If you're a noob this = Perfect Program. Advanced people this could help in some ways. If you spend some of your time researching different exploits and such then you wouldn't need a program. This tutorial isn't very detailed imo. What happens once you find the vuln? You don't know any exploits and such what are you meant to do? Don't get me wrong it's nice your trying to help other people just add a little bit more info next time.

Acunetix Web Vulnerability Scanner is very very messy and is not intended to be stealthy at all and leaves a shit load of crap behind in every part of the website you scanned that said i have used it but never been busted for it but once used things such as the sql DB is filled with shit from the scan and it also leaves entries telling the admin what software scanned it so use with caution and a vpn at least.
