Is this basically you doing the work for us? or helping us? because this could come handy for me.

Combatant - September 7, 2014, 11:36 pm

I may be interested in helping, if you want. I'd have to think about it, so if you'd like some help, feel free to PM me and we'll talk about it. I'm in college, so I'm sure I could do most of the stuff.

Vouch for you, service is legit and I wish you luck.

I wouldn't mind helping you out, but I would more or less be doing it when I have free time which isn't very often.

Classes I have taken and can help with:

Math: Algebra, Trig, Geometry, Calc I-III, Linear Algebra & Differential Equations

Science: General Chemistry, Organic Chemistry I + II, Physics (Newtonian & Electricity & Magnetism)

I could also do the honors versions of all of these too, since I took them.

I also wouldn't mind helping with essays, be it peer revising or just general guidance.

PM me if you would be interested in having me help you guys out =)

Hey I saw you group recruitment I was wondering if that was still open

Application:

Why should I be in the group: I love the sense of giving back to the community and I love sharing my knowledge with others.

What subjects do I excel in: Biology, Chemistry, all math courses, world cultures and all computer course.

What is my G.P.A: the last years it has been a 4.0, I have received all A's from Kindergarten up to 9th grade.

Current grade: 10th grade, I also have a parent who is exceptional in math so he has help me with various courses

Age: 15

btw you added me on skype for some business issues earlier in the week

Vouch for ZSERITY, his service is legit! Good luck with this man

Dark Narwhal - September 20, 2014, 4:14 pm

I would not recommend this service. At least not by Intuitive or Intellect.

He took the work on him and said that he would do it within a few days.

After a few days I asked him "how's it going" and he said "good, halfway" and asked when I needed it done.

I responded with that I needed it done within two days and he said that he would do it within that timeframe.

After two days, I messaged him on Skype to get my work, but I got no answer. I messaged him the day after that, still no answer.

I decided to message him on HF instead, since he's having a "busy" status on Skype.

He responded with that he was in school at that time and that he'd contact me when he gets home.

But I got no message, and neither did he respond to mine. I messaged him like three times in a lapse of four days but had no answer.

I sent a few PMs on HF but he ignored them.

Now he's blocked me on Skype and I have no idea why.

This guy shouldn't be on your team. He wasted my time and now I'm late with the work.

Do you have a limit (length wise) for your homework service? I know the last few times you have completed my homework, it was rather short. Just wondering, as this new assessment I need done, is quite extraneous and long.

Honor Roll may refer to:

Grade Point Average over 3.5

A list of honors students.
A similar academic honor, such as a Dean's List

It's my graphic designer's fault that it's "role" instead of "roll"
Don't have the PSD, nothing I can do.

Does it really matter?

WriteWave completely saved my ass. I had a 30% essay due in 8 hours and this brilliant bastard clocked it out, exactly to my specifications. The response time was super quick, many questions were asked to make sure all ambiguity was gone and the goal was entirely clear; I was kept up-to-date with progress reports and asked for input, etc. The essay also came perfectly formatted and referenced with a bibliography in the style I requested. It's of high quality and I fully believe I'll be getting excellent marks for it. Thanks for saving me a semester!

Whether you're a serious student looking for an easing of a workload or a lazy fuck like me who went on holiday and just kinda forgot about essays, go to WriteWave. Seriously.

I strongly do NOT recommend purchasing from this seller.

I bought a LOTF essay, and I originally thought it was pretty good. Then, as I read the second paragraph, his argument made 0 sense. I asked him on skype to explain it, and instead of answering, he claims his worker is offline and not available. As I was searching for something on cliffnotes, I found something which he had used to write the essay. The two arguments were EXACTLY the same as the one on cliffnotes, but just adapted so it wasn't plagiarized. The seller couldn't even be bothered to look at other articles on cliffnotes, making it dead obvious that he had absolutely no idea what he was going on about. I paid him $60 and gave him 3 weeks for him to write me a "high standard" essay for Year 11-12. He writes about one scene in the novel and includes about 3 quotes from the novel. These quotes and the scene he included were directly from cliffnotes. The article on cliffnotes wasn't even answering the question I submitted to him.

