1) Why I should be selected to win:

Because I'm a very active member on HF, And I run my own Graphics shop. It's starting to get very popular and I enjoy doing this beside my Graphics Study, I'm doing Graphics Design for over 5 years now and I want to get every design out as good as I can imagine. *Maybe because I'm very active and also the first one posting on this? ?

2) What would It mean to me:

It would be a huge accomplishment for me to get UB3R and be more active on HF to try and make it as fun and as enjoyable as I can. I would also be able to get my Graphics Shop even more popular.

I am sorry, but no. This contest is specifically for normal and L33t members to have a chance at an upgrade. We could possibly do some sort of contest for all members, including Ub3rs, in the future.

Also-- Although all entrants are free to submit by answering the questions however they like, please be advised that it is highly unlikely you will be a finalist if you put what appears to be a 30-60 second effort into your submission.

But if you use comedy like i did in my posts it will get you far in life.

Except for college.

Can you do ub3r to epic? Or ub3r gets gift award?

Vip?r - August 18, 2014, 4:32 pm

My entry for L33T:

First of all I'd like to thank the Phoenix group for this opportunity.

1) Why I should be selected to win?

Well, I joined about half a year ago and I really like this community.

I started out by mostly reading about hacking and learned many things that fascinated me.

My first thread was giving out a big list of proxies, most ended up being dead though.

As time went on I became more and more active.

I started posting in the Smartphone section trying to help other users who had trouble with their iPhones.

One day while browsing hackforums, I came across the Anime Adventures section which welcomed me with open arms.

I started posting a lot there and became an active member.

I have created a couple of programs for anime which I posted in the section for free.

Also I frequently visit the free graphics request section and help with whatever I can.

I have made several free signatures and profiles for other users and currently working on one.

In the past, I had tried to make a sales thread for youtube but sadly it failed because I am an unknown/untrusted user since I was new.

If I had leet I would give a lot of positive reps to the people who were nice to me and who I believe deserves it.

Currently I am trying to give back to the users of hackforums by doing a giveaway.

I am giving free omnicoins to all members regardless of their status.

I plan on building up, becoming more active and more trusted.

I like this site because I have made many new friends and learned a lot of things.

What would it mean to you to win?

Winning this contest would actually mean quite a lot to me.

I currently don't have the money to upgrade myself because I am not old enough to get a job.

Becoming leet would give me several benefits and would make me very happy.

I hope you enjoyed reading this and I hope I have a chance to win.

Thank you very much for this contest and good luck to the other entries.

Edit: Just sexyfied my post :)

Aurora - August 18, 2014, 4:32 pm

Why should you be selected to win?

I personally think out of all the people that are entering, I shouldn't be selected to win. I know there are other people out there that deserve this upgrade more than me. They have done their best by contributing to HF, helping out, all sorts of good actions. I, however, also try my best as a member here on HackForums to help others when in need, to give back as much as possible, and do whatever I can to benefit the community. Whenever I see a thread asking for help or any kind of question, I do my best to answer it to the best of my ability. Whether it's emotional support, love advice/tips, relationship questions/problems, money, gaming, all sorts. There isn't one topic I tend to stay at when it comes to answering questions and helping out those in need. I answer a variety of topics, that I have knowledge/experience in, to help out those who need the answer. This is probably my main way of trying to be beneficial for the community.

Besides assisting those by answering questions, I also try to provide a service here that goes beyond the limits of helping people out. I've made a multi-service thread that allows pretty much anyone to request a service within the OP, and I'll do my best to complete it. It may not be a great way to give back, but I believe it is helping those who need it. I limit the requested service people can ask so that others may have the chance to get the same service that I'm providing. To be honest with you, I don't mind serving those I've previously served before. I allow from time to time those who I've previously served to come again to request for more of my services. There's not really a "come here once, leave, don't come back" kind of thing going on here. If you need a service to be completed, I'm here to do that for you.

What would it mean to you to win?

