Thread: Scammed 50\$ by owner of "AppIncome" guide | UID=1386013 | ILLEGAL METHOD! also A Fox

zakrib - July 25, 2014, 3:36 pm

SCAMMER HAS BEEN REPFUCKED AND BAN - JUSTICE HAS BEEN SERVED, THANK YOU TO ALL THE SUPPORTERS AND EVERYONE SUPPORTING THIS THREAD. HOPE THIS FEELS AS A RELIEF TO EVERYONE SCAMMED BY THIS KID. :)

ANYONE WHO FIGHTS ENOUGH AND DONT GIVE UP THEIR SCAM REPORT CAN HAVE THIS DONE! DONT GIVE UP AND DONT LAY DOWN EVEN IF THE SCAMMER THREATENS YOU!

Would also like to add that this was his co-owner (which basically means he was selling the same illegal product: <https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=1354359>
His name is A Fox

EDIT: IF ANY ADMIN WANTS MORE PROOF THAT HE IS USING AN ILLEGAL METHOD OR THAT HE SCAMS PEOPLE OR ANYTHING (SUCH AS FULL LOGS AND MORE) FEEL FREE TO PM ME I AM MORE THAN WILLING TO PROVIDE FULL CHAT LOGS AND WHATEVER NEEDED![/size]

LOOK AT THE BOTTOM OF PAGE 7, HE EARLIER STATES NOTHING ILLEGAL WAS TOLD TO BE DONE, BUT AS CLEARLY PROVED ON THE PICTURE HE IS LYING!

I JUST WANT TO SAY SORRY THAT IMAGES A END ARE LINKS BUT ONLY 15 IMAGES COULD BE UPLOADED WITH EACH POST!

EDIT 2: PROOF OF MY PAYMENT TO HIM SINCE PEOPLE SAY I LIE:

I was recently lied to and scammed into buying a moneymaking guide here on hackforums by the owner of "AppIncome" formely calling his guide "AppMoney".

His skype is daniel.anonym - <https://gyazo.com/337b76c1556bfc1a67166f2e40a30951>

I will be providing full screenshots of the entire event, explain to you how it happened, and provide proof to the things I am accusing him of.

So firstly I will be explaining how it all began...

I stumbled upon a guide named "Appmoney" here on hackforums, a guide which seemed fairly interesting by the looks of it, but in my past I have bought several guides which in my opinion was a load of bullshit. So I took some time, scrolled through the thread and read some of the comments and vouches he had (Intellectus). Most of these vouches seemed to come from very close friends which he had and people who knew him from before. I noticed the price was 80$ USD which seemed a bit high, but did not really bother me...

Anyway I contacted the Owner of this guide called "Appmoney" and we started to have our own discussion about the guide etc (will provide pictures a bit into this report) and he told me all about it, how amazing it is and the incredible possibilities of it actually making HUGE amounts of money.

A bit into the conversation he starts telling me he makes an average of 200-300$ a day, here is a bit into the conversation we had so you get a look of how our conversation looks like:

Here is another part in which he says the WORST OUTCOME in his own words is you will make 105$, which was a load of bullshit (sorry for the language) in my opinion as I didn't make anything close to this:

Here is the continuation of the conversation we had. I marked things he said with green and things I said with red. He refused to provide the actual proof. I told him I would not buy the guide, unfortunately I regret not keeping to this as I was fooled by his talk. He just sent useless vouchers which his friends have made on his behalf which is a complete lie that he made 500$ a day (which I headlined too):

Here in the end I mark the part where he basically refuses to actually provide the proof I ask of him and calls me a cheap ass (even before I bought the guide). I understand you may get annoyed but why do you refuse to provide proof? :

After random discussion because we got into an argument after he said I will work at McDonalds, he basically said that he is 100% sure this guide cannot get saturated, basically giving guarantee it cannot be saturated, I marked this line with green (sorry for bad writing on paint):

At this part our conversation more or less ends on Hackforums and moves onto Skype. His Skype is daniel.anonym.

I will now provide proof of our Skype conversations, promises he makes, how he disrespects me how he asks me to "leave a vouch" even though I will not do it nor agree with vouching for a guide I simply do not believe works, and how he gets verbal against me once I do leave a simple message on his thread telling the truth of his guide. (that my first account was suspended + that later on my second account gets suspended).

The Skype conversation is more than 50 pages I would say, so I read through all of it and tried to take the most important parts without revealing the guide (because I don't want to have this thread taken down because of a tiny reason that I am "leaking" his useless illegal guide)

1. In the following picture he specifically says it can basically be anything like a website, game or whatever (his advice of what websites to use basically) He tells me to just link the customers to a website (which is scamming and illegal).

Here is a part, this happened a few times, if I encountered an error he was supposed to help, but the replies he was giving were things like "just try again" "You probably did something wrong" "just figure it out please" - things which were his job since I did not know any scripting nor am good at computer, I managed to do it by myself after trying though but he didn't want to "waste" time helping when he saw how unexperienced I was:

Here is another example once i did not understand - " you will figure it out urself"

getting more aggressive here:

THIS PARTICULAR PICTURE IS VERY IMPORTANT - HERE HE SAYS YOU NEED TO HAVE ATLEAST A FEW APPS UP TO NOT GET CAUGHT, LATER HE GOES AGAINST SAYING THIS AND SAYS I AM MAKING IT UP AND THAT HE NEVER MADE THIS STATEMENT!!

HERE IS THE PART HE GOES AGAINST HIS OWN WORDS AND SAYS ONLY TO HAVE 2 APPS UP AT A SPECIFIC TIME! :

He claimed I was leaking his guide on other forums, which is a complete load of bull, I once offered him to sell on another forum, he denied (which later showed he already had a friend selling for him on that website).

