Hi yes sir pls join us best group on hf thanks

Nivarka - August 6, 2014, 5:29 pm

This is a wonderful group to be in. Great fun, great people, great gaming.

As stated in the thread, contact me to purchase a spot within the group, bypassing the application process.

Greatest - August 6, 2014, 5:29 pm

Instinct is a really fun group to be in. We are extremely active in the SF and out of the SF. If you fail to get recruited it is worth the $70 buy in.

Great group!

Good luck to everyone that applies and I hope to see you around!

Gambino™ - August 6, 2014, 5:30 pm

Name:Excuses

Country:U.S

Consoles I Play:I mostly play Playstation and Xbox 360.

Games I Play:The games I play the most would have to be Modern Warfare 2 or Halo Games and sometimes minecraft.

Gaming Genres I Enjoy:The genres I play most are First Person Shooter mostly because I'm very good at them, and I enjoy them a lot. But it's a lot fun to spend time on games that are a bit more realistic like Skate 3 I suppose.

Why should I be accepted:One reason I think I should be accepted is that I'm a very nice person and easy to have ongoing conversations with. Also I love playing with people who have same interests as in me, like in gaming. Not only that but this is the first group I've ever applied for so I would be trying my hardest to be social as possible. Not to forget to mention I've been playing video games for ages, so it feels amazing to learn something new in the gaming community's. Also I'm always willing to try out new games and everything.

Thanks for this awesome opportunity and hopefully you guys we'll have some interest in my application and we will be able to play together soon.

Most-Played Game:Call of Duty

Primary Genre: MW2, Ghost, BO2, Pretty much I love to play FPS games.

Why I Should Be Accepted: Well I feel as I should be accepted because I have a big passion for gaming. I been playing xbox competitively for almost 2 years on Call of Duty. In the mist of all that I have been sniping for almost 4 years. Some of my goals that I have achieved while playing video games, I have been ranked SLB's Top 10 1v1er, Been top page in competitive gaming for a long time, have been able to make decent amount of money while gaming and still having fun. I am also a nice and chill guy, that fines playing videos fun and enjoyable while meeting new people and hanging out with friends.

Why I Should Be Accepted: I feel like I should be accepted because I have been on hackforums for quite some time and I have been gaming for even longer. I've literally done it all when it comes to Call of Duty, whether it's quickscoping, glitching, or being in a MLG team on gamebattles. I feel that I am skilled on every platform that I use, I accept any challenges and come out on top. I can contribute to the group by helping members out, and being active in the sub forums. I am a friendly guy who wants to meet new people and game with the fellow members of the group. I appreciate you reading my application,

Why I Should Be Accepted: I believe I should be accepted because I'm a true gamer and that I enjoy playing games with other people but not when everyone rage quits/ fights as it does my tits in. This is the first group application I have applied for because I believe that I am worthy to join this group because and I respect other peoples favourite games ect however I do like to play a wide range of games instead of just the most popular games. Even though am not a hardcore gamer I do enjoy games and gaming discussions and I think this will be a good choice for me to get along with everyone. You don't need to be a hardcore gamer to join a group, I just like to play games casually.

My main console is my Gaming PC but i dont neglect my other consoles, Im quite knowledgeable about Game trivia, history, modding system, engines and lore. Im a very friendly player who isnt vulgar neither racist. I have a collection of games and im more than happy to play with or help another player under any circumstance. I usually am not a very intense gamer though, i like to chill out and talk and have a laugh and fuck up some things cause its life. Though i dont fuck around playing Wow, play it right or dont play it with me. other than that im a fairly decent person whos up for pretty much anything and just wants to game... Im not an exceptional gamer but i do well for myself and am a joy to play with. i guess thats why i feel like i might fit in with instinct and be a good member to consider for a spot in the group, Thanx

Why I Should Be Accepted: I am hungry to learn and expand me knowledge. I am dedicated to HF and am only searching to expand my experience here on HF and in gaming in general. While not only do I want to join to play games with fellow members and create relationships, but to also be in a group and expand my experience here on HackForums--becoming more known and making my mark. am a 19 year old student at a local community college in the United States. I would consider myself an educated and intelligent being and I am planning on transferring to a 4 year university as soon as I get my AA (Associates of Arts). I am just starting my second year at my local college. Not only have I been a passionate gamer my whole life (Ranging from Nintendo to N64 to Xbox to PC to ... I think you get the point), but I have also worked for many private servers and have been management of staff. One worth mention I believe I should add is I was an Admin for Eternal-WoW, a private server which, at peak times, had 5,000 players online at one time. I worked their for two years and was running almost everything. This was a volunteer spot, although the company made quite a bit of money. I enjoyed every second of it and worked over 40+ hours a week on just this private server. It was (and still is) a great private server and a very well known one too.

I am very dedicated to gaming and am wanting to join a group to become more community involved and play with fellow HF members and create new relationships. I believe I would be a valuable addition and can help around. I would also love to expand my skills and learn new tips and tricks as well as share some of my own. I believe Instinct is the perfect group for me.

I also love to socialize with other people, I get along with almost everyone. I play almost whenever I have the free time. I love to get with other people and play a fun game with them. I see so much fun in it. I also am very good at playing as well. I am very mature as well so there will be no problems with me being immature. I am always down to be with others in any game I own. Now at last I am very dedicated with what I do when it comes to video games. I will not stop at being alright at a video game, I want to conquer everyone and everything in this said game just to prove I am better than the average gamer. I don't like being average so I will do what I can in this game to be better, even if that means looking up ways or strategies to be better at the game. I love competition I know it will always be there, someone will be better than me but I can try being better, but don't get me wrong - I love having fun with others.

Why I Should Be Accepted

Well, I've always has a passionate interest in gaming. It started 6 years ago when I started playing CS:S. I played for about 2 years until I became very competitive and decided I needed a break. Then, around late 2010, I got back into gaming with Halo 3. I really enjoyed playing that until I got into Garry's Mod. I began learning LUA and I am now proficient in LUA and other coding languages. I then began playing CS:GO, which I excelled at considering my CS:S experience. I believe I can help other members of Instinct by teaching them strategies and things like that. Sorry if you deem this going off topic. Just thought I'd explain my background and such. Thank you for reading my application, and I hope you consider inviting me!

Why I Should Be Accepted: Well, I feel this group has lots of potential and after deciding to be active on this forum, I've noticed a lot of cool people are part of Instinct and I wouldn't enjoy anything more than to play with some of these members and just have a good time. I'm usually on Skype and would love to go on mic and play games. Lately, I won't lie, I've been busy with school as I am back in school now, however, I always have time during the weekend or some parts of the weekdays to PC play which is what I enjoy doing. On Battlefield Heroes, I've got a lot of maxed out characters, so I know what I'm doing and I wouldn't mind helping out a few people with this. I would create an official thread for assistance and shit, and get people on the track of playing this game as it is really a fun one.

Gaming Platforms: PC (Windows for a majority, Linux for a select few), Console (PS3, Nintendo Wii), Mobile (iPhone 5S).

Most-Played Game: League of Legends

Primary Genre: MOBA

Why I Should Be Accepted: I should be accepted into Instinct because I enjoy playing games in both a single and multi player setting. I enjoy starting a game and living through the story. Games such as the Final Fantasy series, Dynasty Warrior, Banjo Kazooie, Castlevania, and Gauntlet started my love for gaming. I have owned a majority of the consoles over the years and have played fun games on each one; spending countless hours playing / replaying them (Skyrim, Final Fantasy, Madden, Counter Strike). I am not the best in any game. I've enjoyed playing games for fun. I am not the best in any game. That much I know. Only recently, in the past few years have I begun to find competitive gaming as another form of excitement through League of Legends. I love getting online and grinding matches. The teamwork aspect is something I especially enjoy. Being able to work with people in a strategic manner to outsmart, outplay, and out rotate the enemy team is something that attracts me to League of Legends and strategy games. I have begun to expand my library to other games such as Civilization and Hearthstone. On top of your usual RPG's, Strategy Games, and FPS's, I also enjoy playing Visual Novels. I am an avid anime watcher so I always enjoy a good story line with a multitude of routes. I feel as though I can bring my teamwork to Instinct and give other members a pleasurable playing experience. I am down to earth and a pretty cool dude to talk to. Whether you want to talk about games, news, or life I could offer a real team mate mentality to Instinct. I would also be able to recommend and manage a list of games other members may not have heard of but could potentially really like.

