Turtle???? - July 25, 2014, 2:58 pm

This is a great opportunity for a lost of people, take advantage of it while it lasts. Put effort into your applications, show us why you want to join and why we should accept you.

Dorrance - July 25, 2014, 3:30 pm

Let me go reserve this spot & go make some cash so if I am accepted I could join.

Aceman - July 25, 2014, 3:56 pm

Best of luck to all applicants, great group to be a part of. ?

Justin Timberlake - July 25, 2014, 4:16 pm

Well, $100 is too much for me. Good luck to everyone who applies.

Analog- - July 25, 2014, 4:17 pm

Hi guys, I'm Analog.

I'm currently 20 years old and in the midst of completing my Bachelor of Business Administration.

I also work as a Technical Sales Rep for a couple of outdoor sport brands, as that's kinda what I do. Skiing, rock climbing, mountaineering, hiking, all that stuff and I work in the industry of it now. I have a huge amount of experience in real world business in contrast to my age.

I've been pretty much everywhere and back on this website and returned yesterday after a year long hiatus.

I was a member of the original marketing group on here Marketers as well as Illuminati back when they did the whole monetizing thing.

As far as online achievements in business here, I oversaw the creation and deployment of a booter a few years ago, dabbled in ebooks as well as being a Reviewer for them.

So, what would I like to gain from Enterprise? I'd like to take my skills back to this website and make some money out of it. I'd like to meet other people whom are like minded individuals. I'm also interested in learning from my fellow peers in Enterprise.

You can extrapolate what positive aspects you would gain if I joined Enterprise above.

Thanks.

Finally, I don't plan on paying the $100 to HF sadly. If you're still interested in me, let me know. I've given enough money here and mainly volunteered countless hours to this website i.e working for HF News and creating two stickied guides on this forum.

Self-Made - July 25, 2014, 4:59 pm

I have not been in a group before. What would be the benefit of paying for this one over applying for another?

About Me: I am a 16 year old student from New Zealand. I only have three goals in life. To be happy, to have family, and to be successful. I always strive towards being successful, no matter what I do. I go to one of the most highly rated high schools in the country, where I study math, English, Spanish, Technology, Commerce, and Business studies. I will go into further detail about Business Studies soon.

My Experience in Business and Monetizing:

I thoroughly enjoy business, this is why I take Business Studies at school. In the course, we learn many aspects of business. The main thing in the course that is useful here, is the fundraising days. Each student in the class received a task to create an idea, and fund-raise for the school. I decided to host an ethnic food day, which was very successful. It raised thousands of dollars for the school, which was then part donated to charity.

My most successful online work:

Network Stressing, LLC.

Rocketyourfame.

Network Stressing, LLC.

I am the General Manager of NWSLLC. NWSLLC has been up for little over a month, and in that time we like to think that we have redefined the SST section with new quality. A lot of hard work has gone into this project by all of us, (keeping servers hitting and updated, custom coding our new source.) We have earned a very very nice sum of money for our work which will be discussed below.

RocketYourFame.

Rocketyourfame has been my flagship online solo project. It is a follow up from my social media boosting thread here, although I have not advertised this site on HF as of now. Sales have slowed down as of late, but I plan too rejuvenate the site.

Earnings Proof:

Any leader may PM me for proof of my earnings.

My Skill Set:

I am money motivated. When I wake up, I am probably thinking of money, or how to get more. I am a very quick learner. I have experience in eWhoring, PPD, CPA, and Social Media. My social skills are very good, which come in use when communicating with people. I am also bilingual.

Why I want to be in Enterprise.

I want to become a member of Enterprise to learn from the other members. I can also offer my skills to anyone who needs them. A product line could become a group project, the possibilities are endless. Another reason for me to join would be the possibility of mingling with like minded people who are motivated by money.

What will Enterprise gain from you being in it?

As said before, I am more than happy to share methods, techniques etc. I am a causal, chill guy that is fun to talk too.

Thank you for reading my application.

420 Blaze It - July 25, 2014, 6:17 pm

Good luck to all members, Enterprise is a growing and strong group!