Here is the picture where he admits selling to another website called CPA elite:

He provides me one app which just links to a website (completely scamming kids). I asked for a niche cause i needed help and he gave me this one. Here is proof he gave it to me:

Here he guarantees me it will make me money, I used his app, i followed his advice (of having several apps up which i provided proof from before) and I made total of 6$ earnings that week, but it went to 0$ since my account was suspended so basically I made 0$ that week. He swore he would personally setup an app for me (which was a lie and i lost 50$ investment + 25$ for the starting fee of making a google developer account. Here is proof of his guarantee and that he would personally setup the niche for me:

Here he stated before in his thread and in our convos that most people make money back "in a day", so basically quite some time pass and i make 0$ very far a way from the "worst outcome" of 105$ which he stated earlier. He just tries to push it away by "wait another day":

<https://i.gyazo.com/43f64263d37999fa0faecd1f1c04c559.png>

Btw, im pretty sure from previous conversations and other customers recognize one of the "claimed customers" that are legit vouching bla bla bla with huge earnings, well, all the dude he claimed who vouched for him and said all that was his friend - which in this case is selling his version of the same bullshit guide with "his template" for "only" 50$. He told me before they are not friends, and now he says they are friends. Here is the proof of this lying:

<https://i.gyazo.com/ca95b5cd08ba4edee42da6605082dd9c.png>

Here - all of a sudden - after i bought the guide they were suddenly "go in into business with eachother". Earlier he told me he barely knew the guide during convos and that they were legit vouches, and now from nowhere they are close friends making business with eachother (after 2-3 days) very logic..... (sarcasm):

<https://i.gyazo.com/887a87c82d8d2eb32f31c697d76fee63.png>

Here he starts getting very aggressive towards me because i told him i made 0$ and he keeps throwing into my face that i dont know how to zip a file which has nothing to do with the subject:

<https://i.gyazo.com/795a63e6aea008b7fbe2428b8c9bdbdd.png>

<https://i.gyazo.com/f4e357de88399f23c4fb44661fb9a830.png>

HERE IS ANOTHER VERY IMPORTANT PART, TRUTH WAS THE ONLY ONE TO MAKE ME REALISE I AM SCAMMED BECAUSE I DID NOT MAKE THE MONEY THE OWNER OF APPMONEY PROMISED, HE THEN RAGED AT ME AND SAY I SHOULD NOT SAY ANYTHING NEGATIVE OF HIS GUIDE, "ASLONG AS U DONT SAY ABOUT MY GUIDE". ITS NONE OF HIS BUSINESS WHO I REP OR FOR WHAT REASON (PS, YES IT WAS BECAUSE OF UR GUIDE)!:

<https://i.gyazo.com/1b955c8cd4226799b34bf9f21503e8e6.png>

This part is very funny, remember how he said "make several apps", he also earlier told me he himself had 9 apps up at most times. When i say i had my 7 apps up all of a sudden he acts surprised and says "wow" as if he had told me not to do that!:

<https://i.gyazo.com/a38a96e0c8eb153e9f3218d8752692c9.png>

Here he says its not his fault/problem, but its his advice i followed which got my account suspended:

<https://i.gyazo.com/76e89b7aee5aa8e3d368be9e9b44129a.png>

Here the fun part begins, in his rage he wants to blaim everything on me, he is mad that i posted on his thread that my account go suspended and he starts disrespecting my like crazy:

<https://i.gyazo.com/1f7994eb8fda04c984c8fe8df4a0f531.png>

<https://i.gyazo.com/4b54198f9b39e2047586b3529dc7249d.png>

<https://i.gyazo.com/9e7fee12f458c25eb3f1c59ad74b726b.png>

<https://i.gyazo.com/6ce55fe11d93e94061d8de6b876925c0.png>

Here he is becoming very verbal saying bad words because I said I will leave a review of his guide:

<https://i.gyazo.com/ac8823a99155783b0dbfe937af29fc87.png>

Here he says im a faggot on steroids and much much more, for no reason, just because i want to make others aware of the scam and lies he is pulling, if i can afford to lose this money w/e, but why am i not allowed to let others know about this? makes no sence:

<https://i.gyazo.com/2765eeea1c19690d2bcfc978f0431842.png>

Here he lies that he never said he would make me an app if i made 0 money (which u obv saw in above convo is not true, he is lying):

<https://i.gyazo.com/8c923356b180d819e294fed2dfe985ca.png>

Here I convince him of his lying, he promised he will "help" me onto a niche, which in my dictionary means he will give me a niche - I make the app myself. He did not keeps his promise. This was the help I would recieve IF I REMOVED MY POSTS WHICH I POSTED THAT MY ACC GOT SUSPENDED! Also I want to point out THAT I DID FOLLOW HIS INSTRUCTIONS/ADVICE AND LOOK WHERE IT GOT ME :

<https://i.gyazo.com/51c009b5c1a1c9c265d206bc6a5a30a4.png>

Here is proof (continuted from above picture) that he tells me once i remove my posts I will recieve help. Once i do that he changes his word completely and says he cant give me a niche --> never gives me a niche!!

<https://i.gyazo.com/b3634f2c2e614a2b6d7c8ecdb43948a3.png>

Here if i remember it correctly he gives me a link in which he claims to another guy that his method contains nothing illegal (the same lies i was told) both of us knows its bullshit, I told him that and he "lol:ed":

<https://i.gyazo.com/78e7c22a154d4a907afc0aa25c1995a6.png>

The following pics are from my second account getting suspended again. I personally took precatons, signed it under my mothers name (which is completely different from me, even her last name), and from previous pics u saw he just told me to make new account (never told me to do under other names, however i took that precaton by myself). For other reasons (i believe i was ratted) i reinstalled windows and saves shit i needed on a harddrive, so his claim that my cookies wasnt deleted is complete bullshit! :

<https://i.gyazo.com/7923930c5adb863d02c0de0bde3c38a3.png>

Here you can see he gets aggressive, he says that he wont provide help, i told i will take actions and i think he realises i will open a scam report and all of a sudden, his help will come back and that is not what he "meant":

<https://i.gyazo.com/bc1754cd5f49bf2d2c99257346675bb5.png>

Here i told him i would open the scam report - and he tells me i have been fingering my buttohole all this time, nice responce from an owner of a very expensive guide dont you think?:

<https://i.gyazo.com/4814cc5c7add90ef55df335b981a86cd.png>

Here he says he basically wont help me unless i delete the post i made today about getting my second account suspended. Notice the "im out unless you delete the posts":

<https://i.gyazo.com/a572c984e62b56ce7a00f404f2df8348.png>

I first deleted my thread, but then i made the decition i am going to open a scam report, it was going to happen this time (had this thought for quite a while now). I got the impression i would recieve help even if i deleted the post which once again - I was wrong. Once he noticed I put up my comment again he raged at me as you will see in the following convo.

I then asked if I will still recieve help, it has been quite some time and i guess the answer is no since he still ignores me (wonder if he still will after this thread is posted). Here is the last part of convo:

<https://i.gyazo.com/c326cce2a1afdbf814106411252dee43.png>

I just lastly want to tell you I did not want to tell him what niches i used, (on second account) but i used atomworks and woozworld which i told him in chat. I dont believe this provides any specific use to this post so i chose not to upload it. I can upload it if anyone think its to any use in this scam report, what i basically just want to say is - BE AWARE OF THIS GUY.

