Thread: Shut down this dumb slut

So there's this girl that is obsessed with me and I definitely know as she is pretty straight forward.. Yeah like most sluts.. Anyway so we're watching T.V. and she's on the phone texting this dude. She kept talking about how cute these messages were (Dude was a fucking cheeseball telling her the most cliché bs ever, made me cringe) so I'm a little angry over her doing that, I hate when dumb bitches talk about other dudes when there's a possibility we are going to hook up, pisses me off like no other. She kept going on and on about this dude so I basically moved to the other side of the couch and stared at my phone, obviously as a slut she was all over me still so I stood up right when she got close and said I had to go. Shut her the fuck down. Felt better than the sloppy bj I could've gotten.

Man that sucks. Bitches like that are no fun.

You need a bad bitch off the corner and coax her to give you free service.

Oh no, I absolutely feel the pain brutha. Bitches need to learn to shut the phone off or get the fuck out.

Man, just an ordinary hoe seeking attention. Don't let someone as low as her get you worked up.

One time I was drunk and this sober chick approached me when I was depressed over past relationship with another girl, telling me how I can do "so much better" and how I should "move on". She kept massaging my body and putting her head on my shoulder asking me if I was down to hook up... I refused.

Bitches are all the same, you should know that from now.

It looks bad to rush into a hookup after a breakup, trust me.

The worst is when girls tease you and then don't come through in the end

She isn't worth it if shes telling you about some other guys sloppy bullshit and then is all over you. I would stay away from this slut. She would most likely cheat.
