Thread: Google search penalisation service | Remove your enemy from Google

Dum De Dum - July 18, 2014, 6:26 am

Hello, I am offering my Google search engine penalisation service, please read on.

What does this do? - This service will penalize the targeted site off Google search, so when you search for the site or keywords, it will no longer show up.

Why is this Good? - By penalizing your opponents site you can:

Receive more customers by knocking down the competition

Climb higher in ranking if you are stuck under a highly SEO'd site, it will be removed and you will replace its spot

Take down businesses that require Google ranking for their business.

Price: The site will be quoted before given a set price. Minimum fee per site is $250

Frequently asked questions:

Is this blackhat? - Yes

How long does it usually take? - This depends on Google, although the expected time range is between 2-6 weeks.

If you can't penalize the site what happens? - You will be refunded, but the site will be penalized, when the site is quoted we make sure that the site is able to be penalized, if its too hard we will not do the site.

I think it cost too much can you go lower? - No, These prices are very cheap, the outcome will benefit you very well and will damage them very bad, + the work that is needed.

Payment Methods: BTC - Skrill

Hi

This service sounds awesome, and I need this in the future. So, when you remove a website from google search, it will only be gone until they SEO it again right? or will it stay down for a while?

EDIT:

And if they manage to get on top of the google search again, is it possible to remove them again?

?Criminal - September 2, 2014, 10:23 pm

I have a method like this involving socialing google support but good luck on your service OP.

You already know how strict they are over there. Are you sure you have the protection or do you think you have the possibility of getting years of prison over there? I'm not to be fucked with or I will turn you over to your local authorities. I can easily gather information because of how transparent you've made yourself. Are you sure you want the Australian organized crime authorities at your doorstep? I will completely fucking ruin your life without any hesitation.

You also buy followers on Twitter to make it look like more business than you do. You don't even get that much business at all. That's fucking weak and pathetic.

Reason for the price is because the offers I get for sites have a pr higher then 5 most of the time and the sites are ranked in the top 5000, this is a matter of totally screwing million dollar businesses for a few hundred dollars.

But yes, for easier sites I do make exceptions.

When i quote the site i take in many factors such as how strong the sites SEO is along side the pr rank, traffic and backlinks it already has. when i perform my service i still have to do pretty much the same amount of work for each site although the larger sites i charge more as they need more attention.

Negative Review

I have not opened a Dispute yet, but I paid $700 and have not received anything except for broken promises. It's been over 2 months.

Proof...

I'm hoping the XR8TD will work to resolve this. ?