He clearly cannot provide proof of his 200$-500$/day earnings other than what he makes from selling the guide. He rages at anyone who posts negativity of his guide and he is a complete jerk when you ask for help.

He also has "fake vouches" which he uses from people who havent even bought the guide aka --> HIS FRIENDS. He uses these vouches on the frontpage of his thread - here is just one of the examples (the reason is you cannot use it as a vouch for a product which he has not tried out or used as a vouch from a sale):

<https://i.gyazo.com/f1b5c77064fb132ddc9b4bfd35577601.png>

That is just one example, read his thread and you will find more.

Here is some more proof he says in his own thread it cannot be saturated (which is complete bullshit):

<https://i.gyazo.com/a4b9f4301521f2a86c299c9fe63ca503.png>

And here are some posts from more customer saying IT CAN BE SATURATED - which is what i also would say after reading and knowing about this guide now:

<https://i.gyazo.com/43030f1c3a4e2868188ed8d9b7fe4ee9.png>

<https://i.gyazo.com/cd29b1ae304e28ae5ffcf72f2345bb7.png>

<https://i.gyazo.com/bd3c1fc6c96028fea733744dc4f84087.png>

Here even his friend and highest earner confirms it can be saturated:

<https://i.gyazo.com/b08e0219c56c09bdcef987daf1afe77b.png>

PLEASE ALSO DONT FORGET TO TAKE A LOOK AT THIS "HELP IS MY GUARANTEE UNTIL MONEY MADE BACK", IN MY CONVERSATIONS WITH HIM HE SAID HE HAS NO OBLIGATION TO HELP ME - I HAVENT MADE A SINGLE DOLLAR BACK --> FALSE PROMISE AKA I GOT SCAMMED!!

<https://i.gyazo.com/cf553716e7e1552d9f71e392a9b09cbb.png>

HERE IS A PART WHERE HE ASKS ME TO MAKE A FALSE STATEMENT IN A VOUCH (I TOLD HIM IT WASNT A VOUCH AND THAT I WOULD NOT LIE IF I MADE A POST!)

<https://i.gyazo.com/704f1afdf9d4b858bec7b1f3b2582945.png>

My goal with this is not getting my 50$ back (which i know i will never get), but its the fact that the owner lies, disrespects/mistreats customers, lies about it being a legal method (it is illegal which is why accounts are getting suspended) and i know many others out there who bought this are in the same shoes as me. I just dont want people who perhaps actually cant afford get scammed by a skid lying to people about his ebook and the amount of money it makes.

This is the last time i buy one of these scams, maybe there are methods out there that makes money, but those people are smart enough to keep it to themselves, because if everyone starts doing it its not really going to make money. This guide however is a complete scam...

I personally lost 50$ buying it (there was a 30% discount that day) but others lost 80$. + I lost 25 $ x2=50$ on opening 2 new accounts and plenty of time.

Dont buy this guide unless you want to get scammed!!!

thanks man i highly appreciate it, I just want others to be aware and for this scammer to get banned. I put down over 2 hours collecting the evidence and tried to be as careful as possible so i dont get reported for "leaking"

There - July 25, 2014, 3:56 pm

I bought this ebook for $80 when it came out, and paid $25 for the developer account. So that's $105. I made around $100 with this method after one week, and my account got suspended.

Now I don't know if I should make another developer account as the method is indeed illegal and I don't want to risk another suspension and lose more money.

I spent a lot of time making apps and Intellectus gave me vague tips on how to not get suspended. My account still got suspended and I feel like I spent all my time making the apps and designing their icons and whatever for nothing.

At one point, he literally told me to copy one app from the Apple App Store with the exact same screenshots and description.

I can post screenshots but the original post is enough.

I didn't make any profit and barely made my money back.

Now Intellectus and A Fox are asking for more money for an 'update', wtf?

this method is illegal, the owner lies about many of the promises he makes, he has fake vouches, and getting account suspended that early is a 0$ earning. This is a scam method, basically a method to scam other people which is also not allowed on forums.

He has no "Fake vouches" as im sure I and anyone can show you our earnings, I easily made $200.00 the 4 days after I purchased this and I got suspended too, but..... I registered a new account and STILL got to withdraw from the old account.

How can something be a scam if you tried it and it worked?

Just because you got a suspended account does not make this a scam.

You kids really need to learn a thing or two.

You should be banned for even making this thread.

and so should the fool that replied saying it's a scam, even tho hes telling you all he did earn from it!

I mean come on now..

Have you had time to read through all the chat logs? he states it is not illegal if you ask him.

Funny thing is you havent read through the entire scam report as i stated i used another name, credit card, cleared cookies and everything you say i was probably not using. Before you make a post read the entire report, then come with an opinion, you will find 99% of answers in it!

I also stated the lies he told me (if u read through the report fully) the guarantees i was made and every bit of proof i have on this kid.

Read it through, look at all the proof i provided, then you may try to retaliate from it. But dont make assumptions by just reading the headlines and then make a statement. All answers are in the thread m8 :*

Looks like a legit scam report. Thanks for the forewarning about this user and product, but I did already know this eBook was a complete joke. When they say no bullshit, it's bullshit. When they say autopilot, $7500/mo is bullshit.

Hopefully you get reinstated your payments and the owner is dealt with accordingly. Especially with the fake vouches.

Yunatic_500 - July 25, 2014, 6:10 pm

OP, sorry for your bad expectation from this but if you're saying his method is a scam then probably all ebook sellers are scammers. Those methods mostly here don't really work anyway and every seller convince you that their method will work and unique. Sometimes they sell for 50-80$ which you can actually find in a 5$ ebook. It's a grey hat method so there's black hat involve. Don't get surprised from getting banned. Ebook sellers love to over exaggerate. Anyways, this is just my opinion so don't be mad.

I'd say it's a rip off for a 80$.

Cheers ;)

Alright guys, I think this is getting a little out of hand. I have used this method and spoke to the creator a good bit.

I'm hesitant to post this because I'd prefer you to not buy the guide (competition reasons) but I think this needs to be done.

Yes this ebook isn't perfect. It is slightly exaggerated (all marketing is), requires work and does involve risk with getting your account banned. But I wouldn't call it a scam and I don't believe it's fair to call the creator a scammer either. The method works.

Also OP isn't the most qualified for the work required for the method. He has asked me for help and seemed to need to be spoon-fed to understand how to use this method, not trying to bash, just trying to give context.

Thats not the point of this thread, have you taken time to actually read what i posted or are you just writing cause A Fox asked you to vouch for the owner and cause u read the headline only?

