Best of luck everyone. The group has a ton of great members sparking good discussion. ?

I'm already permanently blacklisted from a few of the new ones for being overly aggressive in my application strategy. You might as well go ahead and make a preemptive strike.

Obli - August 9, 2014, 12:02 am

I will definitely apply, but not for the userbar even though I am a BIG fan of the smudging. Really, best of luck with L'appel du vide.

FlexiN - August 9, 2014, 12:04 am

Im extremely interested in learning and sharing my knowledge in the listed subjects. When next month rolls around you can expect me in the recruitment thread. Until then. Ill be waiting ;D

Sickkk - August 9, 2014, 2:55 am

From my knowledge of being in the group I must say that it is an intelligent group with sophisticated and knowledgeable members who know what they're talking about.

Hopefully I'll get in when the month comes around.

Would you mind sharing what the requirements will be, or do we have to wait until September 1st?

I'm very interested in science and philosophy, so this group would be perfect for me. I love talking with like-minded individuals who are interested in having intellectual conversations. I can't wait until the recruitment process starts. Thanks for offering an academic group.

This is the end, my only friend. The end.

We are L'appel du vide.

A group of sophisticated individuals, we hold our own. A standard that has yet to be defined, we continue our advance towards infinity. While some dust may linger in our wake, swiftly it will be swept aside. No longer will mediocrity be standard while we exist.

Open recruitment will be held beginning next month. September 1st will be the start of something new, but something so familiar. I will begin the final steps in the completion of L'appel du vide.

Subjects that are covered extensively within L'appel du vide are as follows:

Science

Religion

Philospohy

Politics

Psychology

Art

Movies and Television

Literature

Music

World Current Events

Emotional Expression

Every member within our group is assigned a certain rank. Each rank corresponds with multiple types of requirements. Such as posts in and out of the group subforum, character count minimum, weekly discussion threads, and more. Yes activity is forced, but in such a way that for the greater good.

The current member base has a month to prove itself to me before I began my reign of terror against my members. I plan to reduce my group to roughly 100 members prior to recruitment. If my members can prove they deserve the right to stay, they will be allowed.

Our current member stats and leaders

Prior to recruitment, our blacklist will be made public. Our blacklist is ran by our members with completely anonymity in regards to their status to the community. If you see yourself on the blacklist, assume I put you there. If you wish to still join L'appel du vide while on the blacklist, expect to go through extensive requirements. I owe no promises to anyone, and I have no obligations to fill.

Let's have some fun with this.

You turn around and life's passed you by
You look to ones you love to ask them why?

Please see <https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=1093970> for information regarding graphics.

You know, you should learn proper spelling and grammar if you want to pride yourself as "epitome of intelligence", as something like that shouldn't be hard for "sophisticated individual" like yourself.

I don't even care about other people's grammar and spelling too much, I am not grammar nazi who attacks every post which has mistakes, but it was hilarious and ironic how you pride yourself as someone highly above mediocrity, yet have so much trouble with basic English. It just seems way too ironic to me. Hopefully I don't need to point out those mistakes, and you can double read your post and spot them. If not, ask one of your other "sophisticated" colleagues to help you with that.

Oh and in before -rep from you or one/couple of your "sophisticated" colleagues for toying with you. But I guess after I mentioned this you are going to try and play it cool. Or ignore the message. Or thank me. Of course if I wouldn't have mentioned this, more than likely you would've picked the 1st option. Then again, after saying all this, you might try and play it bold, by still going for 1st option.

What type of false dichotomy are you attempting?

If you are going to attempt to call someone out, do it right.

08-09-2014, 02:46 AM. That was the time the thread was created. I hope you do realize that happens to be late at night. I am certainly not exempt from making mistakes, and being the time it was only encouraged that. Granted, I am now making edits on 8/11, have you are considered that I work for a living? My free time is spent with my family, work, other situations that don't relate to HF in anyway, and then any time left I have is dedicated to this lovely forum. After I finish responding to your poor attack on me, I will scour through my ramblings. I think my post history can attest to my overzealous activity on this forum as of recent.

As for options like I previously stated, take my -3 I'm going to give you and shove it so far up your ass you spit red.

I just went through the post, are you full of shit or just can't accept stylistic changes?

The only glaring issue I noticed with my text is I put "began" instead of "begin".

Oh, such is the life.

What an entitled brat. Wow. You work. Welcome to adult's world, most people who can find jobs work. Most people have families and spend time with them. Did you just seriously state things most people do and wanted to take some sort of credit for that? As if you do something so special that barely anyone else does? No one forced you to post it at night. Besides it doesn't even matter considering you just proof read and missed most mistakes except one.

The point of this is, like I am going to say below - you are dissing mediocrity, think of yourself as epitome of intelligence, yet can't write simple sentences correctly. If you want to pretend to be an intellectual, can you try at least? Because now your thread is a perfect example of irony.