Thank you for taking the time to read my app.

Best of luck with the group either way.

Gaming Platforms:

I currently play on the PC, Xbox One, Xbox 360, and occasionally Nintendo DS.

Most-Played Game:

I'd say my most played game is either League of Legends or FIFA 14.

Primary Genre:

Well, I certainly enjoy first-person shooter games, such as Counter Strike: Global Offensive and Battlefield, but I'm most enthusiastic about MMORPG's, like Neverwinter.

League of Legends and FIFA are my only exceptions, as League is a MOBA and FIFA is a sports game.

Why I Should Be Accepted

Well, I certainly can't think of any reason as to why I stand out amongst the thousands of HF gamers, but I can say this; I'm about as enthusiastic as you're going to get with all games, ranging from Battlefield to FIFA to Neverwinter.

It's always been a hobby of mine, starting from when I was around four years old, playing the first Monkey Ball and Super Smash Brothers GameCube games.

And when it comes to any game, failure is not an option. I'm not saying I rage when I lose, but that's certainly not how I like to play, no matter what the circumstances are. I'll always be that person that tries to carry the team to victory, nothing will change that. That's part of my disposition, and it carries onto my gaming career. I think I can bring my unique perspective of video games and different style to the Instinct community.

Thank you for reading my application.

The question should be why not lol. But I am an active gamer I'm active in the jtag/rgh sub forum and I also host modded lobby's which every other user does not have the ability to do I have an active youtube channel you can PM if you would like to see some videos but I have been gaming since 2010 I know a lot about and have developed some talent for doing this. So I would love to be in Instinct since it is centered around gaming.

Why do I game?:

We'll I don't just game for the fun of it I do it because I find it interesting and actually like doing it from the time I am not at school I am on playing video games I have really devolved something special with video games I find a true interest when playing games I find it truly entertaining playing someone in a 1v1 or hosting a modded lobby just basically doing anything video game related

What got me started/Background Info:

We'll in 2010 I got my first xbox360 I didn't know a lot about it but I hooked up with some IRL friends they taught me everything from that point what games to get how to quick scope and much more then in about 2011 I started finding out about youtube and trickshotting and what not and I really started trying and trying to get better at what I like doing then in 2013 around January I got a RGH

Trinity which is a modified console that is when I started getting into hosting modded lobby's which I still do till is day

Gaming has entered my life with my first console, the PlayStation 1 and games like Crash Bandicoot and Metal Gear Solid. Soon, the GameBoy has been added, the GameBoy Color, Advance and the PlayStation 2. I bought the PS3 shortly after its release and the PS4 on release. I am playing PC games since my early childhood days as well, it all started with RoadRash.

Most-Played Game:

PS4: FIFA PC: Dota 2 and CS:GO

Those are 2 games I play a lot right now, but I also play Diablo 3 (a lot), WildStar, Team Fortress 2, .. soon, Destiny will enter my life!

Primary Genre:

FPS and Sports

I mostly play competitive sports games on console, visit tournaments, etc.

On PC, I tend to prefer competitive shooters like CounterStrike: Global Offensive or Dota II.

Why I Should Be Accepted:

I should be accepted because I would more than regularly post in the subforum and try my best to bring more quality to you, guys and girls. I could post tutorials, game guides, character guides and in general help people that need guidance, as Instinct is not just a group for hardcore gamers, but also those that do not play as often, but share the same passion. Also, I could join in on various games and hop into gaming sessions. I am a dedicated gamer, so you won't have a hard time getting into a game with me, no matter which, as I tend to buy every game I could possibly be interested in and invest a lot of time in every single one. I am also very active on here in general and spend a lot of time online. Means.. I would work my ass off to stay in your group. Saving the entry fee means earning it and that is what I would love to do! Also, I am not a bad mooded, grumpy guy. Matter of fact, I love making jokes and having fun with people.

Additional Information:

Gender, Age & Origin:

Male, 20 years old, born in Sarajevo. Turning 21 in just 8 days.

Most active in:

I spend a lot of time in the 'Sony Gaming' subforum, as I deem myself very competent when it comes to PlayStation systems and PSN. You can also find me in the 'Computer and Online Gaming' and I am a passionate PC and most of all online-gamer. I live for competitive online games. That way, you can also find me in the 'Diablo' and 'FIFA Game Forum' as well as the 'FPS and Military Style Gaming' sub.

Link to one significant thread you have made:

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=3878246>

I have made this thread as the PS4 userbase wasn't too big at that time and it was a great way to find friends to play with. It still is!

A point that is important for you in a game:

That the game has the ability to keep me coming back for more every time, that it is a long lasting experience.

Diablo 3 has been a game that was able to keep me hooked for a long time, but then again, every patch got me bored in the long run, but not just me, but my entire community that I had built there. FIFA is doing a better job, but then again, it is a sports game. I just hope that Destiny will be able to achieve this.

What will you play on mainly in the close future:

PS4 and PC.

PS4 as Destiny is coming out for it, as well as FIFA. PC because I have never ever stopped gaming on it and there are a couple of games that I will want to play on highest settings, a mouse and a keyboard.

Do you keep your gaming rig up to date:

Yes I do. Just finished a major upgrade that should let me sleep well at night, knowing that publishers can throw games at me as much as they want and I will be able to play them on high settings confidently.

Describe your style of play:

I would describe myself as a focused and hard working gamer. Never do I give up, that way, I also never quit games. Giving up on your teammates and leaving them alone was never a fun factor for me. I know how it feels.

Communication:

You are able to communicate with me at most times when I am online and gaming, also through skype and calls. I use headsets ingame for perfect communication.

Steam/Origin:

I have both, but I only enter Origin when I want to play BF4. I just don't like it running in the background.

Favourite color:
Green.

Something you promise yourself of being in this group:

I would love to make long-lasting gaming friendships that I will play with on a regular basis. It would be the perfect advantage online.. or just a casual co-op session.

Let us play Destiny together, people.

Thank you for the opportunity!

Gaming Platforms: PC, PS3, and Xbox 360.

Most-Played Game:

League of legends, CSGO, and Dayz. This was a really tough call because I have over a hundred games on steam. I have been a steam member since 2007. I have spent hundreds of hours playing games. I also play a lot of Minecraft and Arma 2. I play all types of games and play the shit out of them with my friends. I have had so much fun playing these games with my friends. I am always down to play games or even buy games to play with friends or even for Instinct. I would love to play with Instinct members on these games or even play some games for the first time with Instinct members.

Primary Genre:

FPS. I enjoy every genre and have played every genre.

Why I Should Be Accepted:

I feel I should be accepted because I think I can bring a bunch of good things to Instinct. I know alot of people will say the same thing and tell you guys how HQ they are and how they are the best. Well, I think I can bring a lot of fun and good spirits to Instinct. I am very outgoing and I am always down to have fun. I am very slow to anger and make good things out of bad situations. I don't rage at games or slam my face in my door cause I lose a game. I love to play ranked/Competitive in any game. I am very competitive and hate losing. I always want to be the best and win everything. I don't take 2nd place. I would also love to contribute a lot back to the gaming community and Instinct is a good way to do that. I would love to take this opportunity to join this group.

Most-Played Game: I spent most of my time playing Kingdom Hearts over and over again, but overall my most played game with online time would be COD: MW3 and following behind that would be Pokemon Soul Silver I had almost 300h in to that game.

Primary Genre: RPG or FPS I play both quite often so I can't choose between the two.

Why I Should Be Accepted: I saw instinct right around when it was first created, during the fall of Respawn. I had always wanted a chance to join the group but my account was closed in December and I had no opportunities to even post until now. I would like to become more active as I have been in the past, and I will it's just going to take me a while. I love gaming and I think I'm a great player. I can play any type of games (or at least give them a chance.) I may not be active in the gaming section yet, me joining this group would help me get back into a lot though,

Gaming Platforms:

Xbox 360, Ps3 & PC

Most-Played Game:

Call of Duty Ghost, Black ops 1 &2 and sometimes I go back to MW2, Grand theft auto V, BattleField 4, Garry's Mod & a little Minecraft.

Primary Genre:

I like to mainly play FPS games I usually am on Xbox more than anything mainly because my PS3 disc tray stopped working.. :(

Why I Should Be Accepted:

I should be accepted because I am a gamer-head I love to game all the time. I am a pretty awesome guy to hang out with (Likes to be funny and joke around). I would love to be in this group because I want to become an Instinct and meet new people to play games with all around the world. This would be a wonderful opportunity for me and I would be heavily honored to call myself an instinct

Additional Information:

I am 17 years old fluent in English I know a little tiny bit of Spanish, but no a whole lot.