It would mean a lot to me if I win this upgrade contest. Though if I don't win, that's completely fine with me. It doesn't stop me from doing what I like to do here at HackForums, which is helping others. A rank is just a rank, but what you do under that rank is what's important. For example, you could be a non-upgraded member, puts all his/her effort into helping out, giving back as much, you're consider a great and helpful member. A benefactor to the community. It's really what you do, not what you have. That's what I always have in mind when I'm on HackForums or pretty much anywhere.

Sorry for a long post. The two questions you've provided gave me the need to elaborate more on my answers. Thank you for taking the time to read my post. I don't expect you to choose me as I know there are other members who need this too. And for everyone keep this in mind please, remember a rank is just a rank, what you do with it is what's important.

neil5050 - August 18, 2014, 5:14 pm

Why should I win

I been contributing tons of tuts to the High quality hf community. And been helping several members in the hf community. A few Examples of tuts I have created.

1. bypass mobile security on facebook

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4057838>

2. facebook trick to mass post on people's walls without them finding out you did it and they can't block it either.

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4276920>

3. Facebook redirect vulnerability

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4005910>

4. Facebook destroy timeline and crash mobile users (patched)

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4056089>

5. Upload gifs into facebook (2014)

6. Facebook people to log off of facebook

10. Aug 2014 -> post gifs on profile on facebook

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4380533>

and several members on hf have verified these tuts worked on the thread upon releasing them.

I have helped some members via skype when they were lost. On hf almost every day trying to see if I can learn something new. I never tried to scam anyone etc. And it would be really awesome if you selected me to win ub3r (which i got accepted already).

What will it mean to me to win? Well, I think just being ub3r is awesome. Plus I get to plus 3 people which will be even more awesome.

Kodo - August 18, 2014, 5:55 pm

Why should I be selected to win?

I'm a decent member. When and were possible I try to help people. I contribute to the HF community, I bring products to the market place, and complete orders there.

What would it mean to me to win?

I would be happy because I'd be able to put a rank on my account showing that I'm not a low quality user or member trying to scam in the market place. I'd also like it because then I'd get more respect than I do because most members on here abuse regular users and it's a fact.

I'm not going to try to insert a load of bull for you here saying I would do this and that what I stated above is all I have to say.

Thanks for letting me join your contest, Alien. You're not a bad guy.

?lien - August 18, 2014, 5:58 pm

I fixed the original post as it had an error. Entries are accepted until Friday the 22nd at 12pm EST. Looking good so far, everyone.

SIM-2015410 - August 19, 2014, 12:29 am

Would you consider giving out the gift award to already ub3r members who you deem deserving?

Hulk - August 19, 2014, 12:48 am

What do I ask for:

I'm asking you politely to read my application for an UB3R upgrade and maybe even consider upgrading me.

Why should I be selected to win:

I think I should be selected since I'm HQ since I've been on HF. Never tried to scam, troll or flame any member. I try to be active in the Rs3 section and help others with "problems" or "issues", which I already have done quite a lot. I've done a couple of giveaways, made a good guide and have sold lots of things, including a very good CoC account, 3 HackerCraft awards and over 4Bill RsGP.

What would it mean to me:

A lot, I recently upgraded myself to L33T after being "Scammed" by someone that was doing a L33T upgrade and choose me as winner but turned out he just wanted me to wear his signature. It also means that there are other good and loyal members on HF. Whichs makes everyone happy. It also means I'll be more trusted for my RsGP shop which is doing great at the moment. Unfortunately I've to use all the money I make on an IRL project which does cost me lots of money, Meaning I simply don't have the money to upgrade myself to UB3R and asking you/your group to upgrade me.

proof of being accepted (Click to View)

I would love to thank the group "Phoenix"" for doing this contest to give members like me a change to get UB3R without giving up IRL projects for it.

Encoded' - August 19, 2014, 8:57 am

Why should I be selected to win: Because I always try to be hq, friendly and helpful as possible. I have contributed to this community and I will contribute more if I have ub3r. I think I would gain more trust and friends if I was ub3r, which I really want in this community. I love the community and I will do everything for you guys.

What would it mean to you to win?

A lot. I would appreciate it so much and I would of course give a big thanks to the user who upgraded me ?

Good luck and have a great day, everyone!