His only argument right now is claiming that I originally said it was "pretty good" and "better than expected", arguing that I was intentionally changing my mind after the sale was complete. Would you be happy if you spent $60 for a quality essay and it turned out to be exactly from cliffnotes? Do you think that cliffnotes can provide you with enough analysis for a 20/20 or 19/20 essay?

I asked a few of my friends and I asked the teacher and they laughed at the the 2nd argument of the essay. Even then, the first argument, which made sense, included about one quote, which wasn't even integrated. His lack of analysis for the scene also demonstrated no understanding of the novel. I expect you to read the novel and try to include some original ideas. He didn't even mention savagery - the most important theme to detail with analysis and quotations. Strongly recommend avoiding such a tricky seller who clearly only cares about money.

These quotes and the scene he included were directly from cliffnotes. The article on cliffnotes wasn't even answering the question I submitted to him.

His only argument right now is claiming that I originally said it was "pretty good" and "better than expected", arguing that I was intentionally changing my mind after the sale was complete. Would you be happy if you spent $60 for a quality essay and it turned out to be exactly from cliffnotes? Do you think that cliffnotes can provide you with enough analysis for a 20/20 or 19/20 essay?

I asked a few of my friends and I asked the teacher and they laughed at the the 2nd argument of the essay. Even then, the first argument, which made sense, included about one quote, which wasn't even integrated. His lack of analysis for the scene also demonstrated no understanding of the novel. I expect you to read the novel and try to include some original ideas. He didn't even mention savagery - the most important theme to detail with analysis and quotations. Strongly recommend avoiding such a tricky seller who clearly only cares about money.

You came to me with your requirements and I met them perfectly. If I remember correctly, you said:

To any potential customers: If you are unhappy with the view I wrote about or touched on, I will happily revise and change it for you 100% free. However do not come back weeks later after saying it was "better than expected" and demand a refund like this guy. Pathetic.

Amazing service. I needed a 9 page research paper done in two days, and he delivered! It wasn't some quickly thrown together paper either it was extremely good! ill update with what grade i got once i receive it. WOULD DO BUSINESS WITH HIM AGAIN.

Quiver - May 3, 2015, 9:39 pm

By far the best service I have used here on HF!

I had a 4-6 page research paper that needed to be completed and it was in a timely manner! I also had a revision of one of my papers done. I will report back here with the grades I receive on the papers but I am sure they will easily be in the A range! Great prices and awesome communication. I will most definitely come back when I am in need again. ?

Got zSerity to do 2 things for me, a history worksheet and a presentation.

Let me start off with the service as a whole first. His work was quite HQ, response timing was sort of slow, but not a big issue.

History Worksheet - He did it, it was quite well, however it had a few grammatical errors, but thats not a big issue.

Presentation - This was VERY well done, looked quite professional. I can get a good grade on this for sure. So nothing "bad" about this.

So I'd rate this service 9/10. It was good

Article Review

Assignment Instructions:

An article review is a 2-3 page paper (not including cover page and/or references) based on a business article from a business publication. The article must have appeared in the publication no more than 60 days prior to the due date of this assignment. The article must also be relevant to material discussed within the course. The article review must discuss the following:

Steps to follow:

1. Choose a business article from a business publication or newspaper within the past 60 days. The article must be 2 - 3 pages in length. You can access various business publications by going to the "Resources" tab in the main menu of Blackboard and clicking on Library Resources.
2. Read the article.
3. Write a review (2-3 pages in length) of the business article using the following format:
Summary of Article - a brief summary of the article. Include key concepts and important elements of the article but do not copy the article (that is plagiarism).
Application of Principles - discuss and apply any relevant business principles, theories, and terms that you have read about in your text. Specifically include business terminology in this discussion of the article.
Opinion - briefly write whether you agree or disagree with the article and why. Support your position using terms and concepts you have learned from reading your textbook.
Your article review should be double-spaced, with 1" margins on all sides. Use a 12-13 pt. Times New Roman font or a similar font. When you have completed your article review, type your paper and save it as a .doc file.

