Thread: Scammed by Freddy Krueger \(\$217\) | Paypal Holding | UID= 262695

Rayyy - July 3, 2014, 7:07 pm

Profile link: <https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=262695>

I ask you not to disregard this thread and 1-star it just because he's a very well-known member on here and I'm not. PLEASE read the thread before jumping to conclusions and thinking I'm bullshitting.

I asked Omni before posting this thread, he said I can open a deal dispute about this.

I will briefly describe how this whole thing went:

Freddy Krueger was my PayPal holder before it was disallowed on HackForums. Before it was disallowed by a month or more, Freddy asked if he could borrow some money from the money he was holding from me because he was in a "tight situation". I absolutely didn't mind because Freddy was a good friend of mine and I still didn't have a PayPal account. After it was disallowed on HackForums, I messaged Freddy telling him that I wanted him to exchange the money to BTC or LTC and send it to me. He said he still didn't have the money and when he does he'll exchange it as soon as possible. Every single time I asked him, he keeps coming up with excuses. I once told him I'll open a scam report within

Screenshots:

Spoiler (Click to View)

Now, before you ask why I don't have a PayPal account, I'll tell you why. I'm from Egypt and PayPal added Egypt to the list of countries at the end of 2013 (it wasn't there previously). I happily created a PayPal account; however, there was a problem. I couldn't receive any payments, I could only send ones. PayPal doesn't support Egyptian accounts to receive payments, yet. I needed a PayPal holder so I definitely went to Freddy and asked him to be my PayPal holder (he was a really good friend of mine, he upgraded me to UB3R, and I trusted him of course).

P.S: Our Skype chats are too long so I can't really gather that many screenshots. If you need me to prove anything, I'll gladly provide any specific screenshots you ask for or even show you the chat via Teamviewer.

EDIT: Freddy has paid $70 of what he owes me. Now he owes me $147.

FlexiN - July 3, 2014, 7:11 pm

Legit scam report! Sorry you were scammed by your own friend. I know how you feel it has happened to me a couple of times. I hope Freddy comes to His senses and pays you what he owes.

Good luck OP

This is the reason paypal holders aren't allowed dude.

Obli - July 3, 2014, 7:19 pm

I'm sure that Freddy Krueger will consider that he owes you $200, he's a good guy who wouldn't really risk his status on HF for this.

Online Expert Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) This is the reason paypal holders aren't allowed dude.

Please read the thread. I told him to give me the money after PayPal holders were disallowed. After that, he kept giving me excuses and I'm stuck here without my money. I've been waiting for a long time.

I hope he really does consider that. Whenever I speak to him about it, he keeps on coming up with excuses.

I never said he was a bad guy. In fact, I still consider him as a friend of mine. It's just that I needed to post this so that I could make him hurry up and give me the money back. As soon as he gives me my money back, I'll junk this thread.

As a good friend of his, I'd see him paying you back. I've spoken to him recently and I do know he's been in a financial situation. Also, I do know he wouldn't want to tarnish his reputation over this.

However, legit scam report. Good luck OP. I can try contacting him if you want.

I can understand him being in a financial situation, but he keeps on saying that every time. I've been waiting for 6+ months, I don't want to wait any longer. Yes, please message him for me.

Shit man this sucks. Difficult to read really. I understand where he's coming from, I really do. Up until may of this year I could barely get by each month. I'd need to go to the food bank every other week. Now I'm in a better situation. (I'll just say income has trippled).

I feel bad for freddy and even more so for you. Legit scam report. Hope you get your money back mate!

Going from a debt into another debt would be a pretty bad idea, There's also the issue of getting the money into him since there is no PP in Lebanon as well. I was using an unverified one.

Nas - July 4, 2014, 3:45 am

Well, if OP did not ask Freddy a due date for you to pay him back then this report is not valid.

Freddy did say he was going to pay you back when he has the funds and he still does not have it.

Autopost - July 4, 2014, 3:48 am

This report is legit, but isn't a scam in my opinion, more like a deal dispute, like the forum suggests.

