Thread: [Paying for a wallpaper. \[\$20-100\] \[EDIT~\]](#)

eiqht - September 13, 2014, 12:21 am

Render:

http://fc08.deviantart.net/fs71/f/2012/163/9/d/black_hanekawa_vector_colored_outlines_by_asdf1234qwerty-d539aoy.png

Not sure tbh, what exactly I want. Maybe add a nice background color?

I'll let you guys try and because of that I'll pay more for it. Depending on how much I like it, I'm willing to go upwards to $20-40, even $50 if it's god tier. fuck if it's supreme holy level shit id go $100

Name of anime is nekomonogatari kuro for those who don't know and character is black hanekawa. You can try incorporating shit from the show into it.

Don't post your submissions here, PM me.

15:14 is a great type face you can use. To get a good screenshot of it, torrent/download a 1080p RAW of it(not english subbed). You can try using it in the background and seeing how it turns out. Depending on the video, the timing of the shot might be different that's why I'm providing a video link for you to see. But downloading a Raw of it would work.

<http://www.nyaa.se/?page=view&tid=450041>

^That's only 720p. I'm sure you guys can find a BD 1080p somewhere.

To get a good screenshot, download this:

Exactly what I was wondering. I might give this a shot if you tell us!

eight - September 13, 2014, 4:26 pm

My resolution is 1366x768, I don't mind the wallpaper being larger than that.

lol try a little harder than just google'ing a bg and c+p'ing it. I'm paying a lot for a wallpaper, so I expect it to be good.

shit willing to go up to $200 if it's supreme tier

We both know someone using a 1366x768 screen doesn't have the type of money to throw 200 dollars at a wallpaper.

Don't kid yourself.

Also, it's for my laptop. So ofc it's not going to be huge and I forgot screen size=wealth.

cortz - September 13, 2014, 6:48 pm

Lol for a wallpaper to be worth $200 it'd probably need to be in like... 10 different resolutions :p

This has caught my attention though, I'll see how close I can get to that amount. But I have a few projects to finish first.

Nigga, did you not notice the subtle lighting effects I put on that render? THAT IS WORTH 200 DOLLARS ALONE!

Pay up mate.

Also, you should probably buy a new laptop with that dope, instead of a wallpaper. Lel

Ways - September 13, 2014, 6:51 pm

Are you really willing to drop $200 on a wallpaper? Jeez