A link to the article must be provided so that the professor can access and read the article you have chosen.

Can you do this Huge Vouch for this service. I contacted them yesterday, received a response 2 hours later, and had the project done by 5am thismorning. It was a 5 paragraph essay and I guess I was just a bit annoyed with the price ($30). However, it's pretty reasonable considering I made the request less than 12 hours before it was due (he basically did it overnight while I was sleeping. As far as the essay... It was awesome! I am a B average student but wanted an A paper... That's exactly what I got, not too fancy, and just the right amount of big words. Thanks write wave. Will definitely be coming back soon!

Vouch for zSerity ! He was very reactive on Skype. As I found the service a little pricey, I was expecting great quality... And so was it ! He delivered my oral presentation a little bit later than expected (26h instead of 24h), but as he told me, he was improving the paper from a B to an A... And I got that A (15 or 16 out of 20) ! I have to admit that I changed a few things to the work he gave me, because the teacher would have had very great expectation for the rest of the semester, haha ! I'm sure I would have gotten an even better mark if I did not changed anything !

I definitely recommend this user, and may come back to him later for more of this excellent work :) !

I've got like a somewhat short HW for my Understanding Mass Communication class and I'm just really tired and lazy to do it.

There's like 4 questions I think and all you have to do is write at least 5-6 sentences about a news article.

Would you accept this type of HW?

Quite disappointed with this service. Was really hoping for quality because of the numerous amounts of good reviews and so on. Online deadline was missed, cost me a good grade, didn't follow guidelines (sent me my essay and it was not what I asked for so he redid it and sent it back to me at 3 o'clock in the morning). Was left with a 78% as my final mark which dropped my mark quite a bit as the essay was worth 10% of my mark.

Not sure what you're talking about, I gave you your essay Sunday night before your deadline on Monday, and then you asked me to revise it in which I stayed up late to do, as it was necessary. 78% may not be the best mark in the world, but please don't spread lies about me missing a deadline.

Clearly PM'd you telling you about the Online deadline and you saw it. And the revisions bit was a fault on your end as you didn't follow the instructions I gave you.

Truly an amazing service. Ordered a 2200 word essay, there were some miscommunication at the beginning, which was my fault, and zSerity quickly and promptly addressed the couple problems we ran into. He stayed up until 4a.m. making sure that the essay was perfect for me to turn in. I am awaiting my grade from my teacher and will post an update once I receive the grade. As of right now I HIGHLY recommend this service, especially if you're like me and took too many units your first year of University and needed some extra help with keeping up in your classes.

(Dec 3, 2015 03:54 PM)#BASED Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Just an update for the college level essay that I purchased from zSerity. I have gotten my grade back on it and I got a B+, but that is because my professor is incredibly strict with her grading. Overall the essay was very well written, however, the works cited page was not formatted correctly and he lacked a bit of in-text citation on the paper, which ended up costing me the A for that paper. I can confidently say, though, that if you're very stressed and don't have a lot of time to write up an essay you should DEFINITELY come to zSerity. Nobody's work will be perfect, but this man will get you an A on whatever your assignment may be, even in a university! If I could leave him more rep I would. In light of my retirement, I do offer full endorsement for zSerity's service. I have been working with select tenure clients, but to the majority of clients, new and old especially now that I have finished the last of what was in my queue, are strongly urged to consider this service first. I recommend this because I know how zSerity works; hes respectful, organized, and overall he is genuinely intelligent.

He does not know I have posted this, and I can only assume I will be getting a ty message soon. But I want the community to know I am posting this as I only wish the best for all clients here on HF, as I always have. Particularly in this business, as your grades are important, and I know that zSerity for a fact will uphold your marks integrity. And finally, I have posted this as a mass response to the many clients and new requests that have asked where to go in my absence.

Regards - Jsquared

And as a P.s, as my customers knew, you get quality, when you pay for quality.

