Thread: I'm making a short Evelynnn guide. What would you include in it if you had a say?

I always seem to miss some interesting fact about champions when I create my 60 second guides for them.

If you could only put one thing in a guide about Evelynnn, what would it be? Maybe an interesting strategy or tip?

Cheese-ability. The key to master eve is just to be able to find the best way to cheese the enemy team. (That includes positioning when you gank, and in fights)

It's like having your whole team to wait in a bush to hopefully catch someone and kill them.

It's like tryharding to the max. Lolatyoufornotknowing

Eve is a cheesy character especially with season 4, she's a really stealthy fuck.

Abuse her passive, a lot. Also make sure to check those circle bushes because they will probably pink it, especially since you're Eve

If you are behind and you will lose just stay in bush and pretend you are ward! :)
