Thread: [\[FREE\] xBlack Locker | Most Customizable | FUD](#)

L4MER_N3WBY3 - July 20, 2014, 2:08 pm

Hello everybody, I developed this just to lose a good amount of time and to prove my coding skills in something new.

So here's the result, I post it here if someone could found this usefull.

Well, if you are against shitcash please stop read now.

Features :

[+] FUD

[+] Automatically change Background with the image of the running OS : supported XP - VISTA - 7 - 8 (check out on the screenshot to see what I mean)

[+] Choose Link (you can also not insert it) and Key

[+] Customizable MessageBox when correct Key is provided

[+] All texts are customizable (titles\labels\buttons included)

[+] Timer Mode : Set a time (in minutes) and display a Countdown Timer. When it goes to 0 you can choose if the pc should reboot, shutdown or if the locker should close automatically. Also, you can display a text on the screen(short) or a customizable MessageBox.

[+] Assembly Changer

[+] Remove Images : this is to decrease the size of the output file of around 220 Kb by removing all the OS related images

[+] Compress : This will compress the output around of 50% with Mpress (generally from 440kb to 200)

[+] Customize Icon

[+] Customizable startup name

[+] Keep Startup : the register key won't be deleted after the correct key is provided

[+] Delete itself after correct key is provided

[+] Kill browsers - explorer - taskmgr - regedit when the locker is opened

[+] Kill processes : you can choose max. of 50 processes, all of these will be killed while the locker is running

[-] .Net dependencies

You can use a password against leechers.

?Dødøsky - July 21, 2014, 9:41 am

Thx bro i got the program and friendly italian neighbor :)

AceVoid - July 21, 2014, 9:52 am

OP there are some ways you can protect against leeching. One way is noob protection. Search it up ;)

but my english skill are bad ? so if you mean others just tell me

iSevere - July 23, 2014, 12:15 pm

Someone please report this thread . I fucing hate sharecash links and also file dont exist anymore . Probably it's copy paste program

JLR0309 - July 23, 2014, 12:22 pm

Downloaded just now! Will test soon in Sandboxie but as far as I can tell this is safe as long as you remember the key to unlock which you specified when setting up!

Great program, thanks L4MER_N3WBY3! ?

Illu$ion - July 23, 2014, 1:01 pm