Basic Information:

Name: Demetrius

Age: Seventeen

Gender: Male

Religion: Raised Christian, slowly developing into a deist

State/Country: Florida/ United States

Time Zone: Eastern Standard

Skills:

I am a , Leader, business manager, negotiator, monetizing researcher, and much more. A key example of my Leading skills are with TeamPsyQo(My current team). This team was on the edge of ending and only averaging about $200/ month in revenue via a Machinima partnership. A great monetizing example that is still current is my revenue growth on the channel. Since becoming leader/manager I have gotten the average profit from $700/month to total almost $9400.

Why do you want to join The Enterprise in ?:

There aren't but so many official groups on HF and in all honesty I don't think any of them stack up to Enterprise when it comes to fitting myself. I am competitive gamer, business man, and student of many trades. I like the Enterprise because of all the members I have met and communicated with they were knowledgeable, respectful, and fairly open minded which is a big deal to me.

Why do you personally feel you deserve to and should be accepted into Enterprise?:

I am respected, a very quick learner, highly capable of advancing projects in the monetizing sector(group), and I have a lot of methods that could assist Enterprise members when it comes to growth.

How to be successful at Marketing, Monetizing, and Business: A focus on longevity of a project instead of "quick profit"

More, smaller ideas

Fee is now $50 Gravzy will edit it soon.

Its lifetime the people that got kicked where people who got recruited in the first place. They did not follow rules so got kicked. And they were inactive.

If you break any rules or miss a check-in your kicked.

About me

I'm 21 years old french-canadian from quebec (canada). I'm a dev with a good marketing background. I've been successfully selling slice crypter for around one year. I've also been involved in fews other projects around hackforums ,mainly coding. For those who wonder, I mainly code .net vb or c#. I can do as well c++ , delphi and AS for flash. (still learning). I speak fluently french, english and spanish which is quite handy nowadays.

Skills

Can code in vb.net, c#, c++ and AS flash. I am also learning Go lang , asp.net. I already have a background of Javascript and php. I am also quite good at marketing. Slice crypter is an exemple of my success.

Earning

Any lead can pm me for a proof of earning. Or just pass by my crypter thread (main income source, click my signature).

Why you want to be in Enterprise

Learn from top marketers, get to speak to new peoples. Pretty much the main reasons, I'd also like to contribute to the group and start new projects.

What will Enterprise gain from you being in it

Pretty much my knowledge. Help around when people have issue is what I mainly do, specially with programming issues.

Kindly, Benz. Good luck to everyone !

INFORMATION: My name is comm, a male looking to make to fulfill his big dreams in a small world. Aged 16, I make more daily than the average teenager.

MARKETING EXPERIENCE: I started the marketing business back in August 2013. I had very little knowledge of what I had to do in order to virtual currency. I started small and made my way up. First by selling minecraft accounts and other gaming accounts. Second by selling programs and eBooks. Third by partnering up with other users to create an empire of money. I then applied for the group, "Diamond Marketers" and only a portion of users applied were accepted. We were taught under the wing of Ty what the business was really like.

SUCCESSFUL PROJECTS: Virtual Goldmine
ExtraVPN
ZeroDrop

SKILL SET: I have experience in marketing for about a year now. That may not seem a lot but I have earned more than what people expect. I invest in a lot of game items and I know what prices are.

WHY DO YOU WANT TO BE IN ENTERPRISE: Being around businessmen would increase my chance of becoming a successful one. I would share all of my secrets in the elite world to anyone if they're looking for a few extra cash in hand.

WHAT WILL ENTERPRISE GAIN WITH YOU IN IT: They will gain knowledge exclusively from me about the marketing world.

PROVIDE PROOF OF EARNINGS: Any member of the Enterprise that needs proof, just PM me ?

About Me: I am a 18 year old student from Wisconsin. I always strive towards being successful, no matter what I do. I go to the #1 ranked academic school in Wisconsin, where I study Math, English, Spanish, Computer Science, and POW. I will tell you more about POW in a little bit.

