Love Grandpa.
R.I.P. Garner...

I watched the original footage of the scenario, it was quite disturbing. The way the NYPD reacted to their situation they were confronted with was unprofessional to say the least. Although I had a good laugh at the video you posted despite the context ?

Hopefully it can be used as a learning experience to educate protective services whomever they may be.

Yeah, so have I. Pretty sad, honestly. The cops are just stupid and really think they're gods.
