Thread: Scammed by 0x68 | uid=1125619 | \$118.00 \(Chargeback\)

user profile: <https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=1125619>

This member has scammed me twice now actually...First scam report is here:

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4280338>

When confronting him on skype about it, he decided that it would be cool to chargeback on a deal we did earlier (PP>BTC), he chargedback $118 paypal which he received BTC for.

Here is the inital unauthorized claim he opened, then closed

Here is the goods and services claim he opened after he closed the old one, I guess he thought that would work better?

here is him bragging about scamming me on skype, notice the case id matches.

--I won the dispute!--

DO NOT DEAL WITH THIS MEMBER.

EDIT:

This is in response to his absurdly bold lie he told in response:

(Jul 4, 2014 04:06 PM)0x68 Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) This dispute is invalid because I closed the chargeback MYSELF and NEVER got the money back. Next time don't open a chargeback and I wouldn't have to do the same with you for compensation.

This is a bold lie...Original picture clearly states paypal's response to close the dispute...You closed the unauthorized claim, then immediately afterwards opened a goods dispute because you thought it would work better. Then i called paypal and had them close it over the phone...Your intention was to scam...Not only is this part a lie, but you also say that you chargedback after I did, and that when it was closed you did...LOL.

You won my chargeback (which was actually legit), about 24 hours before you even opened this one....Your a piece of shit.

PROOF: If you reference the 2nd picture, it clearly states paypal looked into it and deemed me the winner...If you're going to lie, how about conceiving something a little better than something that is already proven false in OP.

Had a misunderstanding Ox68 seems like a nice guy in pm's

Ox - - July 4, 2014, 4:06 pm

You're an idiot seeking for attention. You opened a dispute with me for the same amount so I opened one with you for compensation until I get yours closed, once it got closed..I also closed this one.

So how did I scam you if I never got the money back? Imfao

Proof of your chargeback you opened on me first

Then the one I opened on you for compensation

Then I closed it.

Mine, filled on the 16th of June and proof that I closed it.

Your charge back that you opened on the 11th and got closed on the 18th

GTFO you lying fuck

This dispute is invalid because I closed the chargeback MYSELF and NEVER got the money back. Next time don't open a chargeback and I wouldn't have to do the same with you for compensation.

He's just mad because he lost his chargeback.

Anyway, I didn't do anything wrong here so I won't bother to keep replying as that's what you guys want, attention.

In the skype chats it seems like you did it on purpose.

I did, he opened one on me first and I opened one with him for the same price until his is closed.

We call that compensation. There's nothing wrong with that and therfor this shit is invalid.

If he didn't want a chargeback open on himself, he shouldn't have opened one against me first.

Probably not the only thing that 0x68 has claimed was not him ?

The hell are you talking about? Look, if you're going to post your non sense, go do it elsewhere.

Six-Nine - July 4, 2014, 4:24 pm

It looks like Ph3x opened a chargeback on 0x68 and then 0x68 opened a chargeback to cover for the chargeback Ph3x opened.

I dont think that this is a legit scam report anymore.

hyhyyhhrf3 - July 4, 2014, 4:26 pm

Why do you morons keep dealing with him? Seriously.

POLY MATH - July 4, 2014, 4:30 pm

I have dealt with 0x68, twice. It's been about a week now. He has not chargedback yet and one deal was for more then the user was scammed.

I am not saying who is a scammer and who isn't.

Just stating, I had no problems with 0x68.

I'm not speaking nonsense I'm referring to the time when you faked being hacked on Skype.

My chargeback was legit...His was not...I chargedback due to a previous scam report...which was proven valid, he then opened a dispute...He is lying here though...HE did NOT close the dispute...and he Opened this dispute AFTER he already won the dispute he opened against me...Very deceitful member...IF you reference the pictures in OP, you can clearly see he didn't close shit. I won the dispute (for goods), which was the second dispute...He is a skid...bottom line.

Obli - July 4, 2014, 5:04 pm

I'd like to see what he'd have said if he lived right next to you. People scam on the internet and think they're untouchable, fuck this shit.

Calling me a skid? How old are you? You're just pissed off and trying to get some revenge but heavily failing. Anyway, I ain't got shit else to say on here because I've already posted my part of the story earlier.

Not trying to get revenge at all, I am posting my experience with a scammer.

You're part of the story has been proven to be a bold faced lie, obviously you have nothing else to say...lmao...You're a scammer, go away xD

Scammer = Skid in my book, so yes, you are a skid...

When did you close it?

And Ph3x, what do you have to say now?

Oh, well...Not lying actually, remembered it wrong...No your right though...I guess mine still wasn't resolved?

Regardless, NO, you didn't close the goods one, which was the dispute you opened IMMEDIATELY after you closed the unauthorized one...

AGAIN, my dispute was VALID, you gave me a not as described API, and i chargedback, about 5 others did the same thing, your a scamming scumbag...Fuck off. You did NOT close the goods dispute as proven in the picture in teh OP, which is the LATEST dispute...I got an email saying you closed the dispute, then 5 mintues later a new email saying you open unauthorized, you are still lying.

I simply forgot, you are blatantly lying now, trying to say you closed the dispute...lmao...

Again, you closed dispute #1 (unauthorized) by yourself, but then you opened a new goods dispute, because you thought it would give you a better chance...Then i called paypal and they looked into it and closed it...you did NOT close it...You OBVIOUSLY attempted to scam...had nothing to do with compensation, has our deal was with BTC>PP.

Sure I'm lying -_- Now you're pulling the "oh wait i forgot" card.

Anyway, I don't know why I'm still arguing with you kid. Peace.

Aceman - July 5, 2014, 7:14 am

Ph3xcan you put this in the deal dispute database? I'm sick of people being scammed by this kid, it's absolutely absurd.

hyhyyhhrf3 - July 8, 2014, 3:18 am

You ever get your money back , Phex?

Save it... the evidence is nailed to the cross. You got caught.

Restrict - July 8, 2014, 4:22 pm

User messaged me like 6 times to deal, thank god I actually realized he was a scammer and didn't respond.

WOW, I defended OP in this case, and 0x68 decides to neg rep me because he knows i cant neg rep due to being a normal member.

<https://www.dropbox.com/s/d1btreicopy13rx/Capture.PNG>

This is ridiculous, all i said was the evidence is already stated. I stated the truth, and got neg repped.

This guy is not only an attempted scammer but a real low life. Can someone please tell me if this is a neg rep abuse? I did not swear at him nor scam him?

Is that how neg reps are given in this forum... im new

Can OP please add this to Deal Disputes database, so there can be more coverage for this man's crimes?

Dankrupt - July 12, 2014, 4:22 am

@0x68

When PH?x had done the previous chargeback it was for goods that had no overhead cost. You then went and charged back on a BTC transaction which would make PH?x lose over $100, your "revenge charge back" is not justifiable at all. You were proven wrong in the original scam report and he had every right to charge back in the first place. You and PH?x had a legitimate BTC trade in which you blatantly tried to scam him.

The way you talked with him over Skype makes me think you should be banned from HF. You obviously don't care about your account and you'll eventually end up going on a scam spree and leaving on bad terms.

Yup, you too, know what you are talking about.

This man not only abuses his power as a UB3R member to neg rep people, he was caught doing it several times. Not only to me but to several L33t and normal members. (AKA people who cant fight back)

His numerous scam reports leaves people to wonder is he still running around and people still DEALING with him

Ryan Cleary - September 22, 2014, 12:29 pm

Scam report still not resolved. I don't know why people steal deal with that kid.