My Experience in Business and Monetizing:

I thoroughly like making money, that's why I take POW. In the course, we learn many aspects of business. The main thing that POW teaches you is how to make the most out of your money. Each student has a goal of making 1,000 per month while being an entrepreneur. You have to make your own money with your own ideas.

My Skill Set:

I am money motivated. When I wake up, I am probably thinking of money, or how to get more. I am a very quick learner. I have experience in eWhoring, PPC, CPA, and Social Media. My social skills are very good, which come in use when communicating with people. I'm currently trying to learn Spanish so I can talk with more people and maybe those extra people I can talk to will help me with marketing

Why I want to be in Enterprise.

I want to become a member of Enterprise to learn from the other members of Enterprise and spread my knowledge on marketing. I can also offer my skills to anyone who needs them. A single person project could become a group project. More reasons I want to join is so I can spread my knowledge and generally help people. As you can see with my BIO all I like to do is help.

Thank you for reading my application.

ABOUT ME

I'm currently studying at university.

In my free time I do program in different languages.

MY SKILLS SET

I can program in different languages, including C#, VB , C++ , and basic HTML and PHP.

I started earning money online back in 2010 when I used to do PPD/CPA.

It was bringing a lot of money since at that time, it was not really used by a lot of people and youtube wasn't blocking all the videos.

Nowadays I earn money by selling my projects to companies and minor programming jobs.

WHY DO YOU WANT TO BE IN ENTERPRISE ?

I could possibly start some cool projects with other members in Enterprise and meet some cool-headed people.

WHAT WILL ENTERPRISE GAIN WITH YOU ?

An experienced programmer and ready to make a friendship.

i?irXa™ - July 29, 2014, 3:26 pm

Basic Information

Name: James

Age: Seventeen

Gender: Male

Country: United States

Time Zone: UTC-06:00 Why do you want to join The Enterprise in?

The fact that this is a group based on Marketing and Business is one of the main reasons why I want to join.

I have been making money for over a year and I started off with basic tutorials on probux and survey slaves tutorials and moved on to bigger things. Enterprise could be a great learning experience for me as time after time I always have a craving to being able to get new ideas on what to bring to the market.

Communicating with the group members can help me out as I will be able to know different people ideas or point of view and being able to possibly partner with one of them in a project together. Your experience in Business, marketing or monetizing?

I Have a long term experience with marketing and business.

Over a year i have transfered between multiple products, i have tried almost every category of products that have ever been posted in the marketplace.

I have sold products through Remote Administrator Tool(RAT)

Crypter

KeyLogger

Money Ebooks

SMS Bomber

Generator

Account Shop
Network Stresser
MyBB Bot Plugins
Forum

Many of the products i can list them individually but i don't see the need for it.

Why do you believe you should be invited?

I have a strong craving in making money, it would be a great experience for me in being able to have a bigger opportunity in making more then what i can provide to the group.

I am smart and dedicated, that being said shows that i process through all the possibilities things that can happen between each products i want to invest in or begin selling.

I believe in Quality over Quantity. I never sell low quality products just because i want to make quick cash, i produce products to the highest rating of quality so that when ever i come back from doing real life activities. I won't have to come back to an inbox full of messages of errors or request of refunds.

I think that is every seller difficulty when they don't put prime effort in there products.

About Me:

I live in Texas, i am currently a senior in Highschool.

My career set i have decided for my self is to become a sports doctor, also that is one of the reason why my name is included as Dr.R.

My favorite sports are Powerlifting, Football, and Basketball; all the sports i have played in my past years.

What i like to do when i'm bored is do Graphic Designs for random individuals while on Netflix.

Experience:

I've ran multiple online businesses on and off-site and would consider them all to be pretty successful. Most of my experience is with graphics / web development where my clients come from HF, small businesses, and friends. As of now I'm running my social media services website (SocialVolcano), and I have another large project in the making which will be released in the next day or so.

