You can create an IP address loopback in your hosts file, and serve your own 'paypal(.)com' site very easily. I'm not accusing you of doing this.

Omni and I are the oldest ones in this thread :)

Rarely do I see people older than 2009.

Not many people who signed up near 2009 online anymore. :(

But, I think he is referring to Ty with setting this method up and earning that much money.

Leads me to believe this method has something to do with marketing, PPD, CPA or Fiverr since you've just been skipping over my questions.

Would have liked to buy this eBook but that changed my mind. Good luck with sales.

This is still up for sale guys.

Let me know if you have any questions.

AmazinBlazin - July 26, 2014, 7:01 pm

I have a question, why do you have fake reviews in your video? I've seen those actors on Fiverr, lol.

Vouch for Ty [™] Providing HQ Products. Good luck with sales :)

FuhKoff - August 4, 2014, 11:44 am

I like how people say they will post a review after they purchase and try it out, but I don't see any reviews or proof of earnings..

Freddy K. - August 4, 2014, 6:37 pm

Um, that testimonial video was made from actors on fiverr. You paid them to make those videos.

But, i suppose i can vouch for my man Ty, made over $350+ with this within 1 month!

Just want everyone to know, that you WILL need to work to receive income.
Maybe I just got lucky, but i'm forever thankful.
