Froggy - August 23, 2014, 6:31 pm

Any member that fits the following requirements is eligible to be nominated: Minimum of 500 posts
0% warning status

Has not received the MOTM award previously

Was not nominated in the previous month of the contest

Non-staff member (you can still nominate mentors and ex-staff) Members are only allowed to nominate one person. A nomination post must contain the username of the member being nominated, followed by their profile link, three of their contributions that occurred within the month, and a reason why they deserve the award. Contributions should be public, and not in group sub-forums. Reasons why they deserve the award don't have to necessarily be threads, but can also be one's activity on a forum. No feedback regarding another member's nomination post is allowed. Any user that violates these rules may be warned and will have their post removed.

Reason: He's helped many members with his sexuality thread in the innuendo section, which is currently the largest thread there and one of the largest help desks on HF. I've personally seen him help several members, including myself. He's played a big role in The Empire for a few months and now Phoenix as well. He easily deserves Member of The Month in my opinion.

Reason: Sh1eld deserves to win MOTM simply because he's a great fucking guy. I've had the pleasure of knowing him for a good amount of years now, and I have never disliked him or had any beef with him. I think it's his time to shine in this competition. For the people who aren't in Polymath; he is a great guy. He does most of the group stuff and handles everything really well. His knowledge is very wide, which you can see by looking at his posts. Sh1eld, a great guy with a great personality, and has a great impact on Hack Forums.

You can always see him answering questions in the Rules, Announcements, News, and Feedback section, which he is nearing 800 posts in. He's a very nice guy and overall a great asset to the forum.

A small recursive utility. by Ethereal

Reason: His efforts in helping me lead and produce articles for the HF Wiki is simply amazing. More so, he used to be quite active within the Programming section. After getting into groups, his posts are now mostly only in groups, but he is an undervalued member and should have a chance at MoTM. Many people mistake him for "Ethereal."

And I believe this is why he doesn't get the eyes he should.

His efforts though, for the Wiki are amazing, and his patience with many people probably exceeds just about everyone. He is helpful and never tells someone to fuck off, when they're asking for help. ._.

But it still won't hurt to talk about him briefly. As far as my own personnel experiences he's always been helpful. Giving out free programs or creating helpful tutorials for everyone. Just a little on why I nominated him for MOTM Good luck to all contestants.

Reason: He deserves to be the MOTM of the month, not because of how many awards and rep he has but simply because of his donations and contributions to this very wide community and its members. He has contributed really well in the RAT/Hacking Section and one of his thread even has 2k posts which is the highest number of posts a thread can get !

He's a cool member who's always willing to help people and never turns his back at them. I think this guy has all it takes to be the MOTM of the month.

I nominate him!
