Thread: Found an exploit to a big company

Pitimauf - September 19, 2014, 1:24 am

Hi guys. I have found an exploit for <http://chaturbate.com> (warning is adult site)

With this exploit I am able to watch any webcam for free without paying a single tip .

How much do you guys think I shall deserve to tell them the exploit and the patch to fix it ?

I already emailed them , they told me how much I want and I replied to them that I want to know their offer first. Now I am waiting to see how much they offer. How much you guys think it worth ?

420 Blaze It - September 19, 2014, 1:25 am

Offer $500. It's a fairly good and simple offer.

If you want to risk your own personal identity, try $1000.

Mind sharing since you reported it already or what?

No I haven't reported I will share it here when I get the payment and I report the step by step to reproduce it

$500 seems fair enough. Waiting for their reply to see how much they offer sp3ctrum - September 19, 2014, 1:38 am

Take their offer, and ask for a job.

<https://chaturbate.com/jobs/>The job looks amazing, you should consider asking! Good luck hope you bring in that cash and maybe a nice job.

Skorp - September 19, 2014, 1:45 am

Bunch of pedos on that site, you know what that means. If they offer below 100, fuck them.

nJoyMe - September 19, 2014, 1:47 am

You should never ask for more than 25% of the sites value.

Pitimauf - September 19, 2014, 1:49 am

Yea , those pedos are paying a lot to see the girls so they have a lot of money.

Well then 500$ is pretty low ammount,but I will ask for only 500$.

The website has over 1 million daily traffic , since 2008 is classified as number 1 adult webcam , and its making daily atleast 3000$ from paid members. Imagine how much they would ask for their domain :p

Well im just saying if u tell them like a pretty low amount and they have a pretty high income then u will look like a retard - otherwise if u give them a solid high amount they can actually afford to pay then u will look like a real threat who can help if u know what i mean :)

Im doing this for some years now, bet high ?

Equarus - September 19, 2014, 9:16 am

Just do a high price.. then lower it...

profit

Zahan - September 19, 2014, 10:19 am

Yeah $500 seems like a good price I'd suggest you have them pay you in btc.

????? ???? - September 19, 2014, 10:53 am before patching it you should make some money on Forums i hope .

Rooter - September 19, 2014, 12:37 pm

I personally think that $500 is a great price. I would try going higher but the higher you go the more likely they are going to decline the offer... so $500~$1000 is the perfect range. Congratulations on finding the exploit anyhow and good luck on receiving the money!

MasterTech - September 20, 2014, 11:01 am any update if your getting paid dude?

Pitimauf - September 21, 2014, 5:57 am

(Sep 20, 2014 11:01 AM)BossPogi Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) any update if your getting paid dude?

They offered me $2000 and also they said if I want more (LOL) and I told them it's ok. I got the payment on my Paxum , as requested. (They told me bank transfer,paxum or payoneer)

Proof or it didn't happen :

joe_myers - September 22, 2014, 1:32 pm

Nice dude, congrats. Do you mind sharing on how t recreate this bug?

Purps - September 22, 2014, 1:40 pm

Congratulations! $2000 when you were willing to settle @ $500 lolol

MicroCoil - September 22, 2014, 3:06 pm

Nice, what are you going to do with the money

ryderstorm - September 22, 2014, 3:07 pm

Tell them $2,000 if they low ball you $1k then say yes and make some money!

DarkN3ss61 - September 23, 2014, 12:58 pm

Congratulations dude! That's a good way of making money, finding exploits in sites :D trust me :)

Suits - September 23, 2014, 1:00 pm

Congrats on the 2k! Are you going to post the exploit now that they've paid you?

ixvxi - September 23, 2014, 2:47 pm

This post is actually quite inspiring. I've found vulnerabilities on a few "bigger" websites but never of thought about using it as a source of income! Congrats man

Moseby - September 23, 2014, 2:49 pm

Damn $2000?

Wish I had that kind of luck some time... Haha. Good job OP

Have fun with those cash

-zERaIT - September 24, 2014, 1:58 am

The only thing I ever recieved back was a t-shirt from a gamehosting website, guess I wont be that lucky ?

Nonetheless, congratulations on your found and ofcourse the $2000!

133720 - September 24, 2014, 7:42 am

Please report your bug and win the awards.

Good luck man.

markzuckerberg - September 24, 2014, 12:17 pm

Sorry i need to ask you a question here.. the exploit is that you are able to watch for free?
But you can watch the girls on cam for free already..

supercarz1991 - September 24, 2014, 8:25 pm

I found an exploit too. Wonder if its the same exploit eightz - September 24, 2014, 8:27 pm

I made money with the chaturbate affiliate program. I was making like $250 a day, lol.

Vegas - September 24, 2014, 8:34 pm

Pretty good find. Thousands probably wouldn't be absurd considering the nature and traffic of the site, but I'd probably settle for a few hundred, depending on the amount of effort I put into finding the exploit.

Noobsticky - September 24, 2014, 9:16 pm

You always find the goodies on the worst sites

MaEsOs - September 25, 2014, 12:55 am

Just accept their offer and ask for job . ?

Frosteh - September 25, 2014, 8:59 am

Can you disclose the bug now? I'd be interested to know what it was, even if they patched it since.

Pitimauf - September 27, 2014, 4:59 am

Lol they still haven't patched this :o

Lone Survivor - September 27, 2014, 7:10 am

Or you could be a good person and tell them the exploit for free.

Broomop - September 27, 2014, 7:12 am dont give it to them dummie keep it secret and have fun lol

I already receive payment $2000 from them from this exploit , see previous page to see proof. ?

Xervo - September 27, 2014, 8:41 am

Can you pm me the exploit after reporting it.. ?

~Xervo

Moon Rock - September 27, 2014, 8:45 am

Wow, 2k I got to start hacking them cam sites :3 I mean finding exploits

fnatic - September 27, 2014, 8:51 am

Is this the first time you have sold an exploit to devs?

iamlovingitsomuch - October 24, 2014, 9:22 pm

Mr. Pitimauf,

Would love to learn this vulnerability. Could you PM it to me? Thanks!

Inkling - October 24, 2014, 9:26 pm

Wow, 2000 for reporting an exploit.

I found a remote code execution exploit on a very big hosting company, and all they gave me was a free game server.

Specs? Duration?

It could be worth it for all you know :).

WZDY - October 25, 2014, 1:47 am

You can ask for a special job as a security manager on it. I mean, you would find Exploits for them and get paid monthly or for each one of them!

?..s??døw ??s????.,? - October 25, 2014, 9:05 am

Gratz on the 2000$ man, that is a huge amount for just finding exploits. I wish I could be good at exploit-finding one day and perhaps get a chance to report it. Not looking for money, just the thrill. ?

scammer hunter - October 25, 2014, 1:25 pm

nice job you did something goog , hopeyou will earn some good money with it

Richard "The Lionheart" - October 25, 2014, 4:05 pm

yes, very nice job. weird that jill@chaturbate.com doesn't exist though.

Austerity - October 25, 2014, 7:39 pm

From $500 to $2000. Expect the unexpected.

Also very good work with the vulnerability.
