Alright boys whip out your waifus and clench your body pillows that much tighter. It is time for Anime Adventures to decide who is the best of the best as your favorite female anime / manga characters duke it out in a competition decided by you, the viewers.

This competition will consist of female characters nominated by AA members. The nomination period will consist of five days. Five days from when this is posted I will close the thread and begin the grouping phase. The number of groups will depend on the amount of nominations we have. I will create a thread for the group phase which will consist of a poll for the female characters that are nominated. The winners will advance. This process will continue until we are down to the the final victor.

At the moment there is no limit to the amount of entries one person can submit.

This is true and you made a mighty fine pick. Also, she's the only one I've ever seen that can pull off green hair.

Hey Katsurou, don't you think it would be a good idea to have like a short description as to why we think they are the best? I guess this could be implemented in the later "rounds" to make the decision process easier.

I ask this because I haven't watched all the anime that these fine ladies are in; therefore I have no idea what makes them "best girl" material. Some of their MAL descriptions aren't very detailed and I bet they don't highlight what the original poster likes about them.