My Projects:

About myself:

As I stated earlier I'm 16 years old, my entire online experience started with a laptop my grandparents bought for me my 14th birthday. I had $0 to my name, only a laptop and no experience whatsoever. Once I discovered graphic design, I immediately started looking up tutorials on YouTube and other websites/forums. I'm completely self taught, everything I've learned and accomplished started with nothing but a dream. This past year, I've moved on to learning about web development and have been building WordPress sites for my clients. I've taken a few online courses to learn HTML/CSS, next year in school I'll be taking Web Design and Computer Programming which I'm hoping will be very beneficial to me.

Why I think I should be accepted:

Anything I'm a part of or am working on, I give 100% effort and do not stop until I'm satisfied. I'm a perfectionist, being so I spend a lot more time and pay much more attention to detail on the things I work on. That will be exactly what I do with this group, I'm looking to get involved in as many things as possible on HF that I think are suitable to me, this group being one. I didn't want to write walls of text, so I'll end it here. Good luck to anyone else who has or will apply.

sonex - August 1, 2014, 5:08 pm

Honestly I dont see why make an application if theres money involved to buy-in? You might just check HF profiles to see who fits, Ive read through bunch of sweet bullshit in this 6 pages which makes me wanna puke. No better way to find members unless you check profiles, anyone can lie though but stats/posts dont.

Anyway I wanted to apply as well, had to pay to enter Marketers 2 years ago and these payed groups attracts me for no apparent reason, maybe it reflects the activity in sub-forum rather than having unrelated threads like most does.

If you aren't willing to put effort into an application it's clear you won't put effort into a group. Just because you have money does not mean you are a fit for a group.

Correct. But if you're letting people bullshit their application with effort, doesnt mean you'll see HQ group activity either, right? Cause right now anyone can say whatever they want, and once they join and stop posting their "knowledge" all you'll get is pointless drama.

Also if its not about money, then what this group is about? I thought you must prove earnings which then again proves you have money, thus your point is invalid, it is about money otherwise this wouldnt be a marketing group.

Anyway I'm not here to argue just pointing out the obvious cause I still remember the time I spent in Marketers, not the same group I know but the whole principle is the same.

Cause right now anyone can say whatever they want, and once they join and stop posting their "knowledge" all you'll get is pointless drama.

Also if its not about money, then what this group is about? I thought you must prove earnings which then again proves you have money, thus your point is invalid, it is about money otherwise this wouldnt be a marketing group.

Anyway I'm not here to argue just pointing out the obvious cause I still remember the time I spent in Marketers, not the same group I know but the whole principle is the same.

I agree with what you're saying, anyone can bullshit their application to make them look "HQ" or whatever. Although I'm sure the recruiters will go through everyone's posts, rep, etc to make sure they are who they claim to be.

Go sell your shit in the Marketplace. Goddamn.

This. Just I personally have scrolled through posts and rep of a lot of the people who have applied ?

In posting an app we see how you market yourself. If you can't market yourself to us how can you be expected to market a product?

Holy shit. This guy made an entire website for his application. I was going to post here, but now I know I don't have a chance.

Vouch to this guy

You are lol, not sure if you're aware of it. Also if you find 5 people on HF that can market a product to its full potential please let me know, the thing about marketing you as a person makes no sense, 99% of those who applied are lying in their product marketing, how in the world you're gonna see it? I'll right now tell you I have the most awesome thing you ever tried before, it comes in 2 packages from which you can choose from, gold or silver, gold one has 2 extra bonuses and silver is basic package. Wanna know what I'm talking about? A freakin gum, the gold one is 8+2 gratis. This is the most stupidest example but then again we're not far away from HF marketing, arent we? Its damn hard to distinguish, however I'm not teaching you what to do, thing is group seems awesome honestly but the whole application thing is kinda old and lets people bullshit all day long, but lets not cross the line here and say "you're talking bullshit", I'm not actually, heres an example.

