Buffy Summers - September 9, 2014, 11:58 pm

Introudction

I've been a reading this forum for a month or so and I'd like to make my first contribution. I'm sure some of you have thought of this, but didn't know where to begin. I'm here to point you in the right direction with a few methods and sites I've been making decent money with. If you don't mind seeing a few dicks then keep reading. Most of you guys are using girl VCWs/pictures, but using dudes has proven to be more profitable for me personally. Spoiler (Click to View)

<https://i.imgur.com/MjE0FKS.jpg> My first 2 days of eWhoring as a woman were okay, but it took a lot of time and effort. I knew I could do better, so I did.

<https://i.imgur.com/JM5AN8F.jpg> My profits using male VCWs/pix proved much greater and with way less time invested. Gay older men just seem to pay more. I started school recently, so between that, my actual job, and the gym, I haven't had much energy/time to dedicate myself to it. I made this much with minimal effort using 30 minutes of spare time a day, so if you have more free time than me you'll really profit.

What You'll Need

Essentially, you need the same things you use to eWhore with your girl of choice. You can sell photos and videos, you can sell webcam shows. It's all up to you and what you find easier. I personally sell videos + webcam shows of bodybuilders/muscled men. You can easily find these on YouTube, Xtube, etc. Tumblr is also a great source for amateur photo sets and videos of attractive men. Another great way to get custom unsaturated picture packs is to simply trade your eWhore's nudes for a hot dude's on Instagram/Twitter/Kik/etc. Here are some free VCWs I found on the forum. I am currently working with some actual bodybuilders that sell webcam shows to create some HQ VCWs for you guys since there aren't any. I will update the thread accordingly. If anyone is reading this with experience in making VCWs I will be happy to supply the HQ footage that you can edit and we can work together.

Sites & Chats to Use

<http://www.gay.com/>

<http://www.manhunt.net/> (Great site, but limited. You can only read 10 messages a day, so pick which ones you read carefully! In your description be direct and state that you don't want anyone to waste your time. Serious inquiries only. Older men are more likely to cough up the cash. This site is great because it has a built in ad system. You just post a bulletin and everyone online reads it immediately. You get 10-20 messages in a short time frame. Think of it as the Craigslist method on a dating site.)

<http://www.gayroulette.com/>

<http://www.adam4adam.com/>
<http://bros4bros.com/>
<http://craigslist.org/>

There are plenty more out there, don't be afraid to look.

Apps to Use

Grindr is tricky because it goes by location so dudes will likely want to meet up and pay you for IRL fun. You might have some luck, but I didn't bother trying. I recommend the app Scruff. It is basically Grindr, but global. Don't be obvious with your profile because you will be banned. Simply state you are looking for "generous men", but again state that you don't want messages from people that will waste your time so the messages you get are easier to weed through. You can also try Hornet and Jackd. Personally, I think Scruff is most ideal. It depends on how great your SE skills are.

Tips

Older gay men are pretty vile and desperate, so use this to your advantage. They like "alphas" so play on that in your username for chats etc. "AlphaGodMichael" "MuscleAdonisAdam", you get the point. Language is in important. Sell your "muscles", "masculinity" and "straightness" in your profile. They eat it up. Flexing videos are great to sell. They're also all over the internet, so look carefully and you'll find some in no time. I suggest finding an amateur athletes Facebook fanpage they run personally. Look to see if they have a YouTube channel with videos similar to the ones I mentioned and if they do you're in luck. Not only do you have videos to sell you also have hundreds of photos to use also. (IE: <http://www.bigconnor.com>) (<http://www.teenathletes.net/> also a great resource)

I also have some general SE tips that work sometimes. I got an extra 100 bucks once and an extra 50 another time for this. If you're giving webcam shows, go over the time you have given them by a few minutes. Disconnect your wifi and come back a few moments after call fails and tell them you wanted to give them a longer show but your computer sucks etc. While speaking to them before the show also mention that you are doing this for a new laptop for university. Acquire their trust and sympathy. They'll usually offer to help you buy a new laptop/ask how much you need etc. Don't reach for the stars, just say anything will help and you'll pay them back with a better show when you get the new laptop. This only works while using girl VCWs in my experience. Remember guys, language is more important than you think.

Conclusion

If you are a decent eWhore, just apply your methods and strategies using photos and videos of men. This method is unsaturated to my knowledge. I never see any mention of it on the board. That's about it! I hope my first tutorial on the forum will serve helpful to someone. Let me know what you guys think! If you have any questions just post in this thread or shoot me a PM!

