The Red Lions is nokia2mon2's special group that he controls. The group was formed as a result of multiple significant donations made by nokia2mon2. He has donated over $10,000 in the name of the group, and has his own award, the Heart of a Lion. The most recent of which prompted Omniscient to add a drop shadow to the usernames of members of the group. The Red Lions and the Reviewers are the only usergroups to have a special username effect. Before the introduction of Omniscient's Deal Dispute Database, the group was in charge of the Red Lions Scammer Database, a list of user-submitted scammers on the forum.

The group was formed in January of 2011 under the sole leadership of nokia2mon2. Many donations have been made in the name of the group, and over 100 member upgrades have been made in the name of the group to date. For a while, two members spearheaded leadership within the group and that of the Black Knights, H??????a X™ and Wolves (nokia2mon2 was inactive.) Eventually, Wolves resigned from leadership as did H??????a X™. Leadership of the group was passed onto Glassy and Morchid. Morchid's account was closed and his leadership removed after a dispute with a staff member. Today, Glassy and nokia2mon2 lead the group in tandem.

Status of recruitment: Recruitment is closed, as of February 1st, 2014.

Glad to see you taking over this thread again D3xus. Hopefully it'll be stickied like it was before as you've always done a good job of updating it.

D3xus - September 22, 2014, 7:57 am

It took me a while to get up to speed, with my having been away for a while. If there is any misinformation, or lack of information in pertinence to a group, please don't hesitate to post here or message me.

Some things I know I need:

Information on the previous groups: Miners and 143

Banner for the group: Nexus

I'm back in action. I'm open to suggestions, just don't shove them down my throat please.

SIM-1166170 - September 22, 2014, 11:21 am

Welcome back d3xus.

These other threads were gay. Glad to see that you redid this.

Notice the time line.It's a confusing issue so I'll explain it as best I can.

Judge Dredd got Infamous for free and merged Complexity with Infamous. He sold what was Complexity and it became something else. So Complexity and Infamous were pretty much the same group, but I'll change the timeline to make that somewhat more clear.

Aceman - September 22, 2014, 12:18 pm

Zero - Maximum is a current leader

Illuminati - Vinnie is a current leader

The Brotherhood - 'Snorlax and Roger Waters are leaders

Phoenix has no past leaders (with none) listed.

Griev?us - September 22, 2014, 12:26 pm

Fade is not a leader of the titans group.

The leader of the group, Revolution, is Beslim not Heslim.

?nxy - September 22, 2014, 12:52 pm

Oh look, it's this thread again.

Looks better now though, doesn't say "not much is known about this group" on every part.

Fortis - September 22, 2014, 12:53 pm

This needs to be stickied to help people find group information easier.

Thanks for this D3X!

Titans has another leader, name is Errors.

Titans timeline is Complexity -> Infamous -> Titans

That's the gist of it anyways.

I don't understand this change... entertainment as a category covers anime. All they've done is limited themselves to only anime. Where as now they probably won't have as many people who are actually into filming and video editing. Studio had a lot of potential and a broad area to cover from Anime, TV, movies, music, etc. Now they are strictly Anime which makes the possibilities decline from anything to almost nothing.

Bad idea on their part. The group will be changed or sold within 6months imo. They could have focused more on Anime within Studio if they recruited/invited people for it and either got an Anime prefix or sub-forum. Or neither if they don't care.

I was working on that on my old groups thread before I was closed, but never got around to editing it in. I no longer have the draft, however.

If you are planning on doing that, though, be warned that some of the older ones are a bit difficult to find.

However, a lot of groups were closed for no good reason or were just traded off; it'll be more work for you for no real value.

Possibly make a list in word of all the groups from start to end date with the reason that they died? That would be interesting but would be too many statistics for an image on this thread, it would have to be externally linked. Though I'm probably going overboard. ?

It's in The Old Groups of Hack Forums image on post #10.

The HJT Team isn't in the old groups document because it was essentially same same as the MRT.

The Minecrafters is in the old group documents and it was essentially the same as Beacon, yet the MRT has two slots in the thread and they are exactly the same.

MRT = HJT. It was just rebanded. Same core members.

As for the Minecrafters and Beacon, they are different groups. They just served the same purpose.

