Today I will be teaching you about Clipping Masks.

Clipping masks can be used to make images like this signature I have made.

The first thing you need to do is have the text you want to apply the mask to.

Now that you have the text, find a picture that you will use to mask the text with.

Place the picture in the layer above your text.

Right click the picture layer and select "Create Clipping Mask"

Done! Simple as that.

Nice tutorial! It was easy.

I'm new to photoshop and started this morning.

I am still trying to learn more about masks, once I have a greater knowledge of them I will post a tutorial about them.