He lied to me, whether or not i asked for plenty of help or no, I told the owner I will be requiring more help than others as i have extremely little experience with computer, and that i know nothing of scripting. When talking of his guide he gave me the image it is completely legal method (which was a lie), he also told me several time he would provide niches and more promises (if u actually would take the time to read the thread) which he later lied about. If i posted i had made 0$ so far, or that my account got ususpended he would rage at me saying i recieve 0 help unless i delete those comments.

I like the fact that none of you actually read what this guy did to me, yet you feel the need to support something without getting the whole view. Read the entire thread, come with an opinion, if not, stop butkissing the owner m8.

But thanks for the "well thought" reply

You are supporting one, and you taken over his sales so more or less you are scamming people, + you bring nothing to this thread except flaming and negativity. You have not even read through this thread and still you keep flaming.

Go disrespect people elsewhere, its nice to see your true colors - to other people reading this (potential customers) look how they treat people. Instead of coming with legit answers or being able to retaliate (by actually reading the thread fully) he just flames and makes assumptions based on a headline.

I did ask for a review copy just to see how saturated his method was..he got pretty nasty after i exposed him.

He made a bragging thread about making 7.5k in that ONE month before his account got closed.

He said it violated googles TOS.

After i asked him about that (he removed that from his bragging thread)

Thinking its fucking up his sales.

I had a member pm me about his stupid method and no it wasnt omgomg. it was an uber member telling me to stay away from him. funny that aye? He said the ebook only has about 4 pages of swear words? what kind of person sells that?

Anyways

Just refund omfgomfg. And end with it.

THIS IS THE MESSAGE I RECIEVED:

Nevieth - July 25, 2014, 9:42 pm

This looks like a legitimate scam report, the scammer in the images seems to have some sort of god complex where he can do nothing wrong.

What I can tell, OP followed sellers instructions, was denied further support on a product in which he was promised support... and was insulted and yelled at by the one who sold it. Not a good thing to do when trying to sell a product. Hope this gets resolved, I'll be following how this all ends up.

Relayed - July 25, 2014, 9:43 pm

Just a few notes from me as well:

- He does have a temper, he asked me multiple times to vouch before even getting paid out.
- He says his method doesn't get saturated, its because the accounts get suspended.
- Adding to the previous point, if you ever told him your developer account name, he's probably showed to it another person, further saturating the method. (Guess where I got most of my ideas from?)

- In the beginning, if you didn't make money he offers you a sure-fire way to earn quickly, but you're pretty much just asking to get your account suspended as soon as possible.

Edit: One odd thing I've noticed, the proficiency of his language in his eBook significantly differs from the way he typically speaks. (i.e. tons of blatant grammar/spelling errors) Could mean nothing though.

zakrib - July 25, 2014, 9:46 pm

Nothing of this makes sense. This eBook is clearly about targeting audience, creating apps and there is not encouraging to illegal activity which is explained in the eBook disclaimer. However, this was your responsibility and after countless of hours trying to get something working with you I gave up offering you help because of your disrespectful sales trashing. This is not a legit scam report and consists of fully leaks of something I would place as highly sensitive information, without any serious inquiry or proof of having any sense of direction regarding the method, as it's clearly mislead by yourself here.

It is not my problem that you didn't follow up on how you can legally use the apps or the method itself and this is a fully leak of the whole eBook itself. However, I will contact any admin to get this temporary down and hopefully you'll realize how discriminating this really is for me, after spending months of my time trying to develop a method.

No it doesn't, the eBook (itself) disclaimer isn't encouraging to any illegal activity.

Nevieth - July 25, 2014, 9:59 pm

This method AS FAR AS I CAN TELL is against the ToS for Google and will get your accounts suspended if caught, meaning it's illegal.

Your highest earning customers have even confirmed that this is an illegal method, and you have provided minimal information to prove that this scam report is invalid and leaking your information. A scam report is allowed to show relevant private messages on both HackForums and Skype. If you can't provide an argument to this without making claims based on faith alone... then you won't have a very solid argument.

I'm completely neutral on this matter, however from what I've read I have to sway towards OP's report, in your Terms of Service you do not mention that your customer has to understand the product, it merely says you provide lifetime support to help the customer get this working to start earning money... from what I could tell it was a 50% - 50% chance you were either helping him... or telling him that he was fingering his own anus. Your responses seem childish and aggressive, I have read through almost all images and see whenever OP brings up how this method is illegal... without valid proof that it isn't or explaining it, you go on a rampage of nonsense.

Please reply back with valid, factual information on how your product is legal, legitimate, and well deserving of customers... or just accept the scam report. Thanks, have a nice day.

Oh and anyone who read my post, I have absolutely 0% affiliation with either party, and am merely an unbiased observer.

EDIT: Oh yes, wanted to point this out.

In your information section for the sales thread it states these on the FAQs.

Code 2 A) No, this is not black hat nor is it to become saturated unless the app markets change their whole policy.

2 B) I prefer and you would also most likely prefer to have this method working on Google Play.

3) Do you offer some money back guarantee if I don't make money?

3 A) You won't need that guarantee as you will make money.

However for 2 it is clearly blackhat as it is getting users accounts compromised and locked, Google wouldn't do that unless it broke their Terms.

Now for 3, it says no money back guarantee, then how can you be certain the product will work. You list many vouches on the thread, yes... however most vouches do appear to be from friends who clearly say they haven't used the method, and even Goodies doesn't say he vouches... he merely says he saw that you had the money.

Quote:Alright, though I cannot vouch for the eBook itself, OP did show me proof of payment:

^ That is not a vouch, so I don't know why it should be treated as such.

It's not my problem what people chose to use the information given through the Ebook and Skype on. But this is highly sensitive information as I offered help, and I would rank this in the same category as leaking a whole eBook, because it is.

All the version 1 eBook is saying, basicly, is "Hey, use this template and make information apps for this audience. But just remember that if you use copyright infringement you will violate policy, but that's not my problem" and nor is it. I'm not here to tell people what to do with knowledge, I'm just saying that they will get suspended if they make something illegal and I have already done that.

1 - It is your problem what they do with it as it is your method and you helped them set it up, so we can safely assume you know full well that it is against Googles Terms.

2 - In all these images and even your FAQ have I yet to see anything where you tell people not to break the law, you claim it isn't blackhat... yet you also help users set it up, and you wouldn't make any money whatsoever if you did this legally. With proof as well, those users who have made a lot of money have confirmed the method is illegal... those users who haven't made money such as OP, isn't doing it correctly. Meaning he was caught breaking the ToS.

Oh and let me list a few images to disprove this from your own words. You say you don't know what the customers are doing without your knowledge and yet it seems you held OP's hand through the process.