MRT has two slots because they actually had two groups - one for graduates and teachers and one for students (although they actually did not have a userbar to wear)

I am now a leader of Nightfall

Rivalry - March 1, 2015, 9:00 am

Jerv now leads Nightfall, not Moseph. Spots are being sold:

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4700756>

Lani is now a leader of Zero. Zero is also about to become Leviathan, and graphics for the new group are being bought. Zero is also selling multiple leadership spots:

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4707955>

Lani and Syrah now lead Polymath. All of the other leaders have been removed. Polymath is no longer sold. It is now for sale again, after the deal with Trust et al fell through:

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4573409>

Cyph Jr is selling his L'appel du Vide leadership spot:

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4693285>

Nothing in the Titans post links to Judge Dredd's profile, despite text implying that it should. This seems deliberate, though. Also in Titans it should read 'completely differently' rather than 'completely different'.

The second part of the Debug description is unclear that this is their actual group description. It just looks like it's been randomly tacked on to the end. I recommend appending it in italics. Debug is also recruiting: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4706431>

I at first had this mindset really nailed down, and yeah groups have become significantly less in the community. It's not like back in the day with groups like The Alliance, Techsperts, RATs Crew, Graphic Masters and even Respawn (transition from Reverence) were really set out to be involved with the community. Many new groups have become much more central to attending to only themselves, which is why I think a lot of people see some degradation. The fact is there really is no point to be (only) set out to be attentive to the community, this is something that some old groups such as The Alliance recognized and changed it's course. I think what really biases peoples opinions on groups today is the consistent selling of leadership spots and recruitment based upon buy-ins and overall money mentality. I don't think it has anything to do with a group's lack of purpose, unoriginality, or even its objectives. It's more towards how it is presented to the community.

What happened to Legion? ?

(Apr 14, 2015 02:50 PM)Genuine Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Is it me or has groups turned to shit over the past few years?

I would say yes.

I have been on Hack Forums for 5 years. I am just very silent and don't contribute that much do to Real life problems, (Losing Internet, Never having a good paying job, Always trying to find a place to stay and set up my stuff)

Anyways, Back then being in a group meant something on Hack Forums, Now its just about whoever has the best looking userbar, and forum icon. You don't have to be shit to get into a group either, You could be a 12 year old little Skid DDoSer from Xbox live paying to be in HF groups with your daddies Master Card.

Its sad. But I'm just being honest. Go easy on me haha ?

[img]http://x.hackforums.net/images/modern_pl/groupimages/english/red-lion.jpg[/img]

The Red Lions is nokia2mon2's special group that he controls. The group was formed as a result of multiple significant donations made by nokia2mon2. He has donated over $10,000 in the name of the group, and has his own award, the Heart of a Lion. The most recent of which prompted Omniscient to add a drop shadow to the usernames of members of the group. The Red Lions and the Reviewers are the only usergroups to have a special username effect. Before the introduction of Omniscient's Deal Dispute Database, the group was in charge of the Red Lions Scammer Database, a list of user-submitted scammers on the forum.

The group was formed in January of 2011 under the sole leadership of nokia2mon2. Many donations have been made in the name of the group, and over 100 member upgrades have been made in the name of the group to date. For a while, two members spearheaded leadership within the group and that of the Black Knights, H??????a X™ and Wolves (nokia2mon2 was inactive.) Eventually, Wolves resigned from leadership as did H??????a X™. Leadership of the group was passed onto Glassy and Morchid. Morchid's account was closed and his leadership removed after a dispute with a staff member. Today, Glassy and nokia2mon2 lead the group in tandem.

Status of recruitment: Recruitment is closed, as of February 1st, 2014.

Timeline: Red Lions

nokia donated recently another 4.2k so the donation part needs to be updated.

I've decided that it's in the best interests of the forum to let whoever actually wants to do this thread take it, instead of me asking someone to do it.

Get the BBCode for the posts by quoting my posts.

I'll have the PSD up soon; not at my desktop so I'll do it when I can.

Dean Winchester? - September 5, 2015, 11:55 am

I'd take it but I'm sure someone will already have posted it by the time I get home.

Speak of the devil, some random kid made it lol

Grievous????? - September 5, 2015, 12:12 pm

I'll be taking over from D3xus if that is ok with everyone ?

Looking forward to running the new thread and growing along with the groups.

Whatever wakes you up in the morning though Imfao

Update - September 5, 2015, 12:45 pm

Both of you got wangled for it. Its already being posted by someone else.

D3xus - September 5, 2015, 3:40 pm

You don't have to message me for this. It's not my decision to make. Whoever makes the thread and stays committed to keeping it updated can have it.