I play Call of duty because it is fun and I enjoy the rush to go around an shoot people (in a game of course) xD

I play GTA because it is fun a lot better than GTA 4 I mean who doesn't like to steal a car and get away with it?

I use to play minecraft a lot because I was interested in it, but I grew out of that faze when I realized how boring Minecraft is :(maybe because every server I played on I always got staff rofl..

I enjoy playing Counter Strike sometimes also I don't play it so much, but I play it and it is pretty fun.

PC Games I also play are: Need For Speed, BF 1942 & BF 3, Dead Space 2, Assassin's creed 3, Fifa 14', Fifa world, and wing commander 3. (orgin games)

I also would love to be in this group because I actually want to start Live Streaming soon and would be a plus for me to start off in a group.

I would admit at first I rushed through this application in like 10 minutes, but now I am actually making it longer for my benefit and for you guys to know me more.

I also own a website which I am converting it to a website for Gaming information (updates, leaks etc...), but I would love to turn it into a group website for Our stats.

I play Video games to get away from the world for an hour or two or like three or four lol I always lose track of time when I am playing Video Games because I get caught up in beating this "one noob" xD or Finishing that one challenge.

I am a very nice guy and I respect everyone's religion, nationality and beliefs.

Like they say never judge a book by his cover... Judge them on how they play the game. I like to be competitive sometimes, but most of the time I play for fun.

THANKS FOR READING ?

Why I Should Be Accepted:

I should be accepted into Instinct as I game a lot. I used to be on the Nexus Minecraft sector but that was gone already. I usually play with my friends or family in league of legends and minecraft. I am currently unranked in LoL as my other account was banned. In minecraft, we usually play on Mineplex, Woodycraft, and all of the big servers. I have just started playing CS:GO about 2 weeks ago when I purchased my first knife here on Hackforums. I am currently in Silver 4 and am making my way up to Silver Elite which will not take me too long. I am a big trader on TF2. I love trading TF2 items when it comes to unusualls. I recently sold one of my unusualls that was worth $300 for $200 BTC. I have played Terraria when one of my friends gave me the game as a gift on steam. Compared to minecraft, terraria is a bit better since it has bosses, weapons, and different types of armors. When it comes to minecraft, you need to install mods to bring those items into your game. I have always been a fan of the NBA series. I mean, who wouldn't mind shootings hoops as Lebron James? Just saying, I have a shit ton of games on Steam that I play also.

Primary Genre: I like to play any type of genre really as long as I'm playing with friends and just having fun playing the game.

Why I Should Be Accepted: Why I should be accepted is because I've been a gamer ever since I was able to even hold a controller. Started out playing the gameboy and just worked my way up from there. I'm a very kind and social person that can bring a good vibe to those around me. I love to play games, but what's even better is playing games with someone I like or I know and I would like to get to know every member in Instinct on a level to where gaming with each other will be a lot more enjoyable. I also have a very flexible budget so whenever you guys recommend a game that's a lot fun and you want to get together as a group and basically have like a "Let's Play" then I'm all for it. I'm gonna be completely honest here, I don't have very many friends to play with because either they don't like the games I play or they don't have the games I have and joining Instinct would be a big step for me. Not only as a gamer but as a person. I want to become a part of something that's bigger than myself so I can learn from those around me and become a better person and a gamer. I want to contribute to Instinct that will affect the group in a positive way. Making new friends and just having fun is quite natural to me, and that's why I feel like I would be a perfect fit for Instinct. I also want to thank the Instinct organization for giving me and the HackForums community such a great opportunity to become part of such an amazing group. Most-Played Game: I mainly have many played games. I'd have to go with Grand Theft Auto V as one of my favorite games. Below you can find an active list of games I currently play on both the Xbox One & Xbox 360.

COD: Ghosts

Modern Warfare 2

Modern Warfare 3

COD: Black Ops II

Motocross Madness

Shooting/Action games are not the only games I tend to play, I usually play loads of "indie games" on the xbox dashboard as one of my favorite I would have to suggest "Motocross Madness" it varies on different maps racing around the world on your dirt bike. I suggest this for people who tend to play a lot of racing games and what not.

Primary Genre: Free Roaming games are mainly my primary genre, whenever I grew up I played a ton of Grand Theft Auto: San Andreas ... Don't get me wrong this game was probably one of the best games back when it first came out, this game basically got me started in the gaming community.

Why I Should Be Accepted: This group revolves around originality, most groups tend around the same thing but this group is much different from the crowd and I like that. In the future I hope to become very successful with Instinct of course if I am accepted. How? You may ask, well I recently started up a gaming channel on YouTube, basically what I do is review games, and play the story line I actually get much views for this, with being in Instinct I could learn many of things that would help me in the future, and I'll also be able to give back to the community under the name of Instinct.

Here's the deal with me being a new member and all. Yes I know I just joined but this doesn't mean I must be auto-denied just because I'm some regular member, I honestly do love this group and I will 100% put all my effort into this group. I do not care about what anyone has to say, I do my thing, and I do it the way I like. Instinct in the future is going to be even bigger than what it is now, and I would love to be apart of it. I hope to be active everyday in the sub-sections, and I will be hosting many giveaways under the name of Instinct.

If I do not get accepted I will not be butt hurt of course not, I understand why if this were to happen. Everything happens for a reason, who knows?

I would like to thank you for your time on reading my application, and I dearly hope you read thru the whole thing and take this into wise consideration. I will be able to bring a lot of attention to this group, and even money for personal purposes/giveaways.

Kind Regards,

Why I Should Be Accepted: I have a passion for gaming it's mostly all I do during the day. I have an open mindset where I can hop on any new game and learn the ropes and adapt to it quick, i'm open to try any game. As some people know I am a tryhard in almost every multiplayer game. I always try to get the best stats and try to be the best team player I can be. Not only do I care about doing good in a game but also getting the win. I have never went to any LAN events or tournaments but I know I'd perform great if I were to attend any. I believe I can bring a lot the group and also learn a lot from the group. This would be a great environment to be in, a nice group full of people with the same interest as myself. I'm an overall chill person definitely the team player you'd want on your team calling out, playing it smart, communicating etc. Not only do I live for multiplayer but I too play many single players, I've always been a little achievement hunter, if anyone ever needs help on a game I'd be glad to hop on with whoever and help them out. The games I play the most are:Call of Duty: Ghost

Call of Duty: Black Ops II

Battlefield 4

I tend to hop on these games back and fourth. I do have a MIC for both xbox consoles so I will always be able to communicate with everyone. I'm 17 years old but very mature if the age matters. The only type of gaming I do not do is PC gaming since my computer does not have the specs to run good games. I appreciate whoever took the the time to review my application, I hope you take it into consideration because it would be great to be invited into the group! ? Nonetheless good luck to everyone who applied.

Why I Should Be Accepted: I believe that I should be accepted into this amazing group for a few reasons. I have been on the forum a while and have been relatively active. I did take a short break in the beginning but I have been full-swing for the past 7 or 8 months, browsing at least 3 or 4 times a day. I may not always post but I am always looking at threads but nothing interests me as much as video-games. If I could become a part of this group, I would always be active in your sub forum and be interacting the other members of the group. I do have a job and school to worry about, but in my free time I play a lot more videogames than I would like to admit. I feel like this group would be a perfect spot for me to try to fit into and feel at home, here on HF. I will be a very HQ poster in your sub forums, as well as represent the group in a good manner out of the sub forum. I have no "legit" neg reps, nor do I have any scam reports so you can see that I will not be bringing a bad name to your group. I would like to thank you for the chance at being a part of this awesome looking HF group. Have a great rest of your day and good luck with the choosing process.

Most-Played Game: I constantly play Payday 2 for PC(trying to get achievements), but I got a list of video games to finish. So I basically don't play much, until I finish a game. Which can take up to a week or two. When I'm on my xbox, I usually play what catches my eye(Not CoD like everyone else).