<https://i.gyazo.com/909507c0e3f5ad88181fe05fe0da67e5.png>
<https://i.gyazo.com/5cccd7988f98b5d2c1913af817f45ef8.png>

Why would you need to be worried about getting caught if this wasn't blackhat and illegal?

3 - How are your responses childish and aggressive? Please tell me you're joking? I could literally make a book with all the pictures of insults you threw at the OP. Let me list just a few.

<https://i.gyazo.com/ac8823a99155783b0dbfe937af29fc87.png>

Those are merely a few links I've found where you insult the OP with extremely aggressive responses.

Why would you need to be worried about getting caught if this wasn't blackhat and illegal? You seem to be stumbling around your argument.

Again, I'm unbiased however I've so far only seen OP provide valid image proof, while the defendant isn't providing any valid arguments instead of blatant lies.

How is this not illegal? I'm legitimately starting to believe you're out of your mind.

You were kind enough (or stupid enough) to post that response from Roblox where they gave you two terms to follow, and you clearly didn't.

Care to explain how it's not illegal? Can't really see too many people who have vouched for your e-book here, and even if there are people who have done so, I wouldn't be surprised if you asked them to.

I understand your point, however that image seems like one part. You say he started harassing you and yet you decide not to show an image of that?

Provide an image of him insulting/ harassing you and this can be resolved easily. However that one image and what you said is disproved by many images in OP which show you harassing him and not the other way around. Unless you provide more information nothing can be done.

If OP started harassing you and insulting you it would be fair to say anyone would stop supporting them. However a claim stating a scam report is being made is not considered harassment.

Would I be wrong to assume that if you need different credit cards... IPs, and google accounts, that it is blackhat and would be considered illegal. If that is true, then the sales thread and the defendant's argument would be invalid as it states it isn't illegal.

Huzuni, i have not leaked, the owner clearly stated that he never ever told us to use an illegal method, which forced me as u can see on page 7 or 8 (i cant even remember) to post proof that he is lying. Might as well say that, it's what the owner of the product you're supporting says to those that haven't broken any Terms of Service.

I like you "A Fox" however you seem to be on the wrong side, and are going to crash and burn too sadly. It is quite obvious this is an illegal method where the owner takes advantage of his customers and insults them openly. He doesn't provide a single argument to legitimize his side.

I like you "A Fox" however you seem to be on the wrong side, and are going to crash and burn too sadly. It is quite obvious this is an illegal method where the owner takes advantage of his customers and insults them openly. He doesn't provide a single argument to legitimize his side. I agree part of it can be edited out, however this image is vital to prove that the defendant knows that it's an illegal method going against Google's Terms of Service.

I highly doubt anyone will buy your method while this thread is around no matter if that certain image is public or not.

And if this method is impossible to be saturated then it shouldn't really matter in the first place... as no matter how many users do this they can still make profit.

Question for OP, that image Fox linked... was it sent before or after sending the funds? That information is vital.

Ah alright. OP you might want to edit out a few things that specifically explain how this method works... however you definitely need to keep it certain parts that provide evidence that the defendant clearly knows the method is against Google's Terms of Service. Don't be afraid of any threats given to you. The administrators of HF have allowed you to post images that better define this scam report.

If you could, would you mind posting an image from the staff members private message to you allowing you to keep certain images that could be considered leaks.

Skid basically was used out of context in this means, however it wont help either the OPs or defendants argument.

Skid basically means script kiddie, someone who steals someone elses programs and code and claims it's theres without any knowledge of how it worked.

I can answer that one for you, the vouch from Metapod.

It shouldn't be shown as an actual vouch as he/ she has never used this method.

Quote:I've purchased from Intellectus in the past. I haven't purchased this but the vouches seem honest. This is a vouch for his honesty and not this product. I may buy this when I have money to spare. Good luck with sales.

Oh and don't forget how the defendant uses Goodies "vouch" to try and clear things up in one of the images, where Goodies "vouch" isn't even a vouch at all.

Quote:Alright, though I cannot vouch for the eBook itself, OP did show me proof of payment:
<https://gyazo.com/122c78650ea65b088b20c9476b71a49e.png>

So whatever he's doing, it's obviously working.

He openly says it isn't a vouch, and yet is treated like one. When OP says fake vouches I think he means vouches that are made by users who haven't even used the programs and are made merely because of old deals and friendships.

These types of reports are more or less a grey area. He sold you a product that may* make you money. To define something as a scam the "scammer" needs to take your money and tell you to fuck off. In this case he didn't. He tried to the best of his ability to help and an argument broke out. If it makes you any type of money regardless if its .50 - 1000$ i personally don't think its a scam. What he advertise, or guarantees* in his product is irrelevant. You don't buy an Axe Shower Gel or Old Spice deodorant and automatically think you'll become a babe magnet. Its all in the sake of advertise. Simple business. Justifying a supposed false advertisement does not classify his/her product as a scam. So in MY opinion THIS IS NOT A SCAM. Its my opinion don't get mad. I think its a valid point and i hope it helps everyone understand a little of what it means to get "scammed" or get your "money stolen". By the way i dont know any of these guys so please dont think im taking sides.

True and untrue, he did try to help the OP to start... but a fight only broke out due to the defendant losing his shit and basically telling the OP to stop fingering himself.

And according to the defendant's FAQ he wont provide refunds if you make any profit.

Code 3) Do you offer some money back guarantee if I don't make money?

3 A) You won't need that guarantee as you will make money.

However, from what I could tell... the OP hadn't earned any money and instead had a suspended account due to it being an illegal method, even though it was advertised as a legal method... which makes it a valid scam report.

Thank you however for providing your opinion.

Like i said it was a grey area and i think it does apply to a lot of ebooks going out saying you'll make money if you buy "this" or whatever. But yes i see your point as apparently it was a fraudulent method. But what im asking is if i have point...im interested in what everyone has to say because jumping the gun and calling someone a scammer isn't cool regardless of an argument or not. I don't think the seller's attitude has anything to do with the legitimacy of his product.

I read the whole thing and it was basically false advertising and the seller raging at the buyer. OP also found out that it was a fraudulent method and the seller knew about it. So i agree now that it was a scam i guess but what i was trying to say that hypothetically if it wasn't a fraudulent method but made little money but the advertising says you'll make a lot doesn't make it a scam. Its just advertising. Look at advertising today. I hope im making sense. But i see now that yes i guess in this case however the seller was in the wrong. I guess i read over the part of the fraudulent method. I get tired of reading these sometimes...

You're absolutely correct, if this was a legal method, this thread would be pointless, because the OP would have made a small bit of money and all would of been good... since the defendant doesn't specifically promise you that you'll money quickly, nor a large amount of it.

