Thread: I don't understand why old white folk don't like mexicans

Gearfried - August 18, 2014, 10:37 pm

I'm not mexican. I'm native, but I wanted to make this thread because I work with a lot of mexican guys at a restaurant, and they're all awesome.

We get older white guys in who are racist and you can tell sometimes the way they look at them.

My question is, why the hell do old white guys dislike mexican men? They immigrated to the United States, went through hell to get here, then they work shitty minimum wage jobs and they work their asses off. The mexican dudes at the restaurant work 200% harder than anyone else, guaranteed. Plus, they're always super polite to customers and pretty much always in a good mood.

IDK, it seems like white guys would like someone who they see as a hard worker, yet they're constantly labeled as leeches or whatever.

Trisomy 21 - August 18, 2014, 10:39 pm

It's easy to not like minorities. If you were white you would understand. ?

Huskar - August 18, 2014, 10:39 pm

Our world will always be racist.

Sadly some people don't like Mexicans and I think they are phenomenal (not all) but most of them are hard workers and still get paid very little.

That is sad.

Every race has their scum that makes their race bad so that is why you shouldn't judge all by one.

Gearfried - August 18, 2014, 10:41 pm

Mexican food is on point.

Their music is cheerful as fuck.

Dudes work hella hard.

Women are pretty hot.

What's not to love about Mexican culture?

RiotServices - August 18, 2014, 10:41 pm

My grandparents only like white people. My father always told me that's how they grew up. lol so I guess they just have a free racist pass. I'm white and don't have any racial problems. Idc what race you are. Old people are just old I guess lol

XeX Menu - August 18, 2014, 10:42 pm

It's the whole they took are jobs! thing lol

I don't think they really hate them for their race, just that they immigrated here getting jobs that natural born citizens might want, they can just assume they are immigrants for their race.

krozz - August 18, 2014, 10:42 pm

I'm Mexican and I approve this message.

Plus they say we take up all their jobs yet were the lazy ones. We have jobs cause they don't want to occupy them... I love tacos BTW

Not to be mean, but its the older white people who are racist to all kinds of races except american. Even on YouTube you see videos of recent racism to blacks, Mexicans, and even Indians and other

Pre-judgement of race is wrong, you shouldn't think less of the other human from their ethnicity.
If you keep a close mind and always think a certain thing, is or isn't going to happen upon judging the other human's race then you will truly never value humankind.

It's really not more healthy cutting off all meat, assuming you ate it in healthy proportions.

And if you are one of those pseudo ethical fuckers, you are a fucking animal, doesn't matter if you want to pretend you are something better. But any other species of animal with a big enough jaw and an appetite would tear your face off given the chance.

There's also no point in worshipping a god, or cutting your hair, or listening to music. It's all spiritual/mental shit. People do what they want and if it makes them happy then so be it.

edwardj7337 - August 18, 2014, 11:18 pm

Depends on where you live. I know someone that is from the East Coast area and I'm told that there can be a bit of tension with Hispanics and whites, here in California there is no tension at all. You always find that one racist guy but its not that common.

I agree to theres no point in worshipping a god, but you need to cut your hair if you don't want to be an outcasted weirdo without a job, everybody likes music so I don't see how you're trying to compare it to that. Vegetarians do it to feel superior like they're better for not acting like an animal when they are animals.

As a 14 year old kid, my problem lies within most of the Mexican Youth, I don't have anything against mexicans over 25 usually, but every mexican I have seen in class is EXTREMELY disrespectful to the teacher, calling her whore in English and Spanish, and it's not the same person who is disrespectful, 80% Mexicans at my school do shit like this, as well as go up to white kids and fuck with them, hell I have had a couple come up to me and call me white boy and laugh at me.

It pisses me off, also to note we don't have any blacks at our school, we have two and they are adopted by super rich white mormon families.

Most of the school is Latino.

So I would say I have a prejudice against Mexican youth because what I have seen at all of my past 6 schools.

