Thread: If Ghouls were real.

Chips Ahoy McCoy - September 10, 2014, 4:35 pm

So today I was thinking about how I haven't made a thread in a while.

My question for all of you Tokyo Ghoul fans, If Ghouls were real, Would you want to be one or would you want to be a part of the CCG? If you chose Ghoul, What would you do?

Personally I'd choose Ghoul. and I'd probably be a lone wolf.

That'd be my exact reason for wanting to be one. Life is way to boring.

War and Peace - September 10, 2014, 6:15 pm

I would want to be like Kaneki; half Human, half Ghoul. That would be pretty sweet.

Quite the rare breed there. But that'd be pretty sick. Although I don't think I could handle the transfer. I'd rather be born half-ghoul.

True. He did go through a lot of pain, but I doubt you could be born half-Ghoul if Ghouls were even real. Lol.

But guys, we could like totally form a ghoul gang, fuck those ghoul hunter guys. But we gotta have some rules like-

No eating each others friends/family/loved ones

No eating each other

Just because you're a ghoul and can, no fucking mass genocides

True.

Wouldn't mind trading my life for something like this, even if I had a very low life expectancy, as long as I wasn't the only one and had others to live with and such. Wouldn't enjoy being the only specimen alive.

Feel like human life is boring, even though I live a happy life I sometimes feel like I wish I could've lived a more adrenaline-packed kind of life.

No, I believe the reason why he became a ghoul is because Kanou also added some of the RC cells generator from Rize or something like that, it wasn't just the regular organs.

By choosing ghouls are we automatically sss rank if not y'all would either join a organization or end up dead .-. There would be a higher chance to stay alive if you choose ccg. Though I'd choose half human half ghoul and stay in human society.

That's true. I'd love to be with an organization like Antieku. that'd be perfect imo. Especially if Touka was there.

The hard part is not to keeping yourself from eating them but to eat in front of them. And when I say eat, I'm referring to what's edible for humans.