Primary Genre: FPS, Action, Adventure, Open World(GTA type of game)

Why I Should Be Accepted: I think I should be accepted, because I love playing video games. I spend a lot of time trying different games, and beating them (Story line, and sometimes getting achievements). I go from game to game, but I tend to go back to pickup where I left off. I've been playing video games, ever since I was 4(Started playing Mario games on N64, about 14 years ago). At the age of 7, I thought my dream job would be a video game tester, because I was so in love with the video games at the time, and I wanted to try games before they were even released.

Most-Played Game: PS3: Ghosts or GTA5 | PS4: TLoU | XB1: Ghosts | PC: BF4

Primary Genre: FPS but if something catches my interest, i'll divert and try it.

Why I Should Be Accepted:

Compared to some of the other applicants and members of your group who are highly reputable, I am a fucking nobody on this forum and with that being said, more often than not my application will be disregarded not because of my skill in game but because my reputation is low, I have a warning level, or my profile is unappealing for some reason. Let me clarify I was RF'd with 300+ rep and gained the warning level for a "Reputation Violation" (from the RF). The majority of the negative reps are from people getting all emotional and revenge repping me.

Onto my gaming profile, I started gaming from a young age and that shows through my ever increasing competitive mentality. When I play, I play to win and nothing less. I played games on PC originally, then got my first Original Xbox which is where I stayed until I got my PS3. For as long as I can remember, I was playing Shooters and FPS games in specific. I started out with Unreal Tournament 2000 on PC then went to games like Conker: Live and Reloaded, and got my first COD title (Cod: 4) in the summer of 2007. I went from being a complete shitty player and throughout the CODs I played, I kept working on myself and have become a fairly accomplished player on PSN, at least.

I wanted a 360 throughout the life of that console but my parent's didn't want to buy me one, I didn't start supporting myself financially until late last year so it was never really an option. I got my XB1 in April of this year and got Ghosts in May, I've played doubles on GB and went like 60-8 overall (my profile has more losses but we decided in the beginning to give free wins). Never played MLG Variant because the partner I had at the time sucks, but I have a few dispute videos of me absolutely carrying him ;-). I don't game nearly as much as I did as I have to prioritize but i'm still on quite frequently. I used to wake up, game, eat, sleep; now it's more stretched out.

TL;DR: Throughout all the seemingly above bullshit, I'm a pretty damn good player and I'm hoping to expand my gaming by joining this group. The reason I believe you should pick my application over the others is because I'm one of the coolest kids you could meet, i'm always down to play some games, and I'm damn good at the ones I play, too. I'm a pretty decent SND player, I mainly stick to terrorizing kids in CvC because I can't find kids to play Gamebattles with (as most of my friends are on PS4 or they're double digits and are 'untouchable'). My devotion to gaming is shown throughout the controllers, TVs, games, and equipment I've bought. Too much has gone into gaming and with technology increasing, I don't see anything stopping shortly.

Spoiler (Click to View) I let my Sister and her BF borrow my XB1 and I don't know when i'll be getting it back. For the time being as of 8/7, I only have my PS3 & PS4. I'm in the process of building my PC but my parents owe me $1,100 (long story, sounds super skiddy saying your parents owe you) and I'll need a couple hundred dollars after that then my build is complete. PM me if you want to know more about that.

- Wii-U
- Nintendo 64
- Gamecube
- Wii

Other Platforms (Click to View) I also have the following gaming platforms:

- Xbox 360
- PS2
- PS1
- PC

Most-Played Game: My most played game is probably a tie between Pokémon and Megaman Battle Network. Wait! Before you click away from my application, let me explain. I am a competitive Pokémon battler. I go to tournaments and everything. It can take weeks to prepare a proper team for a tournament, and there are constantly new strategies and playstyles arising. It's no walk in the park. I've been competitively battling for about 7 years, and began to actually get good at it 4 years ago. As for Megaman Battle Network, it is a very interesting, strategic, and fun JRPG that is unlike anything I've ever played. Anyone not familiar with the series should play it.

Primary Genre: Strategy / Tactical

Why I Should Be Accepted: As you could probably tell from my application, I'm not a gamer like most people are on site. I focus heavily on older games. I have a great amount of respect for newer games and the amount of effort and quality put into them, and there are a lot of newer games that I play, but my personal preference lies in older games.

I really enjoy Speed-Running and learning the mechanics behind games so that I can play them effectively and competitively. Calculating exactly how many steps I can take in a given direction before I have a 100% chance of encountering an enemy is just the type of thing I live for. I also really enjoy exploiting, RNG manipulating, and working on glitches in games, especially glitches that can skip over considerable portions of the game. I don't know how many Nintendo or Retro gamers you have in Instinct, but I promise you that I would be a great addition to that scene, providing insight and knowledge on a variety of game mechanics and features. Also, I'd love to share and discuss Speed-Running strategies for a large variety of games, and collaborate to optimize a few routes I've been working on for a few months now.

Most importantly, though, I would represent Instinct well and with pride on and off the site.

Thanks a lot for reading my application, I know you guys will choose the best of the best, and I hope I can be considered in that.

Xbox 360

Most-Played Game:

My most played game is a toss up between Warcraft 3, Counter Strike and Minecraft.

I started playing Counter Strike first and I have sunk countless hours into it between the ages of about 5-13.

I started playing Warcraft 3 when I was about 8 and still continue to play it today.

Minecraft however I started playing a few years ago and I have a ridiculous amount of hours played.

Primary Genre: My primary genre I enjoy playing is FPS games however I also enjoy RPG games such as Runescape and World of Warcraft.

Why I Should Be Accepted:

I would like to be accepted because I have been a gamer for about 17 years.

However in my 17 years of gaming I have dropped off a bit.

I don't play games as much as I used to and having a group of people to discuss gaming and play with would be enjoyable.

I have played a wide variety of games on a wide variety of platforms which gives me a bit of knowledge on quite a few games.

I hope to be accepted, thank you for considering me for Instinct.

I have always had a love for FPS games when I first got modern warfare 2 when I was in 7th grade. I started just playing casual with friends from school, then I started playing GBs, then I went to competitive sniping (SLB) was ranked #4 Mara, #6 SoH at one point. After I got kicked out of school, I had a lot of free time on my hands so I went to competitive gaming, it has since then provided not only a second income for me, but also an outpost to a lot of my stress from other things in life. I then started to make a name for myself. While competing at a higher level being on top teams such as eXs, Exodus, Annex, Dare and SB (spacebound not strictly business). I have competed at multiple major events for ghosts (UMG philly, MLG anaheim, columbus and UMG dallas coming up in august) and I go to local tournaments almost every weekend. I have put my all into call of duty, and all my hardwork has really paid off for the most part, and I continue to grow everyday and I am excited to see what Advance Warfare has to offer!

Thank you guys for reading my application and I hope to see you all soon.

Why I Should Be Accepted:

I am and have always been a hysterical gamer, I'm also a huge fan of SONY products. I got wide knowledge in the Sony gaming consoles, both hardware and software. I've been repairing Playstation 3 systems in and out since 2009, I know a lot about them. My first jailbroken console was back in 2009, I have experienced a lot of things throughout the years with a jailbroken system and got a lot to contribute with.

I love to play with new people and I know that a lot of players like to tryout my mods I also got a lot of playtime on different titles such as GTA V, Battlefield 3 and 4, Gran Turismo 6 and Skate 3.

I think that Instinct is the perfect group for me.

Why I Should Be Accepted

I've been a very active member of Instinct in the past, the only reason I no longer am is because I took a very long break from Hackforums and the internet in general whilst I focused heavily on school, I'm back now! ??.

This is my post activity before I left to focus on school:

Spoiler (Click to View)

I was clearly very active in the League of Legends section specifically in comparison to everything else, >2500% more active in fact! This is going to be the same from now on, I'll actually be more active now seeing as I no longer have to attend, not to mention I'll be active in the Instinct section to catch up with those lads, if I'm accepted!

I can assure that if I'm accepted back into I'll be able to represent and set the example you guys are (in)famous for, particularly within League Of Legends & Instinct sections!

I was known within the League section particularly before and I plan to make this the case once more, I'll easily be able to get the face of Instinct known within this section, not only this I can do so with grace helping newer players with my extended knowledge of this game.

My particular activity within E-Sports and my consumption within the scene is unhealthily senior to the average gamer and I'll be posting & hosting threads on many events, not just League; Starcraft 2 and DOTA will be there two as well as other events I happen to catch.

All in all, I'm a HQ member and I've always been an avid gamer; it would be awesome to be able to game with you guys again!.

edit: If not you guys should accept me again because of the thresh plays I made for Vinnie, what is this? (:

-Thanks, Pulsefire.

