Thread: DON'T SELL YOUR SKYPES PUBLICLY.

Glubz - August 12, 2014, 8:01 am

Yes, you heard, Skype are literally banning/suspending accounts that are being sold on here. A few really sick ones of mine were banned, also my good friends one was banned. Sadly, I only have a few decent ones left but I don't think there's anyway of getting them back, except if you know the OG information on them which I didn't.

DON'T SELL THEM PUBLICLY!?

Cam - August 12, 2014, 8:02 am

You think Skype staff are literally coming here to ban them? Or somebody reporting them in?

Bro? - August 12, 2014, 8:03 am

It is more likely someone is reporting the accounts.

But it is possible, some companies prob have been on here before and banned accounts

Autononymous - August 12, 2014, 8:04 am

There are probably LQ Microsoft staff here snooping around..

MX-5 - August 12, 2014, 8:06 am

So is it possible to pretend I am selling OG skype that someone else has so it gets banned?

Not like I would do that.

That's exactly what I've though about with all those OG and YouTube accounts.

They shouldn't really ban account just beacuse someone is pretending to sell them.

Glubz - August 12, 2014, 8:10 am

Guys another one of my friends accounts was just banned, this fucking sucks.

'Verdict - August 12, 2014, 8:10 am

Oh is that why my account got banned? oh for fuck sakes.

adampelletgun - August 12, 2014, 8:10 am

It's a well known fact that there are people who report accounts that get sold here.

PM me if you got any skypes willing to pay $65 btc lol I'll help you get it back if you want, add my Skype: &*&ADF899ASDFF90D90SDFDF

I'LL BE STARRING THAT SHIT OUT IN A SEC LOL.

IJigsawI - August 12, 2014, 10:05 am

If they are banning them, then it's just gonna make the skype market go up

You are quite correct, it'll also make it more risky too.

Examplesze - August 12, 2014, 12:08 pm

damn that sucks man you lost some sick skype names :D

Eternal. - August 12, 2014, 12:11 pm

Thanks for giving me a new method of banning peoples accounts. Gonna become a millionaire selling this method.

Maximum - August 12, 2014, 12:48 pm

I sense that it's just jealous kids that are going around here and reporting these skypes being sold just like what happened to gamertags, tumblrs, instagrams, and youtubes.

Message me a list of your accounts along with the information I'll request from you and I'll happily get them unbanned for you without problem as long as they meet my very few, but critical requirements.

I've gotten many accounts unbanned with little to no effort as long as they met my limited circumstances in many cases like these.

Give me a message and I'll see what I can do ^o^

You can do a simple Google search and find any social media account being sold.