However since this method is illegal and results in a suspended account while it was advertised as a legal method... well, that's a completely different story. <3

I enjoyed our little chat though, glad to see we have new minds coming in to provide information and assistance. I'm trying to make it my goal to settle this dispute where both parties walk away smiling. It is a difficult goal certainly, but hopefully an achievable one.

Thanks for all support so far, I hope Intellectus finally gets banned and I hope he pays back what he scammed from us.

Dont buy his ebook and fall in the same trap as many others did! Be aware and spread awareness!

Also i would like to mention that he is more than welcome to provide counter proof of me harassing him, i would love to see that since thats what he claims i do + it never happened :)

Here is some more proof of convo btw, where he clearly states it cannot be saturated (which is a load of bs)

Trival - July 26, 2014, 6:06 am

This thread should get even more attention.

This guy is ripping of the community and should get banned.

From the 10 pages I read, it's clear that intellectus is at fault.

I hope you and everyone who purchased his scamming ebook gets his money back.

zakrib - July 26, 2014, 6:13 am

He is more proof he is asking another customer to vouch for him even tho the customer clearly states he has not actually gotten paid yet, and the owner still is trying to force him to vouch for him, this was posted by the owner himself (he was trying to prove to me his method really works bla bla, unfortunately this can easily be used against him since he is basically forcing the guy to vouch for his guide):

Here is where i gotten this proof from (which was before i bought the guide and it is in the pm chat i had with him). Link to pictures has been marked so its easy to see:

I got so much proof on this kid man, and he is yet to even post any proof to defend himself (because there isnt any). He is a scammer, he clearly is almost forcing this guy to vouch for him. Do we really want scamming members like this on HF?

I read up to page 12 and can confirm that the e-book writers are money-grubbing people who simply don't care about their customers.

You guys have been extremely rude to him, and you've pretty much just said "We contacted staff, they'll deal with it." As if they're going to ban him or something. He's not leaking ANYTHING, stop saying he is.

You guys are full of empty and rather pathetic threats.

Your e-book simply is a failure, you've ripped people of their money, I don't understand why you can't accept it.

Stelio - July 26, 2014, 9:20 am

Yeah, Intellectus is clearly a money grubbing scumbag. If he makes as much money as he says he does, he wouldn't need to sell the ebook for $80 so other people can "saturate" his already working method. Begging for vouches is just more proof that he is selling a shitty ebook and trying to scam other members of hackforums.

Asking for a vouch isn't the worst thing in the world, but when the customer refuses and you're incessant about getting a vouch, THEN it becomes a problem.

Yeah, that was i was saying, but the kid + A Fox immediately started flaming me in the first 2 pages of this thread (and a fox later continued to including intellectus himself). After the people on HF actually took time to read my proof and the proof i posted after everyone realized what a scammer he is. A Fox, I want to make one thing clear, are you really a co-owner or not, because before you said you were simple customer and all of a sudden after all your flame and commenting on this thread he suddenly made you a co-owner?

If that is the case, you are also a part of scamming and selling an illegal method on HF which is clearly against the rules so I will add you to the scam report if you really are the co-owner and partner of Intellectus. I have nothing against you but what you are doing is against the rules!

Who cares how much money it is? $50 is a lot to people, and it's more the principal that matters, he bought a method claiming to be legal... which resulted in several accounts being suspended because it ends up being blackhat/ illegal... which also costs him a bit more cash.

It could be a scam report for $1 and it would matter, get over it.

madara3 - July 26, 2014, 1:17 pm

I'm supporting the OP in this case. I bought this ebook and setup everything. My account got banned a couple of days later so all my money gone to waste. I don't want to purchase another account because it would just continue to be a waste of my money. I have contacted the owner of the ebook for a refund via skype, but from seeing his behavior on this thread and messages to the OP, I'm assuming he isn't going to do anything for me. Hope we get our money back! Also, should we wait for the outcome of this thread or go ahead and open a paypal dispute?

Jordana Brewster - July 26, 2014, 1:18 pm

Some people might be making $1,000 a month so $50 is nothing to them. But trust me, some people would treasure a $50 like you would treasure your $1,000.

I was thinking of buying this EBook but then realised that most Ebooks are useless and if you ever want to make money you do it yourself and find a way.

Done it my way, and found an easy little work method, sure it does not earn me that much, partly because I don't invest a lot at the start but it's a method.

Good Luck getting your case resolved and your refund.

The defendant has completely stopped posting and so has his friends. Not even A Fox is trying to defend him anymore (from the looks of it).

I dont know if i should take this as a win or a fact that nothing will actually happen to this guy and that people will continue to be scammed by him and his friends.

I have my hopes up that an admin reads this thread and sees how he misbehaves towards me and many other customers, how he scams us, cuss us out and feeds lies about his guide, and not only that, also the fact that he is selling an ILLEGAL GUIDE!

Hopefully something does happen, however the staff rarely do anything. Best thing would to make a community alert about the defendant letting everyone know not to purchase his illegal method.

Make sure to link this on the community alert page.

It what I can tell can not be used for whitehat as from my speculation it requires you to trick and lie to your customers, pretending to be an app that you aren't. That is not whitehat, and absolutely no way that it could be whitehat.

And in a ton of images, you can clearly see that the defendant has full knowledge of the blackhat method and tried helping guide OP through it, specially when he insulted him after OP told him that his account was suspended...

You might as well stop posting, since you have absolutely no evidence or images to provide to prove the defendant is innocent, and the refund has already been filed.

I'm merely stating as an affiliate of the already proven wrong defendant, you may not want to go about spouting anything without valid facts. You claim to work with the owner of this eBook, so I'm to assume you know his methods and the correct way he wanted this method made.

Which is clearly from all these conversations is not whitehat in the least. You should remove yourself from the defendant as soon as possible, before it becomes apparent that it's an illegal blackhat method, which will get his sales thread junked... perhaps rep fucked, or even exiled.

Just a heads up for the things that could come your way if you continue to provide support after knowing full well a product like that isn't allowed on Hackforums. I'm trying to help you stay a member, and have nothing against you A Fox, in fact you've been far more mature and professional then the owner of the eBook.

A Fox, you clearly claim that you dont need to answer to anything like ur last post and you say you are not selling his guide.

He stated u as the co-owner, which more or less means u sell the guide, and if that is not enough, why does his thread then basically say to contact and buy from you while he is on vacation?

here is proof (like always i back my shit up with proof and pics unlike A Fox and Intellectus):

I edited the pic so you wont have any "vision" problems seeing what i mean. The yellow part is where i marked ur name and the red ring is the full sentence of what intellectus wrote :) Could you please clarify what he means with this?