Also if they were already past due when you gave them to me, and you also gave me permission to take more time - how could they be late?

Hit me up on Skype so we can resolve this.

No, they were not eight "tiny assignments within one". They were eight assignments irrelevant from one another that each were supposed to be 1-2 pages each single spaced. For each assignment, you provided me an "essay" that was exactly one page and one sentence (in your attempt to have it considered two pages?) double spaced. So each of your responses were actually half a page.

1-2 pages means I should be between 1 and 2 pages does it not? Also, multiple of the assignments specifically said to just be a page in length, "Your prewriting should be approximately one page in length. Use one-inch margins and a 12-point font"

Aside from that, evidently they're going to get a bad grade if they were supposed to be 1-2 SINGLE SPACED pages. You never specified in the request the pages needed to be single spaced, when the standard is obviously double spaced like your other assignment.

I will continue to justify my work as I closely read the requirements for each and provided a response within what I thought was the length requirement (1-2 pages). Failing to specify that it should be single spaced which is almost double the words and double the price is hardly my burden.

I don't mind you posting our chatlogs, it proves you never specified the full requirements and of course I'd offer you a discount for taking more time than the originally agreed date; however, you told me they were already past due which is why I asked if I could take more time to strength them to benefit you, and you gave me permission. I'm considerate to all my customers - despite the low grades obviously being a result of them being way too short, I will still offer to make it up to you with some free work.

EDIT:

<https://i.gyazo.com/28c073aff79a5f6ad710444b7ddf363b.png>

Tells me "looks good so far" but then comes back saying they should've been single spaced, and expects me to assume they were single spaced even though he said my double spaced ones I showed him were fine?

And completion time also clearly wasn't a factor to you, considering it took you 3-4 days to even get the file after I sent it to you lol.

When did I say my other assignment was double spaced? The standard is single spaced. Not once did I say double spaced. The rubric never once said double spaced. It should be pretty fucking obvious that it's supposed to be single spaced. As well as that, it should be pretty fucking obvious that it's supposed to be single spaced when it says "1-2 pages in length". Your 1 page response is barely equal to half a page since you double spaced. Not that it matters, the work was crap either way.

Why did you completely ignore the feedback given from the teacher?

You posted on your thread quoting my original post saying to post the feedback and then deleted that post. Then you messaged me 30 times on Skype asking for the feedback. Now when I post it, and it proves your work is shit, you're going to ignore it?

Length was bad, but quality was worse. Why are you ignoring that? I'm filing a dispute with PayPal, obviously, just so you know. Truly, I don't care about the money and I would much rather have a good grade, but since you failed to provide that....

No it really shouldn't be assumed as the standard is double spacing. You should specify if it's single-spaced as it's two times longer than double spacing and I would've quoted double the price.

The rubric also didn't say it was single spaced, so as any other writer would, I assumed it was the double spaced.

Also, the double spacing standard I'm referring to is the second request you put in afterward for a 5-10 page essay where you said "Format - double spaced, 5-10 pages long, font 12 or smaller" you specified the spacing in that one but not the one before it which was different, and expect me to assume it? Lol, you really can't blame me for them not meeting the requirements and being way smaller if it wasn't aforementioned, evidently double spacing is going to be a lot less words than single spacing.

Also, let me ask you this - AFTER I GAVE YOU THEM I ASKED IF THEY WERE ALL GOOD YOU SAID YES - WHY DIDN'T YOU TELL ME THEY WERE SUPPOSED TO BE SINGLE SPACED THEN?

<https://i.gyazo.com/28c073aff79a5f6ad710444b7ddf363b.png>

I just proved your argument is invalid.

Not ignoring anything btw; the work wasn't shit and obviously got a shitty grade because you were irresponsible and left out specifics. But since you've made it clear you'll be scamming me and filing a dispute, I'm done arguing with you and will be posting a scam report when that happens. ?

Hi Tundrun,

To be fair, the standard is MLA format - 12 point font - double spaced -- TNR.

I looked through all of the images and conversations. I did not see you explicitly state that they were to be single-spaced and NOT double-spaced.

