I'm not saying i'd like to be unbanned but it would be pretty sad for other people who actually want to be in there to chill and talk get banned for no reason.

People that were in the room : Brii, S (Or steve I think his name was?), Niggabot, Or_Nah, and I think one more afk person

His name's Notorious. He made "Niggabot", been messing around with ban requests. He can basically ban anyone except the room owner when the bot is in the room.

Whats wrong with you.. internet gangster.

You got: Negative (-3): Hello, is it me you're looking for? I can see it in your eyes, I can see it in your smile, you're all I ever wanted, and more..

You gave: Negative (-3): Used his grandmother like a fucking toaster and almost got her arrested, fuck you Jack you piece of shit.

Seems like you care about your rep.
