Winner is Trust

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4445024&pid=42423284#pid42423284>

Sorry to everyone who didn't win. Krew has a similar contest you may be interested in.

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4446933>

Spoiler (Click to View) Its clear that this thread isn't being read properly. The list is fully updated, so all numbers that are empty are still available. Please read the thread before you post .-.

I didn't expect the contest to last this long.

I don't use my computer much nowadays and my OMC is just lying in my wallet. I thought I'd give it away in the hope it will help someone out or be put to better use if someone has more of a need for it than I do. I have about 200 OMC remaining in my wallet; its not a lot, but there's not much I can do with it.

This contest wont last long, I'll end it at around 20 replies. All you need to do is pick a number between 1 and 20 and leave a short reason as to why you want/need it.

I don't know how I'll choose the winner. It'll most likely be based on the best reply, or if they're all pretty much similar I'll use random.org.

All I ask is that you have no open scam reports and positive rep. You don't need to be upgraded, this contest is open to all. Good luck guys :)

The whole reason why the OP is a bit lengthy is so that I can actually tell who read it based on their replies to this thread. You guys clearly didn't read it properly. I stated that you should also leave a short reason to as to why you want it, like literally a sentence.. It doesn't take long. I'm not going to disqualify you, everyone makes mistakes. I'm hoping you read this though. Feel free to make changes to your posts if you like.

The list is up to date, you can have any number there that you like. I'll assign you a random one if you like, though.

There's way too many people who haven't seemed to have read the OP properly.

Can I have number 11?

Thanks in advance, nice giveaway OP!?

BoX. - September 16, 2014, 8:35 am

As much as I appreciate the interest in my contest, there still seems to be an obvious lack of attention to the format of the application. I'm going to edit the OP and clearly outline the one part the majority of people don't seem to have acknowledged. Hopefully the next 4 replies will follow the two steps I asked for and this contest can end. Good luck guys.

I'll take nineteen.

I'd like the OMC to either save up for the OMC award, or covert to PayPal and buy food. Sadly, there's not much you can do with OMC yet.

Thanks so much for the opportunity.
I truly appreciate it.

R?DSPY - September 16, 2014, 4:35 pm

Butt secks, do I get another chance?

To everyone that unfortunately didn't win, Krew has a similar contest running too and he's giving away more than twice of what I am. Check his contest out if you're interested, you might win 500 OMC instead :)