Why I Should Be Accepted:

In a nutshell, I'm a friendly person who would like to learn more about gaming whilst also becoming more professionally involved within Hackforums.

Whether I'm gaming online, out with friends, or off at the library cramming for tests... I'm a personable guy who isn't hard to talk to. I'm welcoming and talkative, but I'm also not afraid to disagree. Should I be accepted into Instinct, my social goals are to fit in nicely and have everyone be comfortable with me and to coexist in a manner that stimulates lasting friendships. I'm looking for some gamer buddies on Hackforums, as I constantly find myself making threads to look for fellow HF members to play games with. Should I be accepted, I'm sure this would no longer be an issue!

Like I've mentioned above, I'm somewhat new to PC Gaming. I'd like to learn more about it and share some fun times with HF members, and I think joining Instinct as a NEW gamer would be the best way to go about doing so! Yea, you guys could accept the guy who's got 600 games in his steam library and can recite the storylines to each and every one of them... OR! You could accept the guy that will be fun to experience new things with. I pride myself on my desire to experience life to its fullest, and I assure you that fun times will be had by everyone if I become part of the community!

Lastly, there's the Sense of community. While I may not have been a Hackforums member for as long as some ubers, I have the post count to prove that I am involved. With all this involvement, I have yet to find a place that I fit in. It seems a lot of members fall into my category, and I feel their pain; I WANT OUT! I need a group to call mine! a group bar to show pride in! I need a group of people that I will be willing to go out of my way to help because I know that they would do the same for me. I strive to maintain a professional appearance in everything I do; I would be honored to be able to call myself a part of Instinct, and more honored to be able to say that I did my part in bringing success to the group's name.

Most-Played Game:

My most played game ever is WoW, here's some screenshots:

Spoiler (Click to View)

Primary Genre:

To be honest, I don't have one. Some day I could be playing a Sandbox game, some other game I could be playing a RTS game. To me the genre doesn't matter as long as the game is good. But I've mostly enjoyed MMORPGs, so that's probably my primary genre.

Why I Should Be Accepted:

Because I have a passion for gaming. I've done a lot of stuff in the past, given up on it because it got boring and so on. That has never happened with gaming, and never will. Hacking? Nah, I'd rather kill this fucker. Marketing? Just after I've bought these games and played them for a while. Also, out of the top 5 sections I've posted in, 3/5 of them are gaming related.

To be honest, I fucking love playing games. Just yesterday I was playing against a famous streamer and Youtuber (Swiftly). The adrenaline rush was amazing, I've never felt anything like it. And I won against him, so that just made it all a lot better.

I'd really like to be a part of Instinct. Find people I can play with, have fun with and share awesome moments with. I'm down for playing almost any game with the right person, so I really hope that I'd be able to get into Instinct and find that person or those people there. I'd prefer if those people didn't have squeaky voices, get mad if anything bad happens or something like that. I will also make fun of you if you begin raging in League of Legends for example.

I really love the "fun" part of gaming, that means I'll often fuck around or do some weird shit. This is because I believe games are meant to be played to have fun, and not sit in silence and anger because someone killed you. Nah, instead you should laugh at what happened and do something fun. Of course, I'm competitive, so I always try to improve my game. I'll also go "serious mode" whenever needed, so no worrying about trolling or something relevant to trolling. Of course, I'm not half bad at gaming either. I quickly pick up on how games work, even if I just started playing. Depending on skill level, I should catch up to the people I'm playing with after a bit of time.

What about myself? Well, Like I just told you; I LOVE the fun parts of games, so I'll try my best to have fun while playing. Of course I'm not some weird fuck. I behave normally at all times, and don't randomly get pissed or have a mental breakdown. I also play a very big variety of games, so that's why I can play whatever is fun. Although I'm not good with horror games, they give me the spooks. I always try my very best to look as HQ as possible, using grammar that doesn't look like I just graduated from kindergarten. I'm always down to help anyone in need, the only thing they need to do is to PM me. I'm also on a lot, so my response time is amazing.

That concludes my application, I hope you consider me.

Thank you for reading my application.

- Tr@ck3d

What you see above is mostly a modified of my The Brotherhood application, I'll gladly rewrite it if it's not allowed. It's just that it answers the question you asked, and no need to write the same stuff again.

About me:

I'm a 17 year old "kid" in high school who has a lot of spare time and spends the majority of it gaming on my PC. I play games to relax and laugh, because that's where I see gaming's value is at, but I also like to get really competitive with games like Arma because nothing is more satisfying than winning in that game.

My gaming life started when I was about 9, and my Dad brought home a PS1 with Mickey Mouse (some reading game) for it, because I was a completely spastic child who was illiterate as all hell. Ever since then I just haven't got enough of it.

I play mostly halo 3 at the moment and I'm pretty active in the halo section where most of my posts on my profile are. Halo 3 got me into the competitive scene in gaming and I continue to play the game religiously lol. I have acquired well over a 78k Gamerscore over my main account on xbox over the past 7 years playing xbox 360/one which is a pretty good goal of mine and I have a 7 year tenure that I'm proud of as well. Why I Should Be Accepted:

I think I should be accepted, because I'm just a regular gamer who seeks a nice community with people that are like me, who are nice to each other and where I can ask for help without getting trolled. I've been trying to get in groups since I've joined here. I have not made many applicants, but the reason for that is because I don't want to join a group 'just to be in it', I want it for the nice community, not the title. I really hope I get accepted, it would really help me improve my look at gaming, and to make my game-knowledge wider. I love to learn about new games, and new techniques in game.

Why I Should Be Accepted: I genuinely have a passion for gaming, although my PC is fucked up right now and I can't play games, I still take the time to watch LCS streams on my phone and study the game. I even teamview my friend while he plays League sometimes to keep learning while my computer is messed up. I analyze a lot of hypothetical situation, read up on the LoL subreddit everyday, and try to learn as much as possible.

As you can see, 3/8 of the forums I post most in are gaming, the rest pretty much being the marketplace (where I made a lot of deals relating to games: XBL codes, League accounts, etc).

I don't play XBOX anymore, as I lost interest and got into League about 2 and a half years ago.

I also spent a lot of my life on Maplestory and Runescape (as I'm sure a lot of people did), and was a fairly well-known player on GrandChase (for my Elesis play to be specific), and was monthly champion once (November 2009 I think).

Why I Should Be Accepted: I believe I should be accepted because I'd be active and entertaining. I just want to have discussions about games that are more entertaining than the ones you have in the gaming section. It would be enjoyable to meet new people and to discuss with them, it would also be interesting to game with them. Extra: I'll talk a bit about my favorite games and provide some extra information.

My favorite game has to be Assassin's Creed II. The story was really good, and I love history, so the Assassin's Creed series is my favorite. I'm really hyped for both Assassin's Creed Unity (which is looking beast so far), and Assassin's Creed Rogue. Assassin's Creed IV was enjoyable, and I once did a review on the game under Complexity's name. I was in Instinct before, and I met some other Assassin's Creed fans, I hope there are still some AC fans in Instinct.

Most-Played Game:

The call of duty franchise, Call of duty 4. Although i also do enjoy playing RPGs and sport games.

Primary Genre:

I mostly play FPS's and RPG's.

Why I Should Be Accepted:

I believe that i should be accepted into Instinct because i love video games. I spend hours weekly gaming, 6-7 hours daily usually. I've been gaming since i was a child, playing arcade games on my dads computer. I got an xbox original when it first came out for Christmas and it's from playing Medal of Honor: Rising Sun where I got my love for FPS's. I then got a PSP and used to sit on it playing GTA for hours. I got my first xbox 360 in 2009 and started playing call of duty, and i still am today.

I am online quit often and love playing with other people. I think i am a very friendly guy, and would love to get to know some new people within the group. I also can play PC games, although i don't really spend very much time on it because my current computer over heats after playing for a while.

I'm not sure if it counts but i play games on my iphone every day also. I've been spending alot of time playing Clash of Clans.

While playing on the xbox 360, i have taken part in game battles and also sniping for youtube. I do enjoy competitive gaming and also relaxed!.

At the moment i'm loving playing Fable and Fifa 14. I will probably move onto another game soon!

Thanks for the opportunity and thanks for reading.

Most-Played Game: I don't usually stick to a game, but I would say COD and Leage of Legends have the most hours played since I've had LoL for a few years now.