EDIT: I have been to two private schools, 3 public schools and one Charter school (Not sure if different), all of the Mexican youth do that.

Wow, 14? Now I find it funnier when people think some Ubers are actually respectable and are smart. (Not directing this at you but those I have encountered here.)

I understand where you are coming from and I don't have a problem with that. I've met students from other states, like the south and many of them are very disrespectful, especially to adults, so I can only imagine them acting toward teachers.

I live in California in a rather mixed community and there were never any racial tensions at our school and any student being rude to a teacher would be looked down upon as an outcast We did get some students that were expelled from other surrounding communities and some just don't fit in, if we got Hispanics some would dress like if they were in a gang and well, they didn't make much friends and they would actually not act disrespectful because everyone else looked down on it.

It is different all over the US at how kids act.

I feel exactly the same about Nepalese and Indians in the UK. I work full time in fast food, 90% of my mates work elsewhere doing construction work. The kitchen in my work is mainly Nepalese and Indian and I get along so well with them, I usually go for a drink after work or hang out, yet all my mates hate them without even knowing them, typical Britain First cunts in general, I don't understand why a lot of British people are so quick to discriminate against Asians in this country, who fought along side us and earn't the privilege to be here, And in general earn their own money instead of claiming welfare (benefits), but they don't say anything about some of the new Romanian's who move here, get a free house and a benefit salary of more than we do.

Just to get this clear I'm discriminating against Romanians, I do work with some amazing Romanians, its just there's a lot of people, who are Romanian who move here and just leech of our welfare system. Im fucking fed up of working my ass off to have some of my pay taken away and just handed to some cunt that sits on their ass watching Jeremy Kyle or Cash in the attic all day

If you're talking about mariachi, it can sound annoying, but at the same time there's almost always an upbeat message behind it which I think is something Americans could do well to observe.

Mariachi is Mexican culture music!

I don't think it's annoying at all, I may not LOVE the sound of it.

But it's their damn culture music, they're people too, let them be happy with whatever music they like. ??

Old white folks are upset because hispanics are taking over. Mexicans get hassle free grants now for college. White people struggle alot to get that. its getting easier for them to get green cards and now its mandatory we learn there language in school. Like wtf? They came here!

King Bob - August 19, 2014, 12:29 pm

Old people don't like change, they don't like any race except themselves.

Learning a language in school is important, and I'm pretty sure most high schools offer French or German as an alternative to Spanish.?

It pisses me off, also to note we don't have any blacks at our school, we have two and they are adopted by super rich white mormon families.

Most of the school is Latino.

So I would say I have a prejudice against Mexican youth because what I have seen at all of my past 6 schools.

EDIT: I have been to two private schools, 3 public schools and one Charter school (Not sure if different), all of the Mexican youth do that.

Not even going to get started on how you have a cocaine avatar while you are scared to even cuss.

Probably because of the "they are taking our jobs" or the stereotype of them joining gangs and are bad or the drug war going on

In my opinion I think that it has to be with the fact of how they were raised. Their belief system has not been challenged almost all their life so they base their judgement on strong roots.

Their music is cheerful as fuck.

Dudes work hella hard.

Women are pretty hot.

What's not to love about Mexican culture?

forgot the tequilla and beer bro :)

Old people grew in much more racist environments..

Ninja - March 7, 2018, 10:27 am

Not all white guys are like that but racism has been going on for ages. It's just a disease that spreads among people and carries on.

Minizcule - March 7, 2018, 10:28 am

TBH it's just the world we grew up in. I know some older people as well that are "racist" but that's because they were shown that it was okay. and nowadays racism is definitely not okay obviously.

Even though I somewhat agree with your point, but this is a very old thread to grave-dig. You could have easily opened a new thread for a discussion.

You literally grave dug 4 year old post.....

OP has not even been on the site in like 10 months. Also. lol

But to answer OPs question.

It is simple the older generation grew with a lot of prejudice and racism. Old habits die hard...

Older generation grew up with racism in their communities, especially southern states.

Also, don't dig up 4 year old posts.
