I need to make money to buy my girlfriend a decent birthday present before September, how can I start as quickly as possible with as little money as possible? People will tell me to go get a job but I still haven't gotten my social insurance number and cannot apply for a job, even if I did I wouldn't be able to get enough hours before her birthday to buy what I want to get her. Please don't refer me to any ebooks because I already bought 2 and they were complete shit. I need some legitimate way to make money and if you can help me out I'm sure I can give something back in return.

Try investing in Virtual goods?

Such as RSGP, Habbo etc, and then sell for more money to other people?

I've only got $10 to start out with. I'm fucking poor.

If you're looking for quick and relatively easy money, you could just e-whore for a bit.

This.

Or go start gambling with the $10 for quick money, and hope for some luck :D

The only thing I can recommend is e-whoring, that's how I bought my girlfriend her birthday present.

If you are patient, stick that $10 into a pokerstars (or similar site) account, enter some $1 tournaments (can take a couple of hundred if you win). Its got to be possibly the easiest way to make money, it just takes fucking hours and my short attention span can't handle it.

When I am on the edge of been broke, I always wake up early, drink a shit ton of coffee and get myself into a tournament. Also make sure there will be no distractions, always go pee or get a drink at the breaks even if you dont want one at the time, you may want one 30mins later and thats when you're mid hand and can't go lol

If you have an iphone (or android) play on that, you can then freely do w.e you want to do with your day and the sounds/vibration will tell you when its your turn. I like to relax and do a movie marathon or something while I play haha.

Sell drugs.

Ask a close friend to front you a quarter ounce, resell it and keep doing that until you make enough money.

Actually I missed the 'september' part. You have a whole month? You could easily make a couple of hundred online. Check out review sites, some of them pay pretty well iirc.

I can teach you a way to make $500 in a week off eBay.

It's blackhat but it doesn't involve scamming. I sell the method for $60 but i'd be happy to teach you for free.

HMU. Skype: owned3601

(I am only givin it to him for free. If you would like this service then please purchase it from me)

How fake could that last post be? - eBay blackhat method that doesn't involve scamming? The only way you are going to get a free item or money from eBay is by scamming them.

Unless its buying and selling gift cards? drop shipping? Trying to sell guides? - These are all white (maybe grey) hat though.

Or get a 10$ G of some 15$ G shit & flip it into 20$ & get some 25$ G shit & just keep flipping that shit until you're stuck with a pound with your girlfriend on your lap with her 15 presents.

EWhoring might be the best method for you sadly.

You don't really have a choice other than that if you are new to making money online.

You'll make money fast and easy. There was a really good guide on here teaching you how.