Well done, that image is quite helpful and cleared things up. It seems A Fox and the original defendant seem to be stumbling over there argument and any "proof" they provide.

I just want one image that is real from the defendant to prove they're making money using this method legally, showing that they're using the same method they advertise... however I doubt I'll get anything like that.

Being a co-owner means u run a business together, most likely splitting money earned.

So yes, you can pay me back :)

+ if you dont stop spamming my thread I will contact an admin, put down another hour and add you to the scam report considering you are the co-owner, defending him, and just like him spreading lies and flaming. + u keep selling an illegal method which is against HF rules.

I am going to be kind enough to give you the option to stop flaming or to be added. if you want to post its not a problem, as long as you have some constructive criticism to add to this thread (proving me wrong/right). But i suggest you do not flame other people for merely stating a fact against u and the owner.

Nevieth was neutral from the beginning and he has been neutral and given you guys plenty of chances to provide even 1 picture or ANY PROOF AT ALL that i flamed him, that his guide is not illegal, REAL PAYOUTS FROM USING THIS GUIDE, and much more. I appreciate this and will change my reputation depending on your intentions and since u stopped flaming my thread.

The original guide was still a hoax from intellectus tho, and in my opinion doesnt really justify that plenty of people has lost several developers account (each one 25 $) + the price of the guide which showed to be a scam due to his lies.

In my specific case that would be 50$ for developers account, if he pays me that i am gladto put out 25$ to start whitehat, but that is...if it really is whitehat and is allowed to googles terms.

From reading ur comment earlier u said u arent sure if its on googles term or not, which basically means u arent sure if its whitehat.

If intellectus wants to start selling a guide on a clear concense (dno how to spell that word lol) he better refund every customer, and pay the fees for tricking us into making more developers account.

Like i said, i am not blaiming u A Fox but I am blaiming intellectus, because after he got the money he clearly didnt give a fuck and th eonly thing he has been doing since is to lie about his guide.

Would also like to mention that U found a whitehat method (if u really did), not him, so its not really a defence on his part.

And after reading my thread again i just noticed he randomly assigned u as co-owner because u were having his back, so it seems, and u didnt know whether u are or not.

Your a low quality skid (and probably one of the owners friend) who is backing him up. It does not work, and is against google TOS, google looks the account up to see how it made money and what activity was used to make money, once they see its illegal the account gets suspended without pay, so no, IT DOES NOT WORK.

And if u havent noticed, every single customer who bought the guide so far has been suspended, except of course, intellectus few friends and co-owner who made LOADS AND LOADS of money using this method ---> However they have not once proved an actual payout of money from using the guide.

This eBook is clearly about targeting audience, creating apps and there is not encouraging to illegal activity which is explained in the eBook disclaimer. However, this was your responsibility and after countless of hours trying to get something working with you I gave up offering you help because of your disrespectful sales trashing. This is not a legit scam report and consists of fully leaks of something I would place as highly sensitive information, without any serious inquiry or proof of having any sense of direction regarding the method, as it's clearly mislead by yourself here.

It is not my problem that you didn't follow up on how you can legally use the apps or the method itself and this is a fully leak of the whole eBook itself. However, I will contact any admin to get this temporary down and hopefully you'll realize how discriminating this really is for me, after spending months of my time trying to develop a method.

I suggest that everyone else calling me a scammer listens to other who have actually made money off this before making any assumptions, thank you.

Wow, all of this discrimination and butthurtiness could have been avoided by giving this kid a refund.

I will be waiting to see if the owner offers a refund or not, probably not, since he deep inside is a scammer as proven on this thread omfgomfg is taken care off after showing Paypal the whole eBook, but thank you for giving my account another lift on the future disputes. As Paypal is more than willing to commit to my seller protection in the future.

For those who question everything here, it's simple. OP didn't use the method correctly and never bought a GUIDANCE version of this eBook, it CAN be used blackhat, but it can ALSO be used white hat. I have no reason what so ever to come back to this, but know that the PP dispute was won under 24 hours, where PP had this marked as an 'Investigation' and rather not a 'Claim', that's why I sent PP a copy of the eBook and won straight after.

If this method is good enough for PP and OP have received it, but didn't understand it. Where's my fault in this? I can really admit that my behavior against OP was very wrong and I'm deeply sorry for that, I truly am. I promise to treat everyone nicely and I must say that my vacation had me really thinking of this, thank you for understanding.

In my opinion OP is stupid, the method works as stated on page one, the kid moaning that he went neither negative or positive? You have earnt your money back and can keep using the method so that's a win for you?

Also i believe the seller and A Fox have done nothing wrong as the method does indeed work and is therefor not a scam.

Btw OP is banned haha.

What a conspiracy! It turns out omfg was the scammer all along! He held a personal vendetta against intellectus and sought to ruin him - this time through ebook sales. There was a method to his madness, however. A two-step plan:

- 1) create a scam report to ruin his reputation.
- 2) try to convince people that the ebook is useless! Everyone supporting his point was a personal relative or friend of his.

This may sound a little crazy or controversial, but omfg came To this site to ruin intellectus. I think he will be considered one of that great schemers of hackforums.

What a development.

mg] This thread.

But whatever it is, I hope it gets resolved :)
Good luck to Intellectus and OMFG

Intellectus - August 3, 2014, 5:20 am

I understand that people are against me, not only for the "evidence" as it's very poorly attached and controlled. Yet, I know that many people here are trashing eBooks for their purpose only, and I can completely relate to that as I did that in the past too. Somehow my community alert on OmfgOmfg got removed, most likely because it had his last name (Not a DOX though), but this thread really doesn't have any valid reports to it. As it only keeps snippets of conversations that are not vivid, like the hard evidence I have where OmfgOmfg was defeated in his PayPal dispute because I spoke to PayPal after he open an investigation on me, and I sent Paypal a live copy of the eBook where they confirmed that I had the rights to sell it through my PayPal business account.

I also got a lot of haters because I make a lot of money, really. People don't like to get jealous.

Button line, OmfgOmfg received the product and got the help he paid for. In return, he leaked my eBook, trashed my sales and contacts potential customers and says that they shouldn't buy my products. If you, reading this, cannot understand for yourself that there are clearly something wrong about this shit. Then you can basically go and fuck yourself too, because you have to be pretty damn ignorant if you just want to agree to this clash of snippets that doesn't have cooperation with other snippets and confirm that OmfgOmfg is the victim here, when I'm sitting with disputes on nearly $2 000 now, so who's the victim? The guy who will be paid nearly $1 000 after investing $80 on the 15th of this month? (Another eBook customer) Or the guy who got his eBook leaked, false reputation (Not talking about the reputation system here), trashed sales and future sales?

