EDIT: Changed his name. Thought he could get away.

I have to this since some kids are making community alerts and mine was the first one. has many open scam reports, and is believed to be on a scamming spree. DWC.

Thanks for opening up an alert. Lets hope he gets dealt with. Also J can you also put his UID in the heading so that way if any users encounter him and decide to look him so they can find this thread and all his other scam reports

Edit# also please put a direct link to his profile in the thread

Yeah indeed, at first I wasn't going to make a report, but since I wanted to leave a rep on him, I had to.

Thanks for making the community alert OP, hope this will make members notice.