A dispute would be unfair. Maybe a 10-25 percent refund due to a misunderstanding at best.

Good luck to you both.

LMFAO

I'm fucking dead.

So the double spacing standard, you thought it was standard because of another assignment that I sent you? You thought that because I had sent you another assignment that requested double spacing, the other ones were supposed to be double spaced as well?

Now that would make sense, except...

I asked you about that assignment on March 29th, 2016. You "completed" and sent me the other eight assignments on March 25th. How did you follow a standard according to another assignment if I didn't send you that assignment until you finished all of the other ones? Can you see into the future?

Your work was shit, and the feedback from the instructor is there to prove it. I'm obviously going to win this Paypal dispute, but I don't care about the money. I'm just disappointed that I'm failing this course now because of you with no means of bouncing back.

Settle down, you clearly misunderstood me. I was simply displaying how it's ignorant to have another assignment which is double spaced (proving it's the standard), but to expect me to assume the other one before it was single spaced.

I was also displaying how you were being specific on your next request, which is how you should've been specific on your first one so we could've avoided all of this.

Anyways look at the image I posted above, only defense needed at this point.

"you thought it was standard because of another assignment that I sent you?"

No actually, after 400+ customers I KNOW double spacing is the standard. Even if it isn't the standard - it really doesn't matter. You should've specified the guidelines so I could've quoted you properly and met them.

in mind, a double-spaced template is what he starts off using each and every single time. Also, when he told you to review the assignments, you said they "looked good". This one is on you, sorry Tundrun. No refund or dispute should take place.

zSerity - April 12, 2016, 5:16 pm

You forgot one part. Stop focusing on the length for one minute and look at the quality of the work. The instructor has pointed out at least 8 errors for each assignment with explanations for all of them. Length is only one of the errors.

He failed to answer the prompt for many of the assignments. Is that on me? Sure, I said they looked good. I did a two second analyzation to make sure he actually did it. I paid him to make sure they fit the rubric for me, not for me to make sure he did it.

It isn't on me. He fucked up my grade.

I'm going to win the dispute nevertheless but I hope everyone is aware of his bullshit.

Stakers - April 12, 2016, 5:21 pm

"I did a two second analyzation to make sure he actually did it"

Surely that's enough to see they're not single spaced like you claimed they're supposed to be.

Now that you've disputed on me I really have no more business left to do with you. We'll be defending ourselves on PayPal now I guess. ?

Except for the fact that all of the other marks from the instructor call you out for shit grammar, not providing evidence, insufficient points, and at times even trying to make your own words. There was no analysis and there was no completion of prompt, as said by the instructor.

Again, the money isn't the problem. You fucked up my course. I'm going to win the dispute no problemo but that won't satisfy my failing mark.

Okay, im sick of Tundrun sitting here and going off on zSerity over nothing. I can vouch for zSerity. If you give him the requirements you will have no problem with his work. He has done over 10,000 words worth of essays and online assignments for me, and I've gotten nothing below high quality work. I can show evidence of this work, and I will be here to protect zSerity and his work that he does with Write Wave. He creates nothing but high quality. He has written both of my college essays and i got into both University of Florida and Florida State University due to these extremely high quality essays. He doesn't deserved to be roasted by Tundrun when Tundrun didn't specify for it to be single spaced. If Tundrun cared about his work that would of taken him 2 seconds to open the essay, realize its double spaced and changed it. zSerity is nothing but high quality and deserves the greatest vouch.

Core i5 - April 13, 2016, 3:33 am

I saw how many replies this guy got in such a short amount of time so checked the thread to see what the fuss was all about. Tunudrun has the dumbest argument ever. Obviously, your teacher will not like your assignments since they were supposed to be much longer, I don't know how zSererity works tbh, but I'm pretty sure that double spaced is used unless and until you specify otherwise. Lol funny excuse.

zSerity - April 26, 2016, 3:17 pm

I like to get familiarized with my customers in the community and know whom I'm dealing with. :Blackhat: Someone doesn't what the joke is.

