Thread: How can I monetize my ewhoring facebook profiles without getting flagged/banned?

Rogue Cypher - August 8, 2014, 11:23 am

It's so easy to build up the freinds list with guys almost on auto but as soon as I try and put dating offers in there, for instance even trying to make it seem under the radar like 'guys if you wanna chat just signed up to x', then they get mad and must report me cos i get banned in 24 hours wehn I do that.

Im wondering how I can capitalize on this without getting banned?

Ideas?

I'm thinking maybe make some neutral/shitty hobby she is into and make a website with some content of said hobby, and say to the guys id really like for them to take a look at it. Then have adsesne or something on there?

your idea is actually really good.

you can also try to make a tumblr for your ewhore.

but if you have nfw content on your website, forget adsense..

maybe try ppd? offer a video, picture pack!

cpalead allows adult content

That probably would work. Say you are interested in cooking or something and say there is a little "present" in there if they click on it.

This, CPA/PPD the site. Offer 'some' free pics/vids but tell them you have a whole collection of all the pics/vids you've ever taken. Tell them its like 6months worth of images and videos, say one of the videos is like a 45min fucking session with a random guy or something. They'll soon be completing offers or actually buying your pack in no time.

BTW, I do not ewhore myself. I just know a lot of guys who do and 1 guy I remember speaking to specialized in facebook ewhoring and got gifts and money all the time, he showed me live on webcam a parcel that come for him (her lol) that morning, he opened it on the cam in front of me and it had a card inside with a poem to his ewhore name and then an iphone5s as the present simply because it was his ewhores bday.

Cool, thanks for suggestions.

Ill give it a go.

Lol I just had a psised off 'potential suiter' pasting pictures of text convoes of my ewhore and him, where my bot must have not caught the hook to stop replying and ended up sending all messages to him agian and he pasted it all over my facebook saying im a fake :D.

Oops!

Quickly deleted those badboys.

You're idea sounds pretty good to be honest. Having said this, in my opinion there are better techniques to capitalize on the huge monetization opportunity that Facebook provides. I have earned a fair amount of money over the last 2 months using techniques I found in the e-book "The Social Jackpot". If anyone's interested feel free to pm me and/or click my signature which will take you to the e-book.

What's with all the obvious flea market sales pitches on this forum?
