Thread: Personal CPA/PPD Mentor

Tigri - September 10, 2014, 12:02 pm

Hello,

I'm completely new to CPA/PPD and I'd like to start this weekend with a niche or something. I could use a personal CPA/PPD mentor for this. I already have a verified Adworkmedia account.

A mentor who could teach me about the basics, networks etc. would be great.

Good luck with your journey, if you put time and effort into it you can make alot of money with PPD ;)

Yeah, I am really motivated atm and have some time and effort to invest, even some money. But I just don't know where to start right now. That's why I'd like to have a mentor.

If you want the best suggestion you can get, i'll give it to you. Never ask for help. Always try to learn everything by yourself, you will find it useful later when setting up new niches/new websites etc.

Trust me its way better to learn on your own.