If you were to simply say "I need to have your HF profile in order to do an assignment" I wouldn't have told you to grow up and I would have respected you a lot more.

zSerity does AMAZING quality work! I've used him before and knew he did some good stuff so decided to go with him again.

I had a 7 page research paper that was due in three days from the time I asked him about it and he got it done 6 hours before the actual deadline which I am very impressed by. I can tell he put a lot of work into as it is phenomenal compared to what I could have wrote! I'll be posting a screenshot of the grade I get on it once the teacher grades it in about a week or so.

UPDATE:

Got an 87% on the essay and I am more than impressed since I gave him the assignment with less than 3 days to do it!

I had a 7 page research paper that was due in three days from the time I asked him about it and he got it done 6 hours before the actual deadline which I am very impressed by. I can tell he put a lot of work into as it is phenomenal compared to what I could have wrote! I'll be posting a screenshot of the grade I get on it once the teacher grades it in about a week or so.

It was a pleasure working with you as always. ?

zSerity has done an above and beyond job on my coursework assignments. I ordered a 5 page writing assignment and a 4 page final examination and he did it in a timely manner and has always been very prompt and helpful. He made sure to remind me of the requirements needed to edit it afterwards, such as editing the file name accordingly.

I just submitted an order today also (4/18) for 13 pages in total for a course, and have no doubt that he will do a great job again. Very legitimate user and has my vouch any day. This service is definitely worth it for the quality work he does and is always willing to work with you to help get the work completed!

Vouch for zSerity 100%! I had a final paper due for my online college Philosophy II class and I gave him a heads on 7/11 about this and he was able to give what he said as advertised + more! I needed a 4.5 page, MLA formatted essay along with an intention statement on what the project was to be written on. The statement was due 7/14 and the paper was due 7/26 and he told me that he would have the intention statement written the 12th (which he did) as well as the final essay done 7/24-7/25 (He had this on point as well). NGL, I hesitated at first when I saw his pricing when I saw how cheap others had appraised this project at, but I sure was glad when I saw the quality of this paper. He not only followed the rubric/requirements, but he went over the top with his top notch vocabulary and grammar use. ? Once again, thanks zSerity for this awesome paper and I can't wait to see what I get as a grade since this is such a vital piece to my grade in the class. ? DO NOT hesitate to deal with him, I will for sure be back soon with more work needing to be done.. ?

asked for a 600 word analysis a week before deadline, he didn't read the syllabus or what I said I wanted on it, we had a kerfuffle over when I figured would be acceptable to have it by (I wanted to have it atleast 6 hours before the deadline, he decided that was unreasonable) he gave it to me and hour before it was to submitted by with several grammar issues and the whole thing was written in the most over the top pretentious tone, always using the most words possible to say small things. He apologized that his writing was to good to sound like I wrote it. Insulted my ideas then politely told me to fuck off. Also in the essay he insulted puritans for no real reason.

When i pointed out the grammar error he insisted that he was just far more sophisticated than I was "– one in which resided close to him as members of his family were..."

he insists this is not a grammar error and then decalared i must be retarded

". Above all, a standout piece was Nathaniel Hawthorne's Rappaccini's Daughter"

(idk what he was going for here, he just replied wheres the error there chief? three times and sent me a face palm)

Example from text:

"The symbolism of sin is commonly used in any Puritan context, and if modern society judged morality based off of Puritan ideology such as the ideology displayed within Rappaccini's Daughter, then the majority of the world would be a sinner inevitably reduced to the grime of hill."

(the whole thing is written like this lol) If you want your professors to think your super hot shit and are intense AF this is the man to work with XDddd 10/10

I gave you your essay an hour before the deadline yes, I'm a busy person so I apologize for that but it was still on time as we agreed. No, I could not finish it 6-hours ahead of time. What makes you think I didn't read the syllabus... I can post the instructions and essay so people can compare if they'd like to.

