You could install multiple GPT apps on your phone and use a UDID changer on each app you install.

Using the UDID changer will cause the app to think you are on a new device. The network, however may or may not payout because you would be using the same IP address. Try to get a Proxy and use it before connecting to the apps.

Mostly all threads on monetizing a smart phone is to install a GPT app.

I just stated this method plus a extra tip since you are jailbroken.
