Bro? - August 24, 2014, 12:51 am

you might want to fix those images, op

Programming - August 24, 2014, 12:51 am

All images are broken, this is also like the 9th thread you've posted about this. Do you know how to edit a post?

andy02 - August 24, 2014, 12:52 am

Can you aslo add his UID in the title?

Goods - August 24, 2014, 12:52 am no i dont :(Im actually pretty new to this site despite my account creation date and to see the images all you have to do is right click on them and open them in a tap

Motusora - August 24, 2014, 12:53 am first, you misspelled the name "sensei"

2nd, the images are broken

3rd, the user has already a "scam report" , so why did you trade w/ him ?

Goods - August 24, 2014, 12:54 am

I had other people tell me that he was legit and he only had one negative rep. Idk I guess im dumb.

I made the images like this

[img]url[/img]

how do I fix it?

Kronenbourg - August 24, 2014, 12:56 am

<https://puu.sh/b5BKl/104f531430.png> can't really see the images mate

Can you take screenshots of the whole pages with proof and upload it again to imgur ? I can't really check it right now.

Goods - August 24, 2014, 1:34 am

There are so many pages of convo that would take forever, I know nothing is going to be done I just wanted to show you guys that this guy is a fucking scumbag. I feel like I showed adequate proof.

You should show the PM's in full proof showing the name of him in the PM, etc.

Talu - August 24, 2014, 1:37 am

Add his uid in the title, and remove the profile link from the title. His uid is... uid=2017720

But otherwise, legit scam report.

Goods - August 24, 2014, 1:43 am

Does anything ever come of these scam reports just wondering? Taluto you gave the guy that scammed me positive rep a while back lol

Nope, I haven't. Check his rep page:

Spoiler (Click to View)

You must be confusing me with "Tupac."

Goods - August 24, 2014, 1:55 am

Maybe I did I apologize. Still what comes of these scam reports? anything.

You should update your rep given to him with a thread or else it can be known as rep abuse.

It helps you ruin his reputation (not the number) on the forum, because people will likely not want to deal with him anymore if he has an open and legit scam report on him. So you raise awareness.

And sometimes (rarely), if he's on a scamming spree (multiple users opening scam reports on him), he can get a closed account (banned permanently).

Goods - August 24, 2014, 2:14 am lol but there is no way im getting my money back correct?

Whether you get your money back or nor all depends on him.

Goods - August 24, 2014, 2:17 am

im confused? haha there is no way he just scammed me then is going to give me back the money he just stole.

Sometimes they get a change of heart and decide to refund you (it's happened many times before).

Goods - August 24, 2014, 2:21 am lol we will see what happens time to go to bed and be pissed off at myself :(

Ok, mate. Good luck with this report being resolved ?

Griev?us - August 24, 2014, 2:36 am

Put this as your reputation for him.

"User is a scammer, DO NOT DEAL WITH, <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4411702>"

Yeah, you should do this OP, so you don't risk getting banned/repfucked.

Goods - August 24, 2014, 10:56 am

Check what he left neg rep on me for.

?Dizzy ? Wright ? - August 25, 2014, 12:58 am

When you see users with scam reports open or even negative rep you need to trust your gut because a lot of people on this forum are honestly in a "dog eat dog world" and will screw you. If you trust your gut then its your fault for falling for it too i guess, and im not saying everyone with a bad rep or two isn't legit. Just don't trust other people on here unless your gut(you) trusts them .
Anyways, i hope this gets resolved