Tibit - August 19, 2014, 9:17 am

Good luck to those who enter the contest.

?lien - August 19, 2014, 9:28 am

If I host another giveaway for Phoenix in the future it would likely be for something like the Gift award as having those who are already Ub3r be eligible for our giveaways would be nice as well.

I updated the original post to add some graphic resources at the end if you choose to use them for your entry. Please keep in mind you do not have to use any of these to be a finalist or win. It just appeared that some of you would like to use them so I figured I would provide them.

Why I should be selected to win?

I have been a member for a few years now and been approved for ub3r for a month or 2 now.. I think personally i have been quite useful around the CS section helping people new to cheating for example in finding something which won't lead in them being scammed and that's pretty much what i've done the most on this forum, sometimes been a part of some flame wars around there because, well if u have visited the CS section you might know :D

I'd pretty much say that my money situation has always been quite bad or have had some more important things to buy with my money than ub3r for example right now i have 9,13€ on my bank account which will pretty much go for food or some other important thing if something comes up..

So pretty much the reason i should be selected is that i don't have money to buy it myself

What would it mean to me to win?

For this one, I would say i'd plan to give away to others more, like giveaways and such if i happen to get some extra cash..

Other than that i'd be happy but that's about it.. i mean i would still be an user of the forum like always :)

Good luck to everyone! Remember to try your best! <3

Dream3rs - August 19, 2014, 12:52 pm

I would like to be upgraded to L33t ?

Why should I be upgraded?

I think i should be upgraded because i want to contribute to the forum by doing member contests and giveaways. I tried to make a thread in the member contest section and got a message saying i could not make a thread here because i am not an upgraded member.

Another reason a would be because, in june, I had $300 of birthday money in my paypal and just 5 or 6 weeks ago, my paypal got hacked and i lost my money. I filled a dispute for it but i lost it. I was planning on Upgrading to L33t, just like my brother is, but sadly i cant because i have unsufficient funds. ?

What would it mean to me to win?

It would not be overly meaningful to me, but i am not saying it wouldnt mean anything. It would be nice just because i lost, alot, well alot to me, of money, and just to see that there are some descent people on the forums apart from me :wink: lol.

So thanks anyway for the chance to be upgraded and a big thanks for hosting the contest.

I <3 YOU! ?

Why I should be selected to win?

Firstly, I don't need to say I am active here, everything is transparent. Second this is I want to stay on HF for a longer time and come to the blue side of it. I am approved for ub3r that itself proves that I deserve this upgrade.

What would it mean to you to win?

HF,so far, has been the best tutor for me ever. I made money, friends and business partners all from here. And as you know, the ub3r upgrade lifts many limits than a l33t member, I desperately need it. I am out of money right now or else I would I have bought it at the moment when I was approved for Ub3r.

Hope I win. Good luck to all!

dasani - August 20, 2014, 4:56 pm

Why I should be selected: Well honestly I don't deserve it more than anyone else here, actually I probably deserve it the least. But nonetheless, I have been here for around 4 years now and haven't really done much. I have learnt quite a bit over my time here and met some really amazing people. There really is nothing I can say here to make you determine that I will be chosen except give me a chance.

What it would mean to me: I would really like to be able to access the rest of the site, and possibly have the chances of expanding my possibilities here. Plus my birthday is tomorrow, could make a hell of a present ;). Not gonna make this a whole heartfelt thing so you feel bad or whatever, so that will be it.

Enigmaze - August 21, 2014, 4:50 am

Thanks for the contest, Phoenix! I'd like to apply for a Ub3r upgrade.

Why should you be selected to win?

I've been a member for almost 2 years now. I started out as a lurker looking for some methods to make money.

I've been on and off the forums since then, learning more and more on how to make money online. Lately I've been very active again, giving away some of my moneymaking methods I've learned over the years and helping people with them. I love doing this because I know how hard it can be to start out with things like this.

I plan on staying active on the forums now. I've been posting in a lot more subforums than usual and I'm also getting into cryptocurrencies because of HF.

Whenever I see something where I can help I try to, even though I'm still learning myself.

