Thread: Scammed by Bubz// \$350 - Stolen PP // Onsite Proof // Blackmail Rep // UID=2007775

b?xxy - September 21, 2014, 10:39 pm

I have gotten my items back, this has been resolved.

Hello,

I have been scammed by this user that goes by the name BUBZ: uid=2007775

He has recently changed his name to ?666?, so please be aware of that.

He was going to buy my Kik and Snapchat @Minecraft and @Sarah for $350.

He sent the money, and I sent both of the accounts, and charged back maybe an hour later.

I can confirm, that he used a stolen paypal, which is not good at all.

I realize that I have posted and junked this Thread twice, but I am done with his games. He threatened to keep the kik, if I don't get his negative reputations removed from the people that recently negative repped him. He also told me that if I junked the Thread, he would give me the kik back as well. I have done that twice now, and now I am done playing his game.

Proof that he owns the kik Mary, used to scam

We did the whole deal over kik, which probably wasn't the smartest idea to deal offsite I know, but here is some proof that he owns the kik.

Scam report when he scammed the kik

Here is the image of the kik, just so you are aware. <https://i.imgur.com/89vWOel.png>

He scammed this kik a bit ago, and here is the information on that:

Onsite proof showing he was blackmailing me to remove rep

Not only does this confirm that he owns the kik and scammed me, but is blackmailing me to get all of the reps removed which I talked to the other people and they gladly agreed if he gave me my stuff back, which obviously didn't happen.

Other information exposing his sketchiness

Aside from him scamming me, open your eyes.

His posting behavior is extremely sketchy.

Let's start getting into the specifics.

First off, he commented on a Sales Thread offering the same exact thing on the same Thread twice, after the seller clearly stated that he only accepts BTC. He still offers the same currency, 'GBP'.

The thread he does that in can be read here: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4450478>

Here is the Thread in case it gets deleted (Click to View)
<https://i.imgur.com/JXr95D6.png>

Also, seriously. I don't care how much money you have, this is just obvious and out of hand. Who offers 1200 on three different things without even thinking about it. The time delay in his posts, and the fact that they were basically copy and pasted shows that there is something that is going on.

Besides being a scammer, and the shadiest user here on Hack Forums, take some time and look at his given reputation to other users.

<https://i.imgur.com/Sl5uSIO.png>

As you can see, even the reputation he is giving is false just like almost everything that he does.

More false reputations

Bubz did not do a deal with either of these users that he repped, I talked to both of them.

This really took a lot of time, and I carefully made sure everything lined up.

Jake Miller - September 21, 2014, 10:56 pm

Negged him, good luck to him getting me to change it.

Legit scam report good luck.

b?xxy - September 21, 2014, 10:59 pm

Added more information to the report.

Looked at his given reputation, and he did not do a single deal or even contact the users that he has given rep too.

I talked to both of them.

This has all been resolved :). Please remove the neg rep, thanks!

Jake Miller - September 21, 2014, 11:04 pm

As soon as Emotion confirms this I'll change.

b?xxy - September 21, 2014, 11:10 pm

The kik has been returned, still waiting on the Snapchat though.

famwemadeit - September 21, 2014, 11:14 pm

Even if it gets returned you still got scammed, I'd let it be known that he has scammed and doesn't deserve to stay on HF esp if he is a lowlife that scams.
