Thread: Make me a good name - Win \$5 BTC!

Vxncent - July 15, 2014, 3:41 am

I'm looking to change my online identity and need a slick name. I want it to be probably 4-7 letters long and it has to have .com available to buy, available on Skype and available on HackForums..

I have come across a person called "Spurlex" - which I think is a great name! I'm looking for something that sounds smooth and is cool, like that. But obviously not similar to that.

Post your ideas below, if I find a name from this thread that I like and it has .com available plus is available on here and on Skype, I will give the person that came up with the name $5 Bitcoin.

Also, using fake word generators may help if you aren't creative but can sit there for a while and find a good name.

These aren't too bad but a lot are taken on here, on skype and as a .com domain. Also, i'm looking for something that isn't a real word preferably..

I don't think that having a name 1 letter off from a staff member is allowed.

Not quite what I'm looking for, kinda heading towards a fake word would be better.

Raxos. Fun play on another name for a nobody of Sora.
You could also go with Xaros, Xroas, or Sarox and they would all be a valid name for Sora's nobody.

Non kingdom-hearts fans disregard.

You sir, could possibly be my winner. Checking domains on all these now, will PM you if I choose this!

EDIT: Sarox.com is taken, so still looking for a name!

I don't really indulge in bitcoin bud, I'm not worried about it. If possible, make a btc donation to HF for my win if you go with one. Any of those names would be dope. Good luck regardless.

It happens d:

There are lots of characters you could do it for, so I'll just make my suggestion "Someone's Nobody" if that's at all fair ?

A few examples would be

Kruix, Rukix, Kurix, Xurik, Kuxir ; nobodies of Riku
Kairi, Raikix, Kaixir, Raixik, Rakiix ; nobodies of Kairi