I may not have as many posts as some of the other applicants but I think of myself as a HQ member. At least I try to be.

What would it mean to you to win?

I'd be honored if you chose me as contest winner. I've been wanting Ub3r for a while now because I still feel limited to what I can do on HF even though I'm L33t.

I only recently asked approval for Ub3r and got approved so I'd be stoked to get the upgrade!

Thanks again for this chance, Phoenix! Good luck to all applicants. ?

VYKTOR - August 21, 2014, 8:27 am

Greetings to all you wonderful people of Phoenix group.
Here's my entry:

Why should I be selected to win?

Well, I should be selected because I don't brag, I'm polite & little cheerful?

I have made some good friends & I like most people here. I don't argue & keep my opinions to myself & respect other people opinions.

I have not written tutorials like other members because I'm still learning & I'll begin to write only when I'm fully prepared & skilled. That would be soon I assure you.

Pretty much everything on my profile sums me up & I don't troll much but I'm funny.?

I fell in love with HF when I started browsing it & seeing the enormous amounts of knowledge present here.

I have lots of respect for Omniscient & groups like yours.

I would like to be a part of them but I'm not skilled enough right now. It would come with time I assure you.

What would it mean for me to win?

Well, winning means a lot to me & that's why I tried to make this post as attractive as possible.?

If I win, I'll have all the privileges I wished for & I'll use them in the best way.

I'll help fellow members, make more friends be more trustworthy & hopefully a very HQ member in everyone's eyes.

The win would be made more special due to the fact that I received it from the ultra sexy group Phoenix.

I can still get UBER myself but being nominated & winning makes me more worthy & proves that I really deserve it as I have passed two tests. Omniscient's approval was the first & Phoenix's approval would be the second.

I find your group beautiful.

The graphic is super awesome & I'll love to be a part of this wonderful group someday.

Your hearts took my heart too.

All the best to the other members & all of you have a nice day/night.?

[img]http://#/cpxTxi.gif[/img]

Before I start and tell you about why I should be selected to win I want to thank you and the Phoenix group for hosting this giveaway and giving a chance to everybody for upgrading.

Why should I be selected to win?

I think I should be L33T because I tried since I first signed up in this community to be as HQ as I could. First when you see that I have 100 posts you probably think that I don't care about this forum and it's just a place to waste my time but each of the post I make I try to be as HQ as I can. In my time spend here I try to make everyone happy, whenever I get a PM from an user that is asking for help I don't hesitate to answer him. Also I hosted some giveaways that really helped a lot of people, I gave about 500 likes on facebook/youtube and about 200 subscribers in total on one single giveaway. About my language I never cursed any members and I try to have a good grammar even if my native language isn't english.

Contributions to the forum

Ok so first it's this giveaway [here] that I started when I saw other people helping the community so I thought that I can do that too.

My second giveaway was a list full of sites that offered free steam games. Unfortunately my thread was deleted but my rep should prove that I'm not lying about it.

My third giveaway can be found here, it is a youtube views/likes giveaway.

Other contributions:

- I gave a lot of netflix and spotify accounts (through PM to members that wanted)
- I offered 3 members free web-hosting
- I try to be as helpful as I could with all the members

What would it mean to me if I win?

Winning this contest would mean a lot for me because I never had the chance to upgrade and I joined a lot of contests before that didn't choose me or they scammed all the people that joined. From the first day I joined HF I said to myself that I need to get L33T. Also the privileges that L33T gives you are awesome but along the 'colored name' it comes the responsability, so I like that... being a trusted member that other can ask for help anytime.

Eternal. - August 21, 2014, 5:49 pm

Agreed. Remember that L33ts wishing to win the contest and become Ub3r must be approved. If you don't know what that means then clearly you haven't submitted yourself for approval. Some have shown proof of their Ub3r approval and while that is not required it is appreciated. Showing proof does not affect your selection as a finalist or winner but if you're L33t and haven't been approved please edit or remove your entry to reflect this. Regular members looking to win and become L33t don't have to worry about this, of course.

