Reason: Valued member. Those are only three of his tutorials. Check his threads. The guy lives on helping this community. He's easily made more contributions than most of the members who've been here long before him. Not to mention he's just a kind-hearted person. Please consider him for MOTM.

143 Thanksgiving Giveaway Contest

Reason: Eternal has contributed a lot of his time to 143, The Empire, and the forum as a whole. With the soon to be changes of 143 into Phoenix, what better way to thank Eternal than to nominate him for Member of the Month. There are a lot of people on this forum who deserve this award, and I think he's one of them.

Reason:

This user has been a great big help for me personally on these forums.

I have personally been friends with this user for a long time and can assure you this person is not only great and High Quality on these forums, but he's a great person in real life too. He is constantly looking out for his friends and family, being the great, supportive guy that he is. I couldn't have asked for a better person, on these forums. He has taught me most everything on here, teaching me the history of the things that I missed before I registered here. I thank him, and hope that this member becomes the next MOTM. ?

Contributions: Has done his part in proofreading/writing for the HF News for quite some time now.
Always helps around in the RANF section.
Likewise tends to help wherever he can \(i.e. Ub3r Support\).

Reason:

Lovel has been a writer for the HF news for about a year now, he is always trying to provide consistency within the news. He also looks around the forum to help out where he can. To add, Lovel is a genuinely nice and friendly guy who has good intentions.

Contributions: Link 1 - The Complete Guide to Vexeling
Link 2 - Very active in RMG with insightful comments for improvement
Link 3 - Writer for the HF News for over a year. Currently leads the weekly HFNT podcasts

Reason: Baghead is a skilled graphic designer who's always looking to help out aspiring gfx artists whether it be through tips or intensive guides. He runs the HFNT podcasts weekly on the side which the community seems to be enjoying. He records these and edits them weekly for the sole purpose of bringing HF news in a fun manor. Baghead is a fine member and deserves to be on the poll for Member of The Month.

Link 3

Reason: 'Chief has recently been rewarded some very unfortunate awards. First he received the Turkey award. Then he received the Asswipe award. He could really use something to kick him back into gear, so I think this is a great opportunity. He is a well known fellah who loves Hack Forums and its members. He is a white hat and has helped a lot of Hack Forums members with their problems. That can be shown with his well achieved White Hat Helper award. 'Chief is beloved by many members.

OMC-Rates.com | Your Preev for OmniCoin | New Features Added!

Want to Start up your Own VPN Service? Created many of HFs most successful companies!

Reason: Cryptic is most likely one of the most successful businessman on HackForums. Anyone that knows him can tell that he'll go far in life. He's not even done University yet that he have his own business that grows more everyday and his VPN product is one of the most popular on HackForums. Cryptic started with $3 in his pocket when he first joined and ended up as a winner today. He's one of the members that proves that when you have the motivation, the skills and the knowledge to accomplish something, anything is possible. He's not just a "business owner" that hires people for the support or sell his products. No, Cryptic have his hands on everything that belongs to him and will always make sure personally that everything is going fine and that it's customer are satisfied. He'll also provide assistance for anyone who have issues/questions in the hosting/server/etc. business and will assist him to the best of his knowledge. You also can't see him in The Brotherhood (his group) subforum, but he's very helpful there also and provided many free features for his members : IRC server, Teamspeak server, free hosting, etc. I think he deserves to win the MOTM once and this should be his month.

Icey's Guide to Getting Your Relationship Out of a Rut - iceybunneh

Reason: First and foremost, how does she NOT have it yet? She's even been given the title "Innuendo Queen". It'd be shame to let her not at least have a chance at it. Further, she's well known for writing stories, short stubs, and doing editorial work in the groups or proof reading people's work.

She has continuously worked at writing stories, and helping the members of HF in the Innuendo section. I mean Christ, she has like 5000 posts in JUST the Innuendo section, I'm almost amazed she doesn't have an award for THAT. Perhaps she might when she hits 10k posts in that section. Either way, she helps people without complaint and has been granted a special title by members themselves.

Contributions: Is constantly helping out users within the eWhoring community

Owns the most successful eWhoring Product Line within the forum

Discovered and helped take down Legitti

Reason:

I always see Darkwin sticking up for new members that are being harrassed or scammed, Also he has contributed to the ewhoring section greatly and has made awesome music. Is also known for being a legitimate businessman, I think its about time for him to receive a MOTM nomination.

[HFarm \[Join Now \] - Updated Today - 2 Years Strong](#) - Yellows

[143 - \[Emotional Support - Relationship Support - Advice/Input \] Look Here](#) - Yellows

Reason: Yellows, while a non-serious individual much of the time, is a very caring member who cares about his fellow Hack Forums members. He strides to uplift the spirits of all those who read his posts through humor and with sensitivity. Despite being a long-tenured member of the Writers (almost one year, I think), the quality of his articles/assignments are consistent with greatness.

Reason: I actually really hated you a long time ago. I think it was in Rhythm or so. Long before you were gifted Mentor. But then one day, you added me on Skype and I talked to you for like 4 minutes and 23.2 seconds. You were sick (like usual) and I was at a friend's house and I fell in love with the dream. I've been shamelessly flirting with you ever since. Trying to get your number so I can call you maybe, (Skype). Then I tried sharing interests with you. I started to play League because you did. Then I started to act like I cared about this forum because you were on here. wow, this shit is too personal. Then like, you're so cute when you talk. Like a scene girl. Like, it's like "boing" and whatnot. Froggy's actually really freaking adorable. ANYWAYS. You're one hell of a member and you've always had my back so this is cheers to you. Peace out.