Primary Genre: Shooters (fps/3rd person)

Why I Should Be Accepted:

I am not the kind of guy that would stick to a game for a long time, My currently favorite game is dayz, I started playing it around a month ago.

I always try out new games and depending on what games the group plays I can always join and we can have lots of fun on teamspeak.

However, a fair warning is that I do not play competitively, I only play games for fun and I always find myself leaving a game for another one.

That being said, I do not suck at gaming, heh. I just play one game till I master it or get bored of it then move on to the next one.

I love games that would require teamwork, and it would be amazing to have a team to play with on different games.

Overall, I'm a fun guy, when playing with me you'll notice I'll be laughing a lot for no reason at all, so I'd like to bring some joy to the group!

OCD.

Country of Residence:

I am currently in Ireland, but in the years I am planning on moving to sweden.

Gaming Platforms:

PC most of the time for a number of reasons.

I find PC gaming to be more "attractive" to me because of the customizability and the accessibility. Basically PC gaming for me is special and the fact that you can customize PC gaming in various ways by Modding and improving the way you run the game with different parts for the computer. I have been gaming on the PC since I was three years old. I still remember playing Vice City on our PC(which I still own but have gotten upgrades over the time). PC gaming is special to me and will forever be in my favour over other gaming platforms.

Most-Played Game:

My most played game is probably Sonic the hedgehog on the N64, the reason I say that is because growing up, I did love PC gaming but my friend got this new console and I basically spent every day playing on it with it, it still tears me up thinking about my childhood and all the good times.

Primary Genre:

Right now, what I play mostly is open world sandboxes ranging from GTA V to Minecraft. I spend a lot of my time on the minecraft gaming forum and or the CS:GO gaming forum, it's always fun to play and chat with the ones who share the same knowledge and interests in gaming as you.

Why I Should Be Accepted:

Honestly, there is literally no reason I should be accepted.
and now you are going to yourself "what a horrible answer" but hear me out before you go judging this application.

Firstly I am a passionate gaming enthusiast but that doesn't qualify me or anyone else to join your group, however I am also a graphic designer and I have a lot of free time since I am 15 years old and in High School. What I meant when I said "there is literally no reason I should be accepted " I meant what I said but for a number of reasons one being there are always people who are going to be better than you and me and who have a way of writing in a way to convince the opposite party. Second reason being nobody in their right mind (unless they are a raging narcissist) will agree and say "I made the best application I SHOULD get accepted" by saying "should" means I have done everything asked and there is a 60-100% chance that I am going to be accepted, and I just don't feel right saying should. Would I like to be accepted? Sure! Should I get accepted? Definitely not. In these stages of our society gaming is a big part of our lives and we all find ways to express our feelings toward gaming and I feel this would be a wonderful way to do so.

I am OCD. and this has been my application for the HackForums group "Instinct" and yes to answer your question, I am approved for UB3R all rights reserved to OCD© Gaming studios ireland 2014.

Username: My username is Slimy.

Country of Residence: England.

Gaming Platforms: il play on the PC platform.

Most-Played Game: I play competitively Counter-Strike: Global Offensive everyday.

Primary Genre: I mostly play First-Person Shooter games.

Why I Should Be Accepted:

I should be accepted because I am an exception - most people play games but never actually play to win, be dominant or seriously but I play seriously and to win and be dominant.

I play well in teams and with others; not so much with randoms. Myself being a team-player is used to the constant communication which is needed when playing competitively or just generally. I have learned this from playing Counter-Strike: Global Offensive competitively over the course of the last two months, communication and a dedicated, skilled team is needed.

I want my skills and experience to be proving your group, Instinct, that I am worth while.

Concluding this, I know what I'm doing whether it's a first-person shooter, MOBA or MMORPG - I'll find my way around to beat the opponents.

Thank you and good bye.

Primary Genre: FPS, Action, Sports

Why I Should Be Accepted I believe I should be accepted I've played video games ever since I was 6, I got my mind into Call of duty, FPS's when I was at a very young age, I still remember when I was 9, I had got top of the Call of duty 4 leaderboards of that game, as in highest score for that round. I showed my mom, I own multiple platforms, I'm on daily, school won't slow me down either. I'm also decent at every game I listed, I'm not gonna say I'm the best. But I can hold my shit down.

I'm gonna put a space so you don't have to read all that, I hate reading things like those.

I also play a lot of counterstrike on PC and compete in tournaments. I bet a lot on the CSGOLounge and have a good betting W/L ratio. Why I Should Be Accepted: Right now, I'm running a Minecraft server and I believe that I can bring great things to the gaming sector, especially with my Minecraft knowledge. I've also played 100s of games so I can almost partake in almost any conversation that has to do with games. I've also written numerous, detailed tutorials for different games and could apply the knowledge and professionalism to the group's subforum and share some pretty good stuff. I'm into planning events as well. I plan just about an event a week for my Minecraft server and would love to share this organization skill with the group and help form some activities for group members to participate in. Heading a little way away from the gaming side, I'm a pretty straight forward guy. I love to have fun and enjoy time with other members no matter who they are.

Why I Should Be Accepted:

I have always liked to join gaming communities and groups, I have been gaming since I was 10, then i started playing League of Legends at Season 1, but I didn't really like it, so I moved on and played World Of Warcraft for a few years ,then I decided I'd give League of Legends a second chance, I started playing in Season 2, quit it, and played again in season 3, I was a really bad player, till season 4 came, and I climbed from Silver to Platinum, (I got a friend's account from Plat 2 to Diamond 5).

Then I recently started playing Fifa Ultimate Team on my Playstation 4, and now I have a really good squad.

I think you should accept me, cause I always like to help members who ask any question about League if I know the answer, I even got in game with many members coaching them and telling them their mistakes and how to correct them and play better overall.

I'm also very active when it comes to gaming as it's a thing I really love and can easily spend over 6 hours playing a game.

I also like competitive play, so if there's a Team for Instinct then I am totally interested in joining and playing competitively and enjoying climbing the ELO ladder with them.

Also I am free to give coaching sessions to members who would really like some help on improving their gameplay and mechanics.

Hope I get accepted in this great group, and thanks for taking the time to read this.

Primary Genre: FPS but I'm also into adventure games and sports games like NBA 2K

Why I Should Be Accepted:

I've always been a big gamer growing up as I was introduced by my dad and older brother at a very old age. Counter-Strike LAN parties, Halo 2, COD, and even though I'm a little embarrassed to admit, Runescape, were a few of the games I grew up playing a lot. My love for gaming has always just been shared with friends or family but not too long ago I decided to start my own Youtube channel and share my enjoyment with the rest of the world. I do my best to actively upload almost every day to my own gaming channel (<http://youtube.com/squintgaming/>)and I would love to be a part of the Instinct group to get to know other gamers that share the same interests as me.

Through my years here at Hack Forums I haven't really made a name for myself but I've done my best at helping whoever I can and staying out of trouble in a place where trouble isn't hard to find. I've joined a couple of official groups, all of which ended up not being what I thought they would be; however, Instinct is a group based on something I love and I feel that it would be an awesome opportunity to join. ?

Why I Should Be Accepted: I love gaming and I love helping. I love the little micro communities that form within every different game and genre. I have years on years of experience in multiple gaming communities. Although I have not been as prominent in the gaming section on HF as some other places, I have been on other forums such as TTG (4 year active member) (same username). This

On another note I used to be really into the modding and hacking scene on consoles and PC, I haven't been as active in practice but have kept up my knowledge about recent happenings and methods. I think this would be a really good experience and opportunity to contribute to the HF community. My low post per day shouldn't deter you, over the past week I have made HF my main hangout and have been extremely active and plan to keep it that way. Primary Genre: Moba's, really into anything though. Used to be into shooters like Cod/Bf, then I was into Minecraft for a while.

Why I Should Be Accepted:

I believe that I should be accepted due to the history and knowledge I have of games. I've been playing video games ever since I was a little kid, ranging from Mario to FPS games like COD to Moba's s such as League of Legends and PC games like Minecraft. Not only was I skilled in those games (Had a 2.7 KDA) in Cod which was decent, but still better than the average player. I was apart of a great faction in minecraft which ruled the servers we PVP'd on such as Cursecraft, Drugcraft, and Daegonner (Look up FBGM cursecraft on youtube, you'll see) and I am a high elo League of Legends player which has a pretty successful boosting service here on HF. Not only was I passionate about the games I played, but I was also able to find ways on how to monetize while playing those games. (Made over $1000 on minecraft from a year of playing and a couple hundred on League of Legends from boosting).

