Thread: Please read if you are new to HF. Helpful hints. Veterans let me know what i can add

O.G. Gibson - July 13, 2014, 6:44 pm

This is a few of the topics that a lot of noobs don't know about. There are a lot of threads on it but I want to consolidate some of the important ones. Feel free to PM me with any questions :)

OP : refers to the original poster of a thread.

Prestige : Earned by posting and gaining rep. The more posts you have the more prestige you get. You can also obtain prestige by reporting posts that break the rules.

Rep : a lot of people think this is important. Rep is basically people's opinion on your performance on hackforums. Get rep by helping the community and being a good hackformee that follows the rules. DO NOT POST A THREAD ASKING FOR REP. you will get a LOT of negative rep. Leet users can give +1 or neutral. Ubers can give + or - 3 and neutral. Don't ever neutral or neg rep someone for scamming without backing it up with evidence. Rep is also used before making deals to see what a user is like. Just like how eBay works, if a user has a ton of negative rep, they probably aren't the person you should trust or buy things from Repfuck : when you are stripped of all your positive rep.

Awards : given by doing various things such as donating money to HF (PM omni for the link), helping people, becoming Uber etc... Here is the full list <https://hackforums.net/myawards.php>

Groups : groups are communities in HF that help each other out and have a mission. They cost a ton of money to start. Idk exactly how much but I've heard thousands of bucks. So you can either buy into some groups, or show them that you would be a valuable asset to them. To see what the different groups are about or to apply to one, go to My CP then click on group memberships on the lower left hand side of the page.

Threads : try to search for a few minutes about a question you have before making a new thread on it. 90% of the time your question has been answered in a different thread.

Mentat and other weird words under your name : signify the amount you post. There are different levels such as harkonnen and mentat and so on that change at certain post mile markers. When you reach 50 , 250 are the first two changes. You can change this to whatever you want it to say if you buy leet.

Spoilers : to add a spoiler in a thread you will have to do it manually like this Spoiler \(Click to View\) (spoiler) (/spoiler) only with brackets instead of parentheses to change colors : (color=red) whatever you want to say (/color) with brackets instead of parentheses

And finally, just don't be a douchebag : you will get along fine and earn rep and prestige and have a happy life if u don't act like a douche :) people don't like when you posting threads asking for free stuff either.

I hope this helped someone out there. Any questions let me know.

Extremely useless information. Everyone on hackforums has 13" dicks, smokes weed and knows everything about hacking including hacking forums.

Side note about rep. Rep can be a good thing besides having people's opinion. I use it to research before making deals within the marketplace, or partnerships on HF. Until the vouch system gets a a finish that is.

Nice 'tutorial' for the new members. I'd also add on there to not ask for someone to do something for you.

(For example: "I want to make a RAT, Idk how to code but I know what it looks like. Someone help me make it thanks :)")

I've seen too many of these types of threads in the programming sections as an example..

Hey OP. For spoilers you can type (sp) (/sp) instead of the full word. Just a little help. Other than that. This is great for noobs. I keep on seeing new people ask a ton of stupid questions and do a bunch of stupid things, So this should clear it right up!

Yes they do! You can have ten - 3 neg reps and 30 +1 reps and you will be at an even 0

Anyone else have ideas how to improve this?

I troll? You had the most LQ reaction to rooted because he stood up to you and google chrome for bashing on a new member on the forums.

The only reason some people on here apparently likes you is because of your join date which you tend to brag alot about.

Hey im not trying to get in the way of this but i was reading it and saying that it helped nobody just didn't make sense. Obviously some of the "Bigger" members might not have needed it but its still there for people use. I don't understand why you continue to rant on about this thread when all you are doing is getting more attention to the thread. If you don't like it then ignore it. I don't understand why you continue to rant on about this thread when all you are doing is getting more attention to the thread. If you don't like it then ignore it. Because more then likely it helped someone and they can be appreciative of that.

Your either the same person as op or you want his dick, which is it?

Oh lmao, I've never cared about rep though so the fact that he insults me over it is just plain stupid. I still have 70 positive reps which is more than his /facepalm