OmfgOmfg also said this:

Quote:EDIT: ONCE THE OWNER SAW I MADE THIS THREAD HE JUST THREATENED ME -

<https://i.gyazo.com/eb66d07ac77c7fb2e0294d3d74d04c8c.png>

But OmfgOmfg mass attack called my PP phone holder (At 06:00 AM), tries to DOX me and contact what he believes is my mother or something. So who is really threatening anyone?

Here's the proof:

After running a successful web development thread on HF I get vouches from people who have purchased and used dollars on me in the past, like $500 - $800 deals who were successful.

Quote:He also has "fake vouches" which he uses from people who havent even bought the guide aka --> HIS FRIENDS. He uses these vouches on the frontpage of his thread - here is just one of the examples (the reason is you cannot use it as a vouch for a product which he has not tried out or used as a vouch from a sale):

<https://i.gyazo.com/f1b5c77064fb132ddc9b4bfd35577601.png>

Goodies vouched for my earnings through join.me after I contacted him when he made a comment on my thread as I wanted to prove that I am real.

<https://gyazo.com/122c78650ea65b088b20c9476b71a49e.png>

So whatever he's doing, it's obviously working.

All this in the spoiler is pure utterly sales techniques called aggressive targeting, used by for example Steve Jobs as I joke around with.

Spoiler (Click to View)

A bit into the conversation he starts telling me he makes an average of 200-300$ a day, here is a bit into the conversation we had so you get a look of how our conversation looks like:

Here is another part in which he say the WORST OUTCOME in his own words is you will make 105$, which was a load of bullshit (sorry for the language) in my opinion as i didnt make anything close to this:

... More crap that has absolutely NOTHING to do with the actual transaction as it lead him into actually buying the eBook.

Quote:And here are some posts from more customer saying IT CAN BE SATURATED - which is what i also would say after reading and knowing about this guide now:

<https://i.gyazo.com/bd3c1fc6c96028fea733744dc4f84087.png>

Is this thread starting to just be fooling around with the subject? Short answer: Yes. The images above are personal point of views by people who are newbies to the method, these are not my sayings.

Quote:PLEASE ALSO DONT FORGET TO TAKE A LOOK AT THIS "HELP IS MY GUARANTEE UNTIL MONEY MADE BACK", IN MY CONVERSATIONS WITH HIM HE SAID HE HAS NO OBLIGATION TO HELP ME - I HAVENT MADE A SINGLE DOLLAR BACK --> FALSE PROMISE AKA I GOT SCAMMED!!

<https://i.gyazo.com/cf553716e7e1552d9f71e392a9b09cbb.png>

Us talking about what he talks about:

Spoiler (Click to View)

Yes, help was ghuaranteed till money was made back. But if you trash my sales, keep pushing off the subject, like talking about yourself going to the gym all the time I'm not gonna keep up with that and I am not offering you guidance, like giving you niches which is why I made the $130 superior pack back then to make people buy that product if they wanted guidance and not just help.

The image and comment below is when OmfgOmfg said he could post proof of his earnings already (He sometimes stated he made $0, but sometimes made a few sales):

Quote:HERE IS A PART WHERE HE ASKS ME TO MAKE A FALSE STATEMENT IN A VOUCH (I TOLD HIM IT WASNT A VOUCH AND THAT I WOULD NOT LIE IF I MADE A POST!)

<https://i.gyazo.com/704f1afdf9d4b858bec7b1f3b2582945.png>

I just said thanks for the vouch? Nothing wrong with that is it?

Now, why block out essential information?

To win the argument, of course.

Quote:Here even his friend and highest earner confirms it can be saturated:

saturated, but he still made $500 in 5 days? [sarcasm] Alright cool, sounds like it's getting saturated.
[/sarcasm]

Quote:I will now provide proof of our skype conversations, promises he makes, how he disrespects me how he asks me to "leave a vouch" even though i will not do it nor agree with vouching for a guide i simply do not believe works, and how he gets verbal against me once I do leave a simple message on his thread telling the truth of his guide. (that my first account was suspended + that later on my second account gets suspended).

The skype conversation is more than 50 pages I would say, so I read through all of it and tried to take the most important parts without revealing the guide (because i dont want to have this thread taken down cause of a tiny reason that i am "leaking" his useless illegal guide)

The skype conversation is more than 50 pages long but I didn't receive help? BULLSHIT.

Proof of OmfgOmfg not knowing a clue about what he's doing:

^Again, OmfgOmfg won't stick to the method and rather play his own game.

OmfgOmfg admitting on starting to make money:

Quote:He provides me one app which just links to a website (completely scamming kids). I asked for a niche cause i needed help and he gave me this one. Here is proof he gave it to me:
[img] Leaking information picture [/img]

OmfgOmfg admitting to wanting to do blackhat activity with this method, I gave him an example.

Quote:Here is a part, this happened a few times, if I encountered an error he was supposed to help, but the replies he was giving was things like "just try again" "You probably did something wrong"

"just figure it out please" - things which was his job since i did not know any scripting nor am good at computer, I managed to do the by myself after trying tho but he didnt want to "waste" time helping when he saw how unexperienced I was:

I guess it's illegal to be busy now though? Since he paid for the eBook and help only and not guidance? I mean, I can't be busy when I have $50 deals going on.

Quote:Here is another example once i did not understand - " you will figure it out urself" ^OmfgOmfg wanting me to do his Google Wallet for him because he couldn't fill out information Google required to sign up an account. I said that I cannot give more information about that than what Google already offers on their websites.

Quote:THIS PARTICULAR PICTURE IS VERY IMPORTANT - HERE HE SAYS YOU NEED TO HAVE ATLEAST A FEW APPS UP TO NOT GET CAUGHT, LATER HE GOES AGAINST SAYING THIS AND SAYS I AM MAKING IT UP AND THAT HE NEVER MADE THIS STATEMENT!!

No, that's not what I said. Stop bending the whole thread again.

A Fox is the complete retard, he was the co-owner of this guide helping intellectus to scam over 80 people, which means we still have 1 active scammer on this forum

Close the thread then.

And leave A Fox alone. The issue was resolved.

Funny story I was actually going to buy his eBook because it looked promising.

A Fox is still active so its not really resolved, as for keeping this thread "alive" you and A Fox are the only ones doing so due to the fact that you keep posting on it. I won't close this thread cause A Fox is a scammer himself too!
