Very nice radio man, a lot of music I've never heard, other than the same old songs that they play on the real radio.

But please pretty please have it display which song is playing, I would love to know the name of a song when I like it.

Very nice job anyway, I enjoy it. :)

Allison Argent - September 2, 2014, 4:07 am

Good Use of the website, I've got a few possible adds in which you could bring onto your site?

- Make it so that It has a Request System (When someone makes it this will then be added to the "Waiting List", playing the songs in order etc and only that 1 song can be requested every like 30? (To make it so theirs a wider amount of music and not the same track repeating over n over again).

Keep up the good work and I'll be listening in constantly.