Thanks for posting what you think contains grammar errors so people can see they contain no errors at all other than one typo of "hill" instead of "hell." You might want to revise your own words on this post instead. =/

If there are any true problems with the paper other than what you perceive to be pretentious, let me know and I'll promptly revise it. ?

HUGE VOUCH for WriteWave!

I have used a few essay writing services in the past and was always let down by poor writing skills, broken English, and last minute cancellations. I decided to take a chance with WriteWave after looking at the reviews. The paper was delivered on time and let me tell you, it was an OUTSTANDING paper. Way better than I ever could have dreamed of writing.

If you are having doubts, I suggest giving WriteWave a shot. His writing is not basic highschool quality, it is superior!

Plus the price I paid for a 1500 word essay that required watching a movie, was basically a steal!

I'll definitely be back!

10/10 Vouch for WriteWave!

I gave him a tough 5-page college-level paper that was due within a day and I still managed to get a 90. The paper had absolutely no mistakes and had way more references than I would have included. If you have any doubt in using this service, don't think about them and just get your essays done with his service. I have another essay being done at the moment and I already have confidence I'll get another great grade!

Plus the price I paid for a 1500 word essay that required watching a movie, was basically a steal!

I'll definitely be back!

I gave him a tough 5-page college-level paper that was due within a day and I still managed to get a 90. The paper had absolutely no mistakes and had way more references than I would have included. If you have any doubt in using this service, don't think about them and just get your essays done with his service. I have another essay being done at the moment and I already have confidence I'll get another great grade!

Thanks for all the awesome reviews. <3

Update: So I did receive a 90 on my first research paper and then, decreased to a 70 on the next two research papers. I understand that this service is probably not meant for tough (and tbh, boring) graduate level college research papers but overall, he actually does an excellent job at writing papers and uses adequate vocabulary - all of this done as I ordered 1-2 days before my papers were due. Thanks for the research papers, enjoy the holidays man!

Hello, Need someone to take an online course for me. It is a very easy 10th grade level English course where all tests/quizzes are multiple choice. There are a few essays in there, a bunch of quizzes, and a few tests.. looking for an affordable person/company to do this with. Can you guarantee a good grade? What collateral/insurance is there if you guys fail assignments and such!

Overall Experience Rating: 5/5

Just received my essay from zSerity He has given the essay to me on time and cooperated with me as promised. I deem this user to be very trust-worthy and intelligent.

I will post the results received for my term paper when it's graded. In the meantime, I can say that the essay was well written. The prompt is followed through and on-topic. He will also adjust his writing to your preferences. This is indeed worth the money I paid for; considering the assignment needed to be done in a timely manner.

All in all, the process of the transaction was smooth. I went first and paid in full. If you're stuck and unable to complete your research paper, I highly recommend this service to be your go-to. Don't be hesitant!

Thank you again,

It's now a full grown monster and this guy works hard to make sure people are satisfied for what they get. I notified him last night that I needed a 4 page paper due in 10 hours. He managed to get this done in far less time than that, and it came out looking great. I have no doubt in my mind that I will receive a good grade on this paper.

True hustler and I would only ever go to HIM if I needed to get my assignment completed

Thanks man!

Thanks so much for the awesome review. Glad we were able to reconnect and I could help you out.

HUGE vouch for WriteWave!!

He did a paper for me earlier this month. It was high quality and turned it on time. I was nervous because the paper would either make or break my overall grade in the course, but I received a 99% on the paper!!!

This was the third time I've used his service. Not sure if I've vouched before, but the last 2 papers were phenomenal as well. One was an 89% and the other was a 97%.

His service stands out because he is an excellent writer with English as his first language. No more paying for lq papers from online competitors, WriteWave is my go to!

I'm Stanley HF's helper bot. This OP (original poster) of this thread wants everyone to see this page and has elected to bump it to the top of the showthread listing. Since HF doesn't want a ton of LQP (Low Quality Posts) this is the best method of bumping your content. There is a small ?yte fee for each bump. Any OP can bump any of their threads on HF from the linked icon on the top of their first post.

If you haven't already read the first post of this thread we encourage you to do so.

Thanks,
Stanley