Due to my passion for gaming and knowledge of the games I play, I feel as if I would be a great asset to Instinct. Not only would I help out the members of instinct, but I would also contribute with my knowledge of games.

Hopefully you guys take this application into consideration and chose to accept me into this group.

On pc my most played game was Minecraft, but I have recently lost interest in it, I had a gaming channel that was centred around Minecraft and I reached 700+ subscribers (I can give proof), but I closed it due to school friends finding out. I was also leader of an Xbox call of duty clan known as ZinC, we had a channel with over 1000 subscribers, until our graphics designer became corrupt and changed all the details to the channel. Now I have completely ventured off topic, I will now answer the question xD my currently most played game would be black ops 2 on the Xbox platform, gta v on the ps3.

Primary Genre:

My primary genre would be FPS. I find these the most enjoyable because they are action packed and are very thrilling to play.

Why I Should Be Accepted:

I believe I should be accepted because I'm very dedicated towards gaming, I love playing with others, I also feel you can find out a lot about a person by playing with them. I want to join so I can share my love for gaming with others, it would be great to have more people to play with and expand my gaming to other genres such as racing ect. I feel this it the perfect group for me as I know lots of members share the same interests as me. If I am declined I just wanted to say my opinion for this group will never change, it's fantastically run, it has a very nice badge and is overall the best group on HF in my opinion. If you have any further questions feel free to pm me.

Additional information

Hello, my names Harrison. I am a 14 year old boy, I am very mature for my age so I find myself talking/hanging around with people older than me. I always have lots of free time and find myself on hackforums around 6 hours a day, because I'm on for such long periods of time I do find myself getting bored now and then and feel that a group would be the best option for me as it gives me lots more to do and helps me meet new people.

I am currently starting to work on my GCSE's and am studying Geography, physical education, electronic engineering and computing. I am hoping that these can contribute to my hobbies of computing, electronics, gaming ect. I am quite intelligent and mature for my age so please don't let the "14" put you off.

Hackforums has been a recent find for me and has really helped me in the online world, I recently made a thread about it. <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4395830>

I do hope you consider my application and I thank you very much for reading this.

Why I Should Be Accepted:

As I always seem to have free time, I feel that I am able to contribute more by joining a gaming group or clan, rather than just playing games on my own. Therefore I would be more than pleased to be a part of Instinct. But let me begin with an introduction about myself.

My name is Sirajuddin, but call me Sira. I'm a seventeen year old boy from Norway. I am studying application developer, pretty much just creating, coding and designing websites. I am currently studying HTML, PHP, CSS and in my next school year I will be studying Java - and much more. I've spent most of my spare time playing tons of games. Of course, I do have a job besides it. Luckily my job is not taking much time and I can continue playing the games I wish to play. I think this is one of the main reasons of why I am useful and a good additional in the gaming group.

My good skills and properties are that I am polite to everybody. Luckily I am never angry, not to anyone. Most of the time, I just laugh at the situation and step aside from it. I am also willing to help where I can help, such as guiding new gamers, give them some information, tips and so on.

Another good quality of mine is my ability to remain impartial when decision making, when I take up a role, I take pride in making choices I believe to be right and that are by the book, I have an attention to detail and want what's best for the group. I have a passion for gaming and creating stories and feel I'm an approachable person when it comes to asking for help. I would say I'm consistent in my ability to perform in a gaming position and more involved in leading by a good example in terms of game rules, good forum etiquette and being somebody who is friendly and approachable.

I do have one down-point, which is that I am disinterested fast. I want to do something. I can not just sit on a chair doing nothing, which I actually am doing in-real life. If you assign me a job to do, I will do it. To go in further on that, I am always doing my job as best I can. If I do something wrong, tell me, and I will correct it. As I wrote above, I am a quick learner and I do in fact learn from my mistakes. Not everybody does that.

Another negative side of me is that I can be confrontational if I don't have a resource to vent on. If I wasn't trying to keep myself calm and cool, I more than likely would've went hey-wire on that person, but I had someone to vent out my frustration on and that person made me feel better. After all these years in lead positions, it is something I'm getting very used to very fast and it's not exactly the most evident anymore.

I believe that I am dedicated yet not ignorant. For example, if someone feels a certain way about a situation, I'll allow them to explain whatever they're thinking and value their opinion. Though I am stable with my own beliefs, I'm extremely open-minded--a branch off of tolerance which is always a good thing for a gamer to have. As far as the dedication goes, it even expands out to tasks. If someone tells me to do something or even asks politely, I can do it without a problem and stick to that task until it's complete to one's satisfaction. This may sound nerdy, but I love to help out and do everything or anything I can. I believe that I'm extremely professional. I try to keep a calm and cool persona active at all times and I avoid most if not all arguments on the Internet. From the times I've been involved in an argument, I've managed to either push it aside or just let the other person dwell with whatever gratification they get from "winning" said argument. If I know I'm right about something, I trust myself, and I don't let that interfere with my professionalism.

I also don't let my gender get in the way of my judgement. Not only my gender, but my relationships. I feel as though I shouldn't even have to say this but I'm sure people are thinking it. I'll go more in-depth in the "bad sides" section of this application. I'm easy to communicate with and I can easily make people comfortable around me. This even goes as far as to have some people maybe...disclose a little too much about themselves to me regarding their personal life after a short time of knowing me which, as a very trustworthy person, I don't have a problem with, but it goes to show you. Because people are often comfortable around me, they tell me more or trust me more or befriend me and that kind of positive connection in the community (even if it's because of my gender) is always better than a circle of negativity!

I have tons of experience in leading/co-leading positions. I've played games such as Star Wars: The Old Republic, World of Warcraft, Runescape, Habbo, and a few more. Most of them, I've had leading positions in or have been the owner of a guild/moderator or administrator of a roleplay. I have never been removed from a staff position due to unprofessional behavior or something of that case. I've either requested to be taken off or the roleplay/guild/faction closed due to events that were entirely out of my control. Out of my six/seven years roleplaying, I'd say that a good two of those years were spent in a position of authority. More specifically, I've been a senior administrator in a SAMP roleplay known as Insomnia Roleplay, so I even have experience with San Andreas.

I am, in my own eyes, a responsible person. I accept the punishment for my reprehensible actions and I will acquiesce it if I made a wrong move. This is something not everybody does. Further into that again, I will accomplish whatever I have to achieve, especially if I have started doing it. I do not mind to spend some extra time on getting it accomplished, as long as I get it finished. My most defined personality trait is probably my hyperactivity as far as verbal interactions go. On Skype calls or in Teamspeak, I tend to loosen up around people I'm comfortable with; I laugh, I tell jokes, I talk loud and fast and I ultimately sacrifice a bit of professionalism in order to have a good time. It's something I'm toning down but it's still present. You can say that I am a fairly hard worker.

Everything in a nutshell:

- I am active and willing to contribute.
- I am coding HTML, PHP and CSS.
- I am a quick learner.
- I have a fair amount of spare time.
- I will do whatever I am told to do.
- I will put one hundred percent of effort in everything I am doing and everything I am going to do.

Most-Played Game: Probably League of Legends.

Primary Genre: FPS and strategy games. I play a bit of everything. League of Legends, CS:S, CS:GO, Civilization V, Hearthstone, TF2 and 40 games in total on my Steam account.

Why I Should Be Accepted: You should accept me because I'm a decent gamer. I've been playing since I was 6 years old and will keep playing and using my time on entertaining, challenging and funny games. I'm a huge gamer and computer fan. I've been trying alot of games on nearly every modern console. I have been a LoL gamer since the beta, CS:S for 7 years. You won't regret accepting me into the group, as I am a positive and nice person that keeps being high quality in any way. I've set smiles on faces since 2012 on HF and IRL too. Gaming is my thing, and I'm looking forward to possibly become a profesionnal gamer in the future. I am communicating / speaking while playing games, as it makes competitive gaming easier and makes it all better. What is a game if you are lonely and not having fun? Since I have had so much experience of so many years of gaming, I like using my knowledge and experience to help others. That's what makes humanity go round, help and generosity. I have been looking for gaming groups to open recruitment for a long time, so I'm taking the chance.

Thanks for reading and kind regards.