Freddy I know feels bad about this, but he doesn't have the money, he will pay you back as soon as he probably can.

He did give me a due date. He borrowed the money in December or November and said he'd give it back at the end of the month. Now imagine if you were in my situation and waited that long, would you want to wait any longer? I'm really sorry Freddy. Going by your logic, if he hadn't given me a due date, would that make it okay to make me wait longer?

I understand Freddy's situation, but if he said he'd give you the money by end of December of last year and now we're in July 2014, i would of done the same thing Ray, so don't worry mate.. you're not in the wrong for making this thread.

Normally i would sympathize with your situation and agree with the post you've made but the OP has been waiting since around December 2013 for you to pay him back and you've failed to do so. Not to mention that you seem to have money to pay for games but yet you didn't have the decency to slowly pay him back?

Its literally been 7-8 months since he's lend you the money, Fact of the matter is if during this time you couldn't have possibly paid him AT-LEAST $20 a month, then you've obviously scammed him. If your priorities were right you could've sold this Snapchat and began paying him back, he gave you plenty of time and has been more than patient imo.

Legit report, Sorry for your loss OP. Its quite sad to see how someone chooses to end a friendship over stealing money smh, some peoples priorities are skewed.

I don't know but all i have to say is that you seem to be making too many excuses for yourself, If Paypal isn't allowed in your country then i'm sure you could've gotten an alternative UKash/Skrill/Paysafe etc. and exchanged it for Paypal, Heck! if it would've been me i would've mined shit alt-coins until i had paid him back, You could've made atleast $200 within 7-8 months mining alt-coins on a shit computer.

Vxncent - July 4, 2014, 6:00 am

I think Darkwin has a good point, when there's a will there's a way.

However, Freddy does seem to be in a tight situation. Still, 7-8 months is a long time for only $200... maybe try selling social network services?

Anyway, hope this gets resolved tbh. Good luck!

This has gone on for a very long time. I'm sure Freddy's intentions are good on the matter, but it's time for him to take an initiative.

Check the Buyer's Bay section actively to see if there's anything people need that you have.

Check the Partnerships, Hiring, and Personnel often to see if there's anything you can do.

Post a thread in the Rewards and Small Favors section and complete some things to slowly gather money.

Also, it'd be wise to pay the money back over time, even if it's just increments of like $1-5. It all adds up.

Well, Freddy's friend (Crph Jr) said he'll pay me the money sometime this week. He said he's waiting for his friend who owes him money to get on. I've already bugged him enough, so I don't really want to PM him asking about the money again. I'll just keep this thread open until it gets resolved. But yeah, I agree with you that it's very ironic.

This is pretty much robbery, I don't know how you've remained calm for so long..

I'm a really kind person and I understood the situation he was in so I just remained calm and didn't ask for the money. This is too much, though. He scammed me for $217 and I don't know if he'll ever give them back or find a solution to do so.

I just want my money and I'm fucking fed up. I lost $112 before on my limited PayPal account (which is why I used a PayPal holder, cause PP always fucks me up). I'm not willing to lose anymore money, honestly.

If I was in this situation I'd go crazy, you've been waiting for over 6 months yet you haven't recieved a single dollar.

Freddy has to go and do something about this and he has to do it now, cause if I was OP I wouldn't be that friendly and generous at all.

Well, don't let this put you off doing this again, it's useful tool to have, trust is awesome. Just get some collateral next time, like a phone number or something that would be bad if abused. If the person is planning to pay you back, they won't mind you having the collateral.

I know why you haven't been able to pay me back. Yes, I'm more than pissed off because you made me wait this long to get MY MONEY that you said you would give back at "the end of the month". It's your own responsibility to know whether or not you'll be able to pay me back my money at the end of the money, not mine. There were a lot of things you could have done to pay me back. I don't think it's me who's playing dumb here.

I've owed $300 debts before which is around this and I've managed countless times to pay back sums like this in a couple weeks max. If you truly want him to get his money back, you will. It's simple.
