethics, ex mixed, black, white, and everything in-between. I fucked a beautiful mixxed girl that had double Ds and was stunning and then the other girl said to fuck me really quick because a guy name Spencer was coming into the room and then I woke up.

I wanted to finish my dream man.

I hate when that happens! I had a dream where I was in LOVE with some girl. This dream was the best I've ever had. It was years ago but I still remember it. We were both in love and then I woke up. Our love seemed like it could only happen in movies. I wanted to cry ?

I had sex with my best friend in a public swimming pool

Well, last night I banged a hot chick. The scary part was that it was a dream. But I have food so I got what is going for me which is nice.

I had a dream that I was being blackmailed and I had to murder someone else to stop the blackmail. So I murdered my best friend and got arrested.

I had a dream when I was playing hockey on lava.

shiika - July 1, 2014, 9:31 am

I had a dream that I woke up and heard a strange tapping sound from my closet. It slowly rose in loudness until it was a banging. I called out to my room mate and when he came over the banging stopped. As soon as he left the banging started up again. I ran to the closet and opened the door to find nothing, just pure blackness. I bit my mouth to see if i was numb (because for some reason that's how I know if I'm dreaming) I then realized the only way out of this dream was to die. I simply closed my eyes. Then the door opened and something dashed across my room and then I heard a slash, and a crunch. The last thing I heard was a piercing laugh, and then I woke up.

Haven't had a scary dream recently, but I remember one I had where I was with my dad on a road trip, and we stopped to get gas at a gas station. For some reason my dad didn't pull in to the gas station, and pulled alongside the curb on the road. I was walking towards the gas station when I heard a cars tires screeching, so I turned quickly and saw my dads truck get smashed by another car. The car that hit my dads car kept going and crashed in to a big 18 wheeler gas truck (the trucks with round bodies that deliver gas to the gas station) and then the gas truck caught on fire. I started to run away toward the gas station when the gas truck blew up and also blew up the gas station I was running toward. Everything went black and I died. I woke up sweating like a motherfucker.

yikes, being chased and unable to run away is one I had a while back- felt like I was on the moon with 0 gravity

bunfun - June 18, 2023, 3:20 pm

Had a dream where I did dextery - November 11, 2023, 10:20 am

That i got pulled out of my bed and flunged all across the room by an unknown force

New users love digging up this thread lol.

I love nightmares. As a huge horror fan, it's like an interactive scary movie that I can wake up from

Syndicate - November 11, 2023, 11:19 am

Ever since a kid, one of my reoccurring nightmares when I'm sick specifically, is that I'm extremely small and there's a lot of big creatures or spiders/insects that are chasing me. I don't know why, but it's always been a thing when I'm sick corleone - November 16, 2023, 1:24 am

sounds like hell

i dreamt about flying rats?