Wings of Redemption - August 23, 2015, 11:49 am looks very nice man. i proposed gay ewhoring a few years back but i never had a pic pack to go along with it.

dopepizza - August 23, 2015, 12:06 pm

This is indeed an very nice thread, and i love it thank you, but i do want to leave some useful feedback for your next tutorial.

First, this grammar error.

(Sep 9, 2014 11:58 PM)Buffy Summers Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Introudction
Should be Introduction.

You should go more in-depth, you are telling people about various websites, but you don't tell them how to use them, for example, i don't know how to use craigslist for gay eWhoring.

Tell people websites to make their own Gay eWhoring packs, don't use direct links, use pastebin for adult content links.

You give peoples tips about what to say, and how to take advantage off, but you need to go more in-depth, and tell them a little more about it.

You tell people what they need but, you are just rambling, and in this whole thread, you are mostly rambling which makes your tutorial hard to understand, and messy.

Tips for making an tutorial next time.Don't go off topic

Look for grammar errors before posting

Take your time to make the most in-depth tutorial out there

Don't start rambling, give them information right of the bat

Take a good look at over al thread design

That is pretty much it, thanks for your contribution, and don't take this the bad way, only here to help!

Good luck man!

Danny Brown - September 29, 2015, 9:52 pm

Holy shit gay ewhoring is so much easier

Roast - September 29, 2015, 10:18 pm

1337_Pirate - September 30, 2015, 12:19 am

Many people are taking part in this gay ewhore thing.. but it just makes me sick..
Personal opinion.. PEACE :D

Hi you are till today in Gay e-Whoring? Best regards...

BlackYisusCraist - February 21, 2016, 9:43 pm

thanks for sharing this method, but i'll not use it haha

siberianmc - February 21, 2016, 9:47 pm

Thanks for the share. I'm guessing there's more money to be made this way than regular ewhoring.
How have your returns been on your time vs regular ewhoring?

Danny Khalifa - February 21, 2016, 11:22 pm

Thanks for the tutorial man.

I don't know how my SE skills are in that, but will try something.

As a gay guy who usually ewhores other guys - straight and gay, I can say that gay guys are WAY more picky than straight guys. It's almost laughable how easy straight guys are because girls are so rare, but because most guys are horny usually it's a lot easier for them to be picky. So make sure you make your ewhore attractive (personality and physically) as well as make it seem real (Instagram or something). I've had success with it, but I mean I hardly do it for money.

Would LOVE to see those VCWs if you end up making them @Buffy Summers. So hard to find quality male VCWs. I have like 1TB of male cams as well that include things like waving/etc but I have no idea how to make them into workable VCWs.

If you need a fast and dirty video to whore with, a good and regularly updated/categorised site is <http://mrgays.com/> for videos

DarinZanyar - February 22, 2016, 4:09 am

I have a pretty good body, I'm hesitating to use it to gay ewhore, this is what I've become, my mom would be proud thanks for the share man!

Tangoorange - February 22, 2016, 2:41 pm

Grindr can work if used in conjunction with a Fake GPS app; what I usually do (as an actual gay man!) when they start asking for vids etc is tell them to add me on Kik. Not a bad way to get extra traffic but it is the most popular gay app.

Also try the Gaydar chat rooms, quieter than they used to be but still not a bad way of driving traffic to kik!

eWhoring in general is unmoral.

What is your point?

roger_dog666 - February 3, 2018, 2:21 pm

hello there....first of all thank you a ton for the great explanation....im new to vcw and found that getting a guy on chatrandom or omegle is way better than a girl....i used about 3 vcw.....justin, canada black hat dude and the best i have found is the abs guy....but the abs guy vcw keeps repeating his face loop again and again and takes tooo long to go to the next loop(or rather doest go)...is there a way to correct it or do u have a better edited file that you can share here for us please.....i will be grateful to you.

DimiraR.Dime - February 3, 2018, 3:57 pm

Can i use this packs for kik

Encyclic - February 3, 2018, 5:45 pm

It's quite nice to see people trying out "gay" eWhoring. It's a method I used for a while last July. Makes a hefty profit and at the time very undersaturated.

The best part of it is most people who eWhore don't like the idea of gay eWhoring as it makes it feel too real for them, even more profit for those willing to try. Failing that sign up to a cam site as yourself (If you're over 18+) Quite profitable as well if you have a decent body and can maintain a crowd!

Anyway, very nice HQ post which explains many methods of expanding upon this and from experience can vouch and say that this is a highly flexible market and can be manipulated in many ways that normal eWhoring doesn't allow for.

Good luck to anyone trying this!
