Thread: [\[\$2 SIGNATURES\] Kyle's ANIMATED signatures!! CHECK HERE!](#)

KyleGallner - July 4, 2014, 3:24 pm

Hello everybody!

I decided to start this thread to help you guys with your signatures!

It's $2 only because I really want to help you guys. I will use shining animation so it looks very cool and elegant!

Any details, text, image or anything you need, please post here and I will try to do it as fast as I can (NOTE that I'm not here 24/7, so there might be a slight delay between your post and your completed signature)

Because $2 isn't such a big money, I will accept your payment as a donation or contribution to my future works.

Many people ask for money first, but I'm gonna be a little different, I'm gonna send you picture first and then we can talk about payment. If I feel like your signature wasn't really hard to do, I won't charge you at all.

I hope you guys will be interested in my thread and please leave a feedback if you liked my work!

Seems like a fair service for the price. Just a heads up though; you're using #343434 for the background, but the HF thread background is #333333. ?

Thanks a lot for the information, you helped me a lot, it's the way it is just because I screenshoted a site and then just eyedropped the color, that's why it isn't 100% correct, but thanks anyway! :)

No problem friend. ? It's not really obvious on most monitors but It's good practise to pay attention to the details.

I dont see how you charge $2 for this stuff. I have seen better on the free graphics forum. Some work looks good then some just looks like you added a shimmer to it.

If you think adding shinning effect to a text is the only thing I can do, you've been mistaken. I do what people ask me to.
