Thread: what should I buy on Google play? \$1.69

Okay so I don't really buy games often, but I have this $1.69 in my account and its going to expire in a few days! Its going to expire because I did a survey and Google paid me that much for it!

Does anyone have any good apps around that budget range that I should waste my money on? I've been looking for a while now! I was thinking an app or a game! I was looking at an app called material browser but i dunno...

Please could you enlighten us on what genre of apps or games that you like. Also for people who want to know how he got the money its from an app named Google Opinion Rewards

Any kind of app really! It has to be unique though! Not those games/apps that are in the top charts! those are completely horrible (aside from CoC and a few others)

All you do is get an app called rewards. It is from google so you dont get scammed or anything and you don't have to download more apps. If you get lucky like me you'll get a few surveys in a week.