I want to remind everyone that we've been keeping a close eye on this thread and no more submissions will be taken after 12pm EST tomorrow which, to make it easy for everyone, is about 12 hours and 35 minutes from this post I'm making. Despite this, the thread will not be closed because we want to leave it open until the winner is announced. I'll recap the next steps for the contest for anyone interested:

- 12pm EST tomorrow we will take no more submissions
- Phoenix will determine the 5 finalists the rest of the day
- A group subforum poll will take place to determine the winner
- Group poll will close Sunday sometime mid-day
- Poll screencap showing results and the winner will be posted here to this thread no later than 6pm EST on Sunday
- Thread will close, winner will be PM'ed and their upgrade paid for

We will look to run future community contests shortly thereafter. Phoenix aims to remain focused on HF community support through help desks, giveaways, contests, personal assistance, etc.

Edit-- Submissions are now no longer taken. We will follow my timeline above to complete this contest with results posted on Sunday.

Enigmaze - August 22, 2014, 10:25 am

Looking forward to the results, good luck everyone!

Why Should I win?

I think I should win because I have been a member of this forum for sometime. I've seen the site grown, and I have grown with it. I've seen a lot of members helping others out lately and it has encouraged me to do the same.

What would it mean to win?

It would mean a lot, how ever even if I don't win I well still be continuing to become a better member here, I think winning would just encourage me to help out the fellow members even more. Never the Less good luck to all!

Edit - Guess I was to late, still good luck to everyone!

?lien - August 23, 2014, 8:18 am

Our group poll is still running for another 25 hours before we announce our winner but it does appear we have a clear winner amongst the top finalists. For those interested, here are the 5 finalists in our group poll that I created last night and a large number of our members have already voted on. By the way, this list is in order of submission time and nothing more than that:

.Sinister
neil5050
Enigmaze
DearSanta
V?K??R

Again, results will be finalized in a little less than 25 hours from now at 12pm EST Sunday/tomorrow.

Congratulations to the finalists and a big thank you to all who entered! There wasn't a single "bad" person to enter though these five finalists did prove to be the leaders of the pack. I will remind everyone that we considered not only your entry/submission post content but also your profile as a whole in order to decide our five finalists.

Congratulations, .Sinister!

Those are the results from our contest, posted as proof of winner as promised. I want to make a couple of things clear to all entrants including the finalists who did not win:

- Our group is very small and that's why there was a low vote total.
- Our group poll was up for over a day and everyone was encouraged to enter though a few members are currently away or on vacations.
- Everyone was given the opportunity to help decide the top 5 finalists.
- Everyone was highly encouraged to revisit the finalists' entry posts as well as to review their profiles before voting.
- Overall, there were many great people to enter this contest and those that aren't yet there yet certainly have the ability to be if they aren't already on their way!
- Don't let the contest or poll results discourage you from entering in future contests and continuing to be the best HF member you can be!
- More opportunities for contest prizes including upgrades, awards, etc. will be coming soon!

FYI: This thread will remain open for a bit in case anyone wanted to post a comment/congratulations/question.

Thank you guys for being gracious and congratulating the one who did win. I did make it a point to state you were all deserving of winning this contest and, for myself at least, it was a difficult decision to make my selection and vote. I did state that I was and I still am surprised as well that only two of you received votes but please don't let it discourage you or take that to mean you were not worthy because that is simply not the case.

Keep your eyes open for future contests and giveaways. I know a few other members have some things planned very soon and myself as well.

Congratulations to .Sinister!

Good things come to those who really deserve it.

I'm very happy to see that the guy who deserved it most amongst us won the upgrade. It has only raised my faith more in Phoenix.

The other finalists & people who entered must feel happy that they were selected & got a chance to participate in the contest. I see a bright future for them on HF.

I would take this opportunity to thank the member of Phoenix who voted for me. That single vote has boosted my morale a lot & will keep me focused on posting more HQ content.

I will be waiting for other contests by Phoenix & hopefully prove my worth in a better way.

Though there will always be members better than us, but that's the beauty of it as it raises the level of competition & is in direct benefit of the community.

These few days felt a little special & I hope all you members who participated & who are part of the sexy group Phoenix have a great day/night.