You see what I'm pointing out? I might as well go through all your apps and call out every single one of them. This guy actually (you're not gonna believe this) sold SAME exact product 3 times under different names and thread designs, and didn't even pay attention NOT to sell it to guys who purchased it before, that's some sense. Not to mention 10 scam reports and YET he pays for 0,99$ domain on 1and1 hosting, host it on his already used shared hosting and writes 3 basic lines of HTML, is this a good "person" marketing? Why even bother if you have no stand.

I didn't misread it, you were talking in general as well as I did. And yet again you're pointing out the obvious, apparently it's about money, if not why do you look for people who "market products well" if it's not intended to make money from?

Anyway I fucking hijacked the thread with nonsense, if anyone feels I should remove my posts let me know, my only goal was to point out a few things that were fucked up in Marketers just so it doesn't happen again cause group right now seems awesome though, good luck with applications!

B?wseR - August 2, 2014, 4:20 pm

Here is my application for the group Enterprise.

About me: I am a 21 year old american who makes a living online selling things and a discounted price.

Products I have sold:

Here is some of the products/services I have done for HF.

My Xbox live gold shop

And my exchange I was running.

OMC exchange

My experience:

In business is selling stuff at a discounted price and I have gone to school to take some accounting and business classes and with that knowledge that I learned in school I'm applying to making money here on HF and I do have knowledge on how to run a business web site and in the process of making my own site right now for my Xbox live gold shop.

Proof of my earnings: Any group leader can contact me and I'll show proof.

Skill set:

My skill set is bring good HQ products to HF and I do have good knowledge of setting up website's and how to promote them.

Why I want to join:

Here is why I want to join the group I have a lot to bring to the table of making money and have no problem sharing my success with other fellow HF member's and I love helping people out it's what I do most.

What will Enterprise gain from me being in it.

I have a lot to provide I can help with investment's and I'm not scared to take a risk and I can bring some of my best method's of making money to the group and can help other fellow members who are struggling on keeping their business alive and well.

And thanks for taking the time to look at my application

Your opinion is noted and it's incredibly biased. You don't seem to want to listen to anything somebody else has to say if it differs from what you believe. Honestly I think you just don't want to write an app or thought you would get declined and are defending it. I doubt we'd want somebody who only sells ebooks anyways as we're more interested in experienced marketers who are willing to work on products together.

Uriel - August 2, 2014, 4:58 pm

Personally I find the idea of a fancy app to be stupid, as most people do lie or try to talk themselves up to something they aren't, so I can see what Sonex is saying for sure.

Also though they do give a bit of insight on you, and gives us something to go off when we go through your posts/check you out.

Just my two cents.

Aceman - August 2, 2014, 5:00 pm

There is also a lot which we may not see in your posts immediately when looking. There's really no harm in having people create them and it stops many of those who would be too lazy to contribute from even applying. We aren't interested in having people who won't put work in and who are just going to be there for the userbar.

~HF~ - August 3, 2014, 4:30 am

Don't make this thread into a discussion please. We don't just look at app's do you think we are stupid? Of course we look at everything else. Its just there so people can say what they want and show us what they want in addition to there threads/posts/profile.

BitbyBit - August 3, 2014, 6:36 pm

I run my own computer repair / freelance programming business for over a year now.

Bit-by-bit.biz

I am currently working on an IRC Bot that I will be selling on HF promptly.

22, BA in CS.

Don't worry about my earnings unless you are the IRS :P

C++ / ASM

I want to have a group of like minded people that can help with marketing if I ever need it.

You will gain a knowledgeable hard working person who is willing to help.

OK - taking out the shit that simply destroys your chances, lets take a look at the rest of the app...

1st line, relevant, nice.

2nd line, website could of done with hyperlinking, basic effort but nice still.

3rd line, bland, basic response. Boring.

4th line, going through your posts, that seems unsupported.

Why you want to be in Enterprise

I'd like to be in Enterprise because I believe its a group suited towards me and what I like. It looks like a very HQ group and I'm sure I'd really fit in well.

What will Enterprise gain from you being in it.

Enterprise will gain another successful seller who can add to the group and keep up the groups good name and Quality. I feel I could bring more to the group basically.
