I would be willing to do tech work etc, although for a flat-rate pay.

I could manage your servers and what not, although I don't want to have my pay based off of your marketing success, but off my work ethic. :)

Fetz - We would love that Sir, that is Totally Fine. Please add me on Skype to Discuss this more in depth ?

Dr Pepper. - September 25, 2014, 12:28 am

I'm now part of the team on a trial basis nice guys honestly.

Im interested in becoming an employee for your hosting company. I have worked with/for many other hosting companies in the past but they weren't very successful so they ending being shutdown, I have experience with WHMCS and proper English grammar. Message me with more info on how I could become an employee.

P.S - Skype is not a way to contact, I do not use Skype anymore.

TechnicalOperator - September 25, 2014, 12:55 am

Red™ - I have just sent you a PM Sir.

He is currently sorting it out. His business Partner LOGGED into his account and Bought L33T for his account. He was banned for fraud because the IP that bought the account was different to his normal IP. It was an accident NOT FRAUD and he is getting it fixed.
