You said that: " Contest will be valid only if there are atleast 30 participants. "

And how does it connected to: "Participants List will be updated below in the order they posts and the final winners will be announced by using random.org." Because there are only 10 space left?

Thank you!

The contest will start when I reach 30 participants and it will be there for 15 days during which the participants have to wear the signature.

I'll edit the spots as the number of participants increase.
