Just wanted to shout out to the many members that sent me gifts for my Birthday.

Those are the many items sent to me from my Amazon Wishlist. Also plenty of generous donations for booze and a night out on the town. Obviously my time is short today as I don't plan on spending the day on HF. But I wanted to give a big thank you to the many members who were kind in sending me a birthday present. Thank you so very much. It means a lot to me.

I'm 44 today. I must admit there are some mornings that I feel my age. Overall though I'm a healthy and active guy and I've been going to the gym regularly as well as the doctor to do regular checkups.

HF continues to move forward and while I'm getting older many of you are simply growing up and becoming adults. HF is now over 7 years old. Members who joined in their teens are now in college, having their own children, and working toward careers. It's pretty cool imho.

I get lots of great feedback on how HF has changed lives. It's also changed mine and I don't ever forget that. I'm very blessed to have this community. Through each days struggle I learn to be a better person.

Thank you, thank you all.

Well it's a Monday so it's not super exciting but I'm gonna have some family time later on. I was mostly offline Friday and Saturday as I was hanging out with friends for some unofficial bday celebrating. Had a friend die on Wednesday so we had a hard time celebrating though.

Thank God, I literally predicted an hour ago that some kid would make another account, act big, say a bunch of shit and act tough.

Look, kiddo, you must be real bored with life that you're posting this and taking the time to make several accounts, to what, get banned again? I highly recommend getting plastic surgery, then changing your name and identity and trying life again, this time make real life friends instead of sit in front of a computer, because you put more effort into making a second account than the click or two staff members do to ban you. Honestly, you guys are pretty inconsiderate. You don't know when to stop, hell when it's not appropriate.

I hope you enjoy the comics and I've been enjoying the ones you suggested to me :)

I gotta admit, it is cool to see HF shape some users, I've had the effect in a clan I've been in for 6 years, when we started we were young teens and now we are all working and moving on to other parts of the world.

I gotta admit, HF helped me learn the skills needed to host my many projects that counted as my experience for the job I applied for and got. Without the skills to build what I wanted and do what I needed to do, I'd not of got any experience and college would of been a waste.

Not only a thank you to you Omni but a thank you to the HF community. There's shitty dark corners of cunts on this forum but there are also shining bright passageways to a better future as well. The white hat help section would be an example of that.

Don't drink too much, any spare booze - you can feel free to send it over and I'll spend a night on the whiskey ;)

Wrong forum Omniscient, this should have been posted in lounge.

This section is only for rules, announcements, and feedbacks. Birthday threads go in the lounge.

We recommend that you take time to read our Help Docs next time before posting.

Anyways I wish you a very happy birthday.

Ombra - August 19, 2014, 7:04 am

What is a prostate exam like? (assuming you've had one)
Seriously, it sounds scary O.o

Having a stranger stick his hand up my pooper...

?lien - August 19, 2014, 11:22 am

Omni, I meant to post a Happy Birthday wish the other day and I got caught up in some other tasks. I know it's a little late now but happy birthday and I hope you had an amazing day! The gifts given to you from the HF community were amazing, I should have bought you something as well. It's been awhile since I sent you anything; I'll have to check out your Amazon wish list again soon.

?KyoZ? - August 19, 2014, 6:06 pm

I rereaded this part 5 times.

HF continues to move forward and while I'm getting older many of you are simply growing up and becoming adults. HF is now over 7 years old. Members who joined in their teens are now in college, having their own children, and working toward careers. It's pretty cool imho.

I get lots of great feedback on how HF has changed lives. It's also changed mine and I don't ever forget that. I'm very blessed to have this community. Through each days struggle I learn to be a better person. "

I'm late. Yes i know, hope you had a great B'day!

-KyoZ
