LOL! This is too accurate. I actually told my mom the other day that I still play RS and she was like "Is that that game you were obsessed with in the 6th grade?" Hahahaha!

Everyone jumps on once in a while, but they ruined the game for me

Why would you tell anyone? Who cares.

If they find out, they find out. I don't give a fuck.

I couldn't give a fuck what people think or say about me playing Runescape or any game for that matter.. most of the people who judge me are fucking idiots who go clubbing and spend £100 on alcohol so they can live with themselves everyday.