Quote:The only glaring issue I noticed with my text is I put "began" instead of "begin". Please refer to my first post then, because there's a lot more than just that.

Hint: it's "complete anonymity", not "completely anonymity". Like I said in my 1st post, please try harder finding other mistakes.

Quote:If you are going to attempt to call someone out, do it right. Calling you out? That's not what I did. I ridiculed you. And I did it correctly. You are the one who is a wannabe intellectual, dissing all the average folk trying to look cool, and yet can't even write basic English sentences.

And this one was hilarious - "Fuck off you little twat" on my rep. Thanks for that, these childish remarks just prove that everything I said about you is true. Wannabe intellectual. Not a way even your so called "mediocre" people would behave in such situations. So what does that make you?

You should be the first person on that blacklist of yours, if you truly want to form a real group of intellectuals.

(Aug 11, 2014 07:02 AM)Curt. Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) To the above, before you start calling people out on there spellings make sure yours are perfect because after having a glance through your recent posts, they aren't. I guess you didn't even bother reading my posts. So please don't comment on them. If you would've read them, you would clearly understand that I never said my grammar and spelling is even anywhere close to perfect, nor do I pride myself as an epitome of intelligence.

However OP does. Try reading his thread, all that wannabe intellectual bullshit, how he implies that he is a standard for intellectuals and won't tolerate mediocrity. By being so oblivious the least he could do is use correct grammar and spell right, that shouldn't be so hard, judging from what he wrote about himself, his group and its goal. Right?

So actually yes, ridiculing OP was extremely necessary. He should bring his wannabe fantasies down a notch, because reading that ridiculous post about him being an epitome of intellectuality, written with ridiculous grammar and spelling was so ironic that it just HAD to be pointed out.

Vouch for this user. Very HQ, very helpful, and without a doubt the friendliest member on Hack Forums.

If you would like to discuss application progress, or have questions please use this thread instead of the recruitment thread. The recruitment thread is for applications only.

Raptor - December 17, 2014, 3:50 pm

When will we be added by or declined?! How will you be adding people, will it be adding as you go, or will you add people all at once?

Any light shone on these questions would be much appreciated!

I actually work at a movie theater so this could be interesting.

As Raptor already asked I'm also interested in information when will be decided who get's in. Will you announce them?

Also I know that you don't usually give feedback to those who apply but if I don't ask to much I would like to get a personal feedback either from you Hexicidal or someone from group who was reviewing my application.

It is kind of strange to me to just post application and no one don't even respond. But it is nice that you made this thread.

I hope that you will reconsider about feedback on my application. You can do it via PM or in this thread, whatever you like. But I would like to know.

Thank you in advance! ?

I've never seen this thread before!

Well, time to share my two cents; hopefully I get the opportunity into L'appel du vide, I'm sure it would be an amazing joy.

I am in this group and I can vouch for everything in this thread. It's a great group and anyone looking for a nice group for discussions should become a part of it.

Poor profile taste, e.g., drugs extreme sexualization, horror.

I guess that counts me out. I could refute by saying that the use of some drugs do not necessarily point to bad taste. Some of us like to expand our perspective on things that the sober mind cannot comprehend or at least most cannot. I think I would be a good fit for the group but won't apply as you've clearly stated that drug use is poor taste. Nevertheless I think this is a cool group and I wish it the best.

I don't have a set date for application acceptance, but I will go through it soon. I will add groups of individuals at once.

I will post on the recruitment thread that I have accepted the members that will be added and that if you were declined you can delete the application and try again.

If you want, you can link your application here and ask a member to review it and offer feedback on how you may improve. Honestly, depending on my mood I will let you know if I would or would not accept the application as is.

I will go take a look at it in a little.

You're actually fine if you want to apply. I don't think you represent yourself poorly. It's only for users who lack the maturity to represent ideas in a way that it actually benefits the idea. If you get what I mean.

That's great to hear. I was really into trying to get into this group. I think this group will weed out those who really do not have any insight into this world. I like the idea of this group because it focuses on the ideals of the member and their view of the world. It promotes free thinking and intellectual debate. I don't know if I have what it takes to get in but I plan to really put some thought into my application.

Just wondering if anyone has been put in the last couple of days or so?

I know it's the holidays so I understand everyone is busy and the last thing people want to do is read apps all day.

I haven't added anyone as of recently.

ZerFallen - February 23, 2015, 3:04 pm

Are you planning on accepting or declining applications soon? I only ask because there hasn't been much activity on this thread.

NieR - March 2, 2015, 7:43 am

Hi, I recently reapplied and I was wondering when you will be going through applications again.

WizeVibez - March 2, 2015, 5:41 pm

For everyone wondering:

I talked to Hex earlier about new recruits, he said he will pick very soon. :)

GL to all applicants, hopefully I get in myself :P
