Note: If you get less than 300 likes on a picture at your first time, I recommend trying again. Usually their servers are over-loaded at some times.

Please edit your Privacy Settings in Facebook for this to work, allow people to look at your profile and strangers to like and comment!

Surprised? Try it by your own! Please leave if a vouch if this helped you in anyway, and satisfy my hunger!

I have an E-book version of this if you need it (Made by Me), PM me for further details.

Until next time! Peace!

Thanks! Huge vouch for this method!

Talu - August 15, 2014, 4:37 pm

Looks pretty good, thanks for the share.

chucky247 - August 15, 2014, 5:25 pm

Works for the most part... but im only getting around 200ish likes when I use not the 1000+ that it claims and there is a 15 minute wait every time you use so you have to wait 15 minutes to try and get more likes on that status

Lol this is the simplest argument...which doesn't prove anything... You are supposed to take it down asap...or only this thread going to be panic for you lol..
And link me his profile...

(I am not threatening you...just letting you know... Then as ur wish and I WILL go ahead...)

Ah sorry, I didn't know you liked arguments. Well then, let's have a walk shall we?

Okay so first of all, you said "OP leeches my ebook" I didn't "leech" your ebook. How am I even supposed to leech your ebook. That's the most self sided statement I have ever seen. I mean come on. This is made from my postimg account. I took Gyazo images and pasted them. I'm pretty sure a guy called Saad Muzaffar isn't there who agreed to show the like proof. Now, is there? So this statement is COMPLETELY invalid on your side. This shows how you think that this "method" (Only a few clicks) is apparently yours because apparently you googled it and now you think it's yours.

Now you say that you own this method. Now this is even more self sided than the last statement. This is a god damn website made by a collaboration of brilliant Pakistani minds in order to make a simple website for one reason. To generate likes. You do not, and I repeat DO NOT own this method. AT ALL, if the base of your argument is owning this method. I suggest you delete all of your posts on this topic immediately. Because you aren't going to go nowhere with that.

Now your link over here doesn't say anywhere that you made this website or you "found out" the method. This method has been there for a LONG amount of time and you didn't as hell make it. So this thing is completely baseless.

I don't even know where to start on this one. Fucking hell, THIS ebook? Which ebook? This is not even a fucking ebook this is a collaboration of images and text this is not an ebook. Why do you even think this is an ebook is out of my mind.

(Aug 16, 2014 02:34 PM)?Anonload? Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Thread and OP reported.

Apparently I'm reported here and also my thread has been too for APPARENTLY doing something which he did for money which is supposed to be completely FREE and he has NO rights to monetizing it as he DIDNT make the website.

If you did report me? What's left? Stabbing me? This clearly shows that you yourself are so insecure that you didn't even report me and are just trying to make this go freely because you know you'll lose. This too shows how much self minded you are.

So, in the end, you liked arguments, well there you go. Here's a full page of arguments. Good luck complaining to people about something which doesn't even make sense to complain about.

Have a VERY great day, (And don't sleep on English class)

TheyCallMeFox - August 20, 2014, 2:41 pm

I got 0 likes for some reason... xD I will try once more i guess.

KingJam - August 21, 2014, 7:06 am

This looks like a cool method. I will try this later on!

TheyCallMeFox - August 21, 2014, 1:04 pm

Its not working for me , i tried like 3 times. Got 0 likes.

OIAle - August 22, 2014, 4:48 am

Cool stuff, but it doesn't work for me, idk why :/

eSC phr34k - August 23, 2014, 10:51 am

I got 200 likes.. thats low -.- now must be wait 15 minutes..
are you kidding?

Core i5 - March 13, 2016, 9:14 am

This actually still does work, if anyone wants to try.
