Just letting everyone know though, this doesn't go into your current skype. You have to use one he makes with the credits on it.

I do believe that staff members do not take action in this kind of deals, regarding transparency to them, but who knows. Let's see what goes in here !

I've just been rep fucked so yeah. This thread was made before I got rep fucked. Also I'm going first to any upgraded member who has more rep than me.

It'd be so much nicer if it went onto your own account, no way that could happen?

I can do that, but I don't want to. Mainly because you gotta give me your username and password.. People are not comfortable doing so. + Its harder to do it, so would have to charge a dollar or two extra.