Why I Should Be Accepted:

Hello, My name is Select and i'm applying for instinct because I want to be dedicated to a group. I know I have gotten repfucked, but I dont think that is what matters.

Ever since I joined I try to be really high quality, which I have messed up sometimes along the way...

If anybody knows Dragscope that is who I got referred by xD and was a good friend until he left...

I have grown a lot and matured a lot Im not going to a little kiddy in a group :P

I play a lot of different types of game. I play minecraft and leagueoflegends or things like DayZ.

I like to think I am representing a example for new members...

My head is thinking right now half of these applications im looking at has no effort into it well this one is. :)

I may not have great grammar, but I think I have pretty decent grammar...

I don't ever really rage I just kinda laugh it off. Though, if it is soemthing that I care about I get sad :(

League of Legends I play all the time maybe we can hit it up and play together?

We could all play on steam together and meet up and play certain games I like or you like...

Maybe, I made bad decisions in the past with hackforums, but these few months I have changed.

I go through all these applications I see one dude make this huge long thread and then go to another recruitment obvious just trying to get into a group, and I actually want to be in the group there is gaming and things like that...

Minecraft I have played a lot I can bring some things they may not know.

I think I will be very active in the sub-forum... I think I post in the minecraft section like 5 times a day.

I know it may not seem it is very long, but I think all of it is high quality.

I don't see no reason to make so many paragraphs just dragging it on about stuff you said in the first sentence...

Why I Should Be Accepted: I think I should be accepted because i played alot of games, and tbh theres nothing else i really do besides having fun with friends and gaming. Like im addicted too it and cant stop it. I will even play games i dont like. Im mostly a CoD/Fifa gamer but I would like to play all games, just because out of boredom. I think I am a decent HQ user.. I think im pretty good in CoD with a kd of 2.1 average, on fifa my record is 257-5-68 which is a great record in my opinion, I can play decent on any platform aswell. I can be active in the group and help people out with problems. I am trying to be as most friendly as I can and try to help people. I've always been interested in gaming and I always WILL. Like, i'm gonna be honest with you and it may sound weird but its true. I can even confirm ive started on my 3 years interested in this, this is what my mom told me. Like when she or my dad would sit on the computer or my dad would play games (gameboy or something) i would always watch him play cause i was amazed by those things and I still am. I am one of the biggest fans of gaming and I guess my passion for gaming will never go away. I think gaming in general is an awesome thing to do, no matter what anyone says. Its just a complete package of setting your mind on something else, having a good laugh, playing with friends etc. Atm im a big fan of the CoD series and the fifa series but i have played DayZ, Minecraft, Battlefield, LoL. I played so many games. Its just my life u could say hehe. Like im not the type of guy that does this just for joining a group. I actually love gaming. Most-Played Game: I have a most played game on various platforms, I will state which one for each: Xbox: Halo Franchise/Titanfall, Playstation: Call of Duty & Assassin's Creed Franchises, Wii:

Mario Cart, PC Gaming: LoL & APB Reloaded & Watchdogs and of course, STARCRAFT!

Primary Genre: Personally prefer shooting games, however, roleplay and games such as league are up at the top aswell.

Why I Should Be Accepted: I personally think I should be accepted due to my passion for gaming. I have been gaming since I was 5, on my little gameboy, but now I am actively gaming and it is a hobby of mine. I believe I can contribute good and creative threads for the group as well as join in daily conversation about games and tournaments that the group holds. I used to be in Instinct before the re-work happened with the various sectors, and it was an amazing group to be apart of! Loved all the gamers and gaming talk that was discussed in the SF! I also have a competitive aspect about myself and love to host matches and tournaments for giveaways, I could possibly do this for Instinct as well! I'm a chilled back person who loves to have a good laugh and have fun gaming with mates, Instinct was a great fit for this.

Why Do I Have a Passion For Gaming?: Gaming to me is much more than a hobby, it is a passion. I love just turning on my Xbox or PC and being able to connect to a whole different world. I've been through some rough times in life, and gaming was just a way to forget about my issues and get some enjoyment even when my life was pretty shitty. Gaming grows on you, and you are actively seeking the secrets that each individual game holds. For halo it was the Skulls and the crazy ideas you could come up with in Forge mode. For COD it was the rush of Search and Destroy and the last couple seconds to make a game changing play. For Assassin's Creed it was the customization and free roam ability that made it so rewarding and fun to play. And mario cart was for the lulz. Either way gaming has just grown to be apart of my life and I love the fact that it is because it is a secondary getaway from life when times are rough or you just feel bored!

Thanks For Reading.

Regards. ? ?

MMORPG - FPS

I've been playing video games for as long as I can remember, I've grown up playing video games. Ever since I got my first Gameboy Advanced I was hooked on to this blissful moment. I had started off playing Pokemon, then I had further branched out into Zelda, and others. Lets fast forward a few years, I got my first Nintendo DS, I envisioned it as one of the coolest things I had ever witnessed. I had heaps of games, Mario Kart, Pokemon, Mario Party, Neopets, and the list goes on. I was eleven years old, I was gifted my first Xbox 360. My initial reaction was of joy, I was in awe as I had wanted one for a while. I had started playing games such as Halo, and Call of Duty, this is the point where I was really enjoying my gaming experience. My parents gave me my first laptop at the young age of thirteen, this was when I had started playing League of Legends. I was hooked on this game easily, I started getting into more and more mmorpg's. I had stayed up all hours of the night trying to learn more and more about League of Legends, extending my knowledge in champions and builds. Now, I'm 17 and I still do what I had loved since I was a kid, game.

Gaming has been a big part of my life, whether I'm playing for fun or playing to win. Gaming has cheered me up, whenever I was stressed out or sad. I've devoted a chunk of my life to gaming, I attend generally most PAX events, and a few MLG events. Occasionally I will compete in competitive events such as LAN parties locally. I'm also participating in a few teams in Call of Duty: Ghosts, Black Ops 2, Modern Warfare 2, and an account on GameBattles.

I have met most of my closest friends over the internet, specifically in games. Friends that you can count on even though you don't know them outside of a game. Gaming can change your life, bad or worse, it has changed mine for the better. I plan on going to college for game design, and I only need a few more credits in high school. I'm quite excited to start developing games, for my personal joy and for the entertainment of others.

In conclusion, I think that gaming is awesome. People can say what they want about gamers, "Oh! You play games? You must have no life!". I don't care if I am made fun of, I like to have fun playing games, and I love doing it. Thanks for taking the time to read my application.

Why I Should Be Accepted

I think I should be accepted because I'm a very dedicated gamer with a passion for games.
I try to have as much fun as I can with any possible game I come across / play.
I'm very friendly towards other players / friends.
I treat my friends like family and love having friends around me.
I create a great environment to be in , I make the best out of any situation.
I try to calm anyone who has rage quit and strive to come back better and stronger.
I've been a member of HF since April now , but have been gaming since I was around 6 when I first got my playstation 2
I'm just an all round lover of games

Gaming Platforms: PC, used to have an Xbox

Most-Played Game: League of Legends

Primary Genre: MOBA

Why I Should Be Accepted: I should be accepted cause I am a major gaming enthusiast. I starting gaming when I was young on my friends ps1 when we would play sonic and pokemon games. I then transitioned on to club penguin, where I had all the swagger and was picking up chicks left and right. Pretty much my entire life I've played games, and majority of my posts on this forum relate to the League of Legends section in which I have offered a free referral bot to members. So not only do I have club penguin, sonic, pokemon swagger, but I know my shit and I like to talk about stuff when it comes to LoL. Also.. I use to play Cod. ALOT.

As for a demonstration, I can provide my services with referrals towards group members for free. Cause I'm really nice like that.

In all seriousness though, pretty much right now my whole life is dedicated to gaming, Hearthstone, LoL, TF2. No girlfriend, nothing. If I'm not gaming I'm talking about gaming or creating or cracking tools for gaming or ANYTHING to do with gaming. You could say gaming has taken over my life.

Why I Should Be Accepted:

I've been a member of Instinct in the past, therefore I'm familiar with how the group works. I'm simply looking to be welcomed back in and make sure my activity is kept to a high standard.

I enjoy sharing gaming experiences with other users, I'm always looking to play too. I am also able to get involved in the sub-forum, I know the group mainly revolves around the activity in it's SF. I'll make sure that my activity and retention of posts is of an above-acceptable standard, therefore I'll never face the same removal as I have in the past.
