Story: I made this thread a while back, <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4342059>

A user (Steve Carell) messages me asking that he is interested. We come up with the deal of $200 for the exploit, he sends me the money and everything is fine. Until I get limited, so I send a message to the user apologizing saying that I am sorry for what happened. Now he says he is out of $200 because he sent it with his bank and he must wait a few days for the money back. In which he then tells me he'll make a compromise that if I give him the exploit he'll send me the money. Now yes now looking back I see the part where he says set it up, but I didn't think of it much.

Now I'm having issues with my PayPal and finally I get it fixed. I send him a message saying I got my paypal fixed and then he gets bossy about the fact he said set it up before payment, now I tell him I went 50% on it and he should do since there wasn't anyway I can scam him since he was going to send it as goods I told him, not gift (I was going to trust that he didn't dispute me), and also he had the exploit already. I told him I don't want to set it up for him since he was starting to seem sketchy because for all I knew he was using a stolen paypal and that could've been the case and it was weird how a member goes first sends me money but suddenly is refusing to send me the money.

He then out of NO WHERE gives me a negative -3 saying that I am a scammer who is sketchy and should do no deals with. After me being nice and all that trying to be resonable, matter as fact I was going to just go set it up until he does this shit.

Who IN THE WORLD GIVES SOMEONE A -3 EVEN THOUGH YOU FREAKING GOT A $300+ EXPLOIT FROM HIM WITHOUT PAYING? Who even does that in the right mind, that's like giving a store bad reviews after receiving a free gift or something. This is BULL SHIT.

Now he changes his rep to this.

I'm going to be going to this kids house to get my money.

Now here are the PM's.

This PM shows I am approaching him nicely, and refunded him after PayPal Limited.

He then calls me unprofessional and immature even though I didn't say anything rude to him ad I approached him a good way. But I felt bad for him and without reading much I just told him I'll give him the exploit before hand and he can set it up if he wants. So we go on team viewer and I give him the exploit

Now here, I message him nicely and he then says "If you don't want the deal done then it's fine."

And that's when I knew he was trying to scam me, and he seemed extremely sketchy from that point. I told him the deal has to be done since no way is he going to get my exploit for free.

Here I try to be nice with him and lowered it down to $160 for the confusion. But nope.

And he tries to say he is trusted....like no he isn't trusted not even the slightest being ub3r and having 50 rep means shit. I've seen ubers with 1k+ rep scam before. No one is trusted, he's just a idiot.

So after that is when he gives me the negative reputation. And I send him a PM. now I am cussing at him and being angry but it's ridiculous. I don't care about rep, I have a lot of negs and I rarely make deals on the forum. Matter as fact, I don't care for money either since I plan on killing myself soon anyways (only wanted cash to buy some xbox game and gold nothing else), but this is too far you are giving me bad feedback and not paying me over something I gave you. this isn't about money, it's about common sense and I shouldn't have been treated this way.

Now this is what pisses me off even more, he THREATENS ME since I requested him to remove his rep comment. And he then claims I tried to rat him? WHEN THE FUCK DID THAT COME UP? SERIOUSLY? WHERE IN THE WORLD DID I EVER ATTEMPT TO RAT HIM? He's probably trying to come up here with a sob story of me trying to rat him which never happend, this is the most random shit I've ever witnessed on making a deal.

Several issues here.

1. Refuses to do deal and send me money after I reason with him
2. Seems sketchy after all the things I told him, and he even refuses a $40 less offer which I believe he has no money and was using stolen money
3. Gives rep, saying I scammed him removes his comment
4. Complete douche bag
5. Claims I ratted him in the end of it - made me laugh

Now, I suggest no one doing any deals with him. He's being published into the Scammers Database too. I will not be making any replies on this thread most likely maybe a few since I am in no need of arguing about this idiot.

Is it just me or does it seem like he is thretaning me. Anyway, he told me he was going to come to my house and beat me until I gave him his money, which the original offer is still on.

LOL post a PM of me saying I will come to your house and beat you up. I said I'm going to come and talk to your Mother.
