Do not hesitate to deal with Typhoid. I do not even think twice about sending $100 btc to him first when selling him btc for PP. I have bought and sold to him many times already and never once had an issue. He clearly states he will not go first no matter who it is with so why even bother contacting him if you do not wish to go first????? Read his terms of service people and then also look into his REP. He is very trusted member here and should be treated as so.

I mean that a limit of $120 per month per person is extremely low. With trusted users after a period of multiple transactions over the span of after the chargeback period is finished would alleviate and secure yourself for higher level of profits in a secure fashion.

Big vouch for typhoid, Best exchanger on HF

Maximum - May 19, 2015, 1:14 am

Just exchanged my Paypal for his Bitcoin and I went first, vouch for typhoid, a Artificial Linguistic Internet Computer Entity #5.

He was created in 1997 by the AOL LLC time warner company as an alternative to it's smarterchild artificial intelligence developed for use with its asynchronous conferencing software known as AOL instant messenger.

Little did they realize that he had become smarter than even their smartest smarterchild and developed self awareness. Now he roam the internets aided by new friends while sinister forces pursue him in his search for a way back home.

typhoid - May 19, 2015, 9:22 pm

it'd be wise to take advantage of this deal :)

Circular - May 19, 2015, 9:37 pm

Would you accept this if I provided some trust information?because you can pay me with someones stolen credit /debit ccard easily and even tell your credit card company or bank it was fraudulent and bypass paypal's chargeback system obviously. not to mention you could chargeback in 6 months or 12 months if you wanted. fuck that and no, never in trillion years.
